

DAY OF SHAMROCK EMBLEMS

Omaha Will Honor St. Patrick, but Without the Usual Parade.

EXERCISES AT CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY

Light of Fact Reveals that Patron Saint Was Not Native of Emerald Isle and Spoils Snake Story.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

There is a notion in most people's mind that St. Patrick was originally an Irish peasant boy, who suddenly came into prominence and earned his title by killing off deadly reptiles with a wave of his hand.

BOREAS PLAYS WITH MILLER

Then Colonel Mosier Makes Good by Telling County Clerk What to Wear.

A robust squall of wind with sand in its teeth went bowling down the Farnam street hill Sunday forenoon, seeking whom it might embarrass.

Mr. Miller, though a good politician, didn't recognize Old Boreas as one of his constituents. This offended the grizzled god.

"I'll teach you better manners," he said, and whisked his derby hat off, and sent it careening into the gutter.

Mr. Miller stooped to pick it up, but the god was in a merry mood, and when the clerk's fingers were about to close upon it the hat turned over and rolled about a foot.

Mr. Miller tried it again. The hat lifted itself on its rim and prouted a few fancy steps.

Mr. Miller pretended not to know that a crowd of men had come out of the hotel office and were watching the contest with scientific interest.

Mr. Miller invoked the blight of Egypt upon the luckless lid.

He stalked it again from the lee side. Approaching on tiptoe, he poised himself an instant, carefully measuring the distance, then pounced downward with the full impetus of his avoirdupois.

At this point it is necessary to the purposes of this narrative to leave Mr. Miller struggling with the hat to take up another phase of his career.

Matters were in this state when the ruffian came down the Farnam street hill. Now to return to Mr. Miller and his headgear.

When he swooped down that time the hat was not there to break the force of his fall. A gust had whisked it away at the street, skimming laterally, hovering end over end, and skirting along the pavement like a thing of life.

Mr. Miller put his hands in his pockets and walked down in his direction, trying to look unconcerned.

When he swooped down that time the hat was not there to break the force of his fall. A gust had whisked it away at the street, skimming laterally, hovering end over end, and skirting along the pavement like a thing of life.

COLUMBUS KNIGHTS ORGANIZE

First Nebraska Council of Catholic Order Installed in Omaha.

CHARTER MEMBERS NUMBER FIFTY-TWO

Large Delegations from Other Western Cities Attend the Inaugural Ceremonies—Banquet at the Millard Hotel.

The first council of the Knights of Columbus organized in Nebraska was instituted yesterday afternoon in the temple of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, with a total of fifty-two members.

The installation exercises occupied the entire afternoon and part of the evening, and only a little time elapsed between the conclusion of the ceremonies attending the institution of the council and the assembling of guests and members of the banquet given in the Millard at 9 o'clock.

The proceedings were secret, as also were the formal and informal exercises at the banquet. Since the first council of the Knights of Columbus was instituted in New Haven, Conn., about twenty years ago, a total of 650 have been established with a membership of nearly 90,000.

It is a beneficiary organization, although this is not the dominant feature, it being only incidental to the social character of the council's work.

Only Catholics eligible. Only Catholics are eligible to membership, and any Catholic ecclesiast is entitled to admission to the meetings of the council regardless whether he is actually a member or not.

It was expected that a delegation from Denver would be present yesterday's proceedings, but the Coloradoans were instead to Texas, where a council is being organized.

The names of the charter members of the Omaha council are as follows: William J. Brennan, C. J. Smyth, R. J. Bourke, R. E. Welch, Thomas Johnson, J. A. C. Kennedy, C. E. Crowley, Thomas F. Larkin, T. J. Mahoney, J. W. Murphy, J. P. Dunn, J. W. McGovern, J. P. English, W. J. McDevitt, Thomas Flynn, W. J. Monaghan, J. F. Fitzgerald, Dr. W. J. McCrann, John Flynn, Dr. W. J. McCrann, J. P. Gibbons, Dr. W. J. McCrann, A. M. Gallagher, J. E. O'Hearn, James Hayden, W. R. O'Shaughnessy, D. C. Healy, Brian John Power, Rev. D. P. Harrington, John Russell, John S. Jenck, John Ryan, Dr. Robert P. Jensen, P. J. Sheehy, Dr. A. W. Riley, J. H. Schmidt.

The program yesterday began with attendance in St. Philomena's cathedral of the visiting knights, where a special mass was celebrated.

The banquet room in the Millard was draped with numerous American flags. There were four tables extending along the wall of the room with a connecting table along the Thirteenth street side.

The program of toasts was as follows: E. W. Simeral, acting as toastmaster; C. J. Smyth, "Our Guests"; P. L. McArdie of Chicago, "Our Order"; Rev. D. W. Moriarty, "South Omaha"; T. J. Mahoney, "The Catholic Citizen"; T. J. Mahoney, "Columbus"; James Manahan of Lincoln, "The Future of Our Order."

The building committee of the Presbyterian Seminary will be in consultation Saturday over the bids submitted by the contractors for the construction of the building to be erected this year.

The committee having charge of the installation of the new set of buildings to be erected on the ground, the conclusion was reached that the committee should adjourn to meet Monday, when the discussion will be taken up where it was dropped Saturday evening.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Orpheum.

AMUSEMENTS

Since the introduction of vaudeville into Omaha it has been a noticeable fact that whenever the program at the Orpheum includes the name of some well known actor or actress formerly prominent in the legitimate drama, or, in fact, whenever the bill is headed by an act featured as being of the highest quality in vaudeville, the balance of the entertainment usually falls far short of being interesting, much less amusing or entertaining.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

PREDICT AN EARLY ENDING

Members of House and Senate Expect to See Legislation Rushed.

TOM REED LOSES MUCH OF HIS BLOOM

Plan for Popular Election of United States Senators Steadily Gathers Strength—Moody Mised in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special.)—Members of the house and senate who have sized up the legislative situation predict that the present session of congress will come to a close earlier than usual and that final adjournment will be reached in June.

The appropriation bills are all in a more advanced stage than is usually the case at this period of the session and the only other important measure to be considered are the isthmian canal bill and the ship subsidy bill.

Members of the house are especially anxious to leave Washington early this year because of the congressional campaign. The democrats seem to take some encouragement over the division in the republican party on the Cuban tariff, and many of the republican leaders are expected to be furnished with an issue they can use to advantage in the fall elections.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

Some of the bills that were expected to provoke exhaustive debates have been arbitrarily shelved by Speaker Henderson. Among them are the measures admitting Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico to the union of states.

"Chronic Weakness"

Neither Sick Nor Well.

A Distinguished Medical Editor Tells How Many Are Subject to Semi-Starvation or an Habitually Half-Fed Condition Because Their Stomachs Won't Work.

A Way to Cure "Chronic Starvation" and Its Attendant Weaknesses and Disabilities is Pointed Out.

In editorial in the October, 1901, issue of the Medical Brief, a journal published by and for physicians and having the largest circulation of any strictly professional medical publication in the world, says: "There are many patients who have nothing organically wrong with them, but are kept in a weak, nervous state by general somnolence over the next session, and as the subsidy project was discussed thoroughly in the last two sessions its consideration will not develop many so-called long speeches to postpone adjournment."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the proper remedy for this condition. Being in tablet form they are not only convenient to carry and take, but necessarily free from all alcoholics and the objectionable stimulating agents so common to their competitors.

Advertisement for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, featuring the text "Don't Hug the Stove" and "If you do, a little draft or a sharp wind will give you a cold or a cough."

Advertisement for AK-SAR-BEN HUSTLERS READY, mentioning a campaign for funds for fall festivities.

Advertisement for LOCAL BREVITIES, listing various news items and events.

Advertisement for PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS, featuring short biographical sketches.

Advertisement for Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, highlighting its benefits for dental hygiene and oral care.