College of Law for four years and with YANGER DRUBS EDDY LENNY Gets Decision and Nearly a Knockout at the End of Six Fierce Rounds.

Polk county court.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Clever footwork and constant holding while in trouble was all that saved Eddy Lenny of Philadelphia from being knocked out tonight by Benny Yanger at the America chib. Yanger forced the fighting from the start and easily gained the decision at the end of six rounds of as fast fighting as ever was witnessed in Chicago.

Lenny showed up fairly well in the first two rounds, but after that Yanger's stiff body blows began to tell and a knockout seemed a possibility at any moment. Lenny was decidedly weak in the fourth round and during the exchanges as they neared the edge of the ring he grasped the rope with both bands and the combined efforts of the referee and Yanger were needed to break his hold. Lenny was tottering as the round ended. He was in a bad way through the fifth round, but avoided a knockout by constant clinching and holding. In the last round Yanger knocked Lenny through the ropes. After helping him back into the ring Yanger tried to finish him, but the eastern boy fell into a clinch and hung on until he had recovered sufficiently to dance out of reach. Lenny was barely able to stand when the contest ended.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 17.—Frank Erne, the lightweight champion, put an effective damper on the championship aspiration of Curley Supples, a local boxer of some cleverness, before the International club at Fort Erie tonight, knocking Supples out in the sixth round.

Erne fought in a different style than is his usual custom, keeping close to his man and showing a desire to mix and rough it. Supples fought most creditably and in the third round almost sent Erne to the floor with a left uppercut. Erne was perceptibly jarred and fought blindly for a moment, but soon regained his senses and while Supples was rushing in an attempt to score a knockout caught him with a right cross that sent him sprawling. Supples just managed to weather the round because of his hugging and Erne's weakness. In the fifth Erne crowded his man about the ring and weakened him with left hand punches in the stomach and stinging jabs to the face. In the sixth as Supples rushed in Erne crossed with his right inside of his lead and sent him flat on the floor, his head striking heavily.

Erne was considerably bruised about the eyes, while Supples was badly punished in both face and body.
