Advice All Persons Suffering From Lost Manhood to Send for This Free Cure.

HAS THE OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT

Of the U. S. Investigating Reports—The American Authority On All Matters of Public Welfare.

READ THIS OFFER.

ACCEPT IT TO-DAY.

I have a message to every suffering and health-broken man in this country. If you are afflicted with sexual weakness or nervous debility I want you to read this article and then write to me.

Read the following, by William Cole, M. D., Washington, D. C., published in the United States Investigating Reports, regarding the prescription from which a remedy for curing lost manhood is prepared.

During the examination of men for the army during our recent war with Spain our United States army physicians discovered that a large percentage of men disqualified because of nervous disorders were in fact the victims of these reports to enter into a statement of causes.

Some fifteen years ago the writer gave attention to the cure of nervous disorders and found that the best remedy was a formula of medicinal ingredients.

That the secretary of the interior be directed to send to the senate a statement of the traffic relations between the railroads that connect with the waters of the Pacific ocean and the government of the United States with a reference to the statistics upon which relations have been conducted.

Mr. Rawlins produces his letters. Mr. Rawlins then rose to read the correspondence which had been printed in the Congressional Record.

The correspondence, which was voluminous, proved to be a collection of private letters exchanged between unnamed persons in this country.

To everyone who writes in good faith I will send the full formula of this wonderful medicine. This prescription and full directions are sent free.

There are not many ministers who would be willing to publicly endorse and recommend a cure of this kind with the statement that they themselves had been cured by it.

You are older now and can look back and see the mistakes you have made, but you cannot recall the vigor and fire of the springtime of robust manhood.

FORMER OPPOSES THE PRESENT BILL

Afraid It Will Establish Classes—Believes Assaults on Chief Executive Should Be Punished Through Ordinary Law.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—For three hours today the senate had under consideration the bill providing for the protection of the president of the United States and for the punishment by United States courts of those who commit assaults on him.

Another Animated Debate.

Earlier in the day a lively debate was precipitated by the effort of Mr. Rawlins of Utah to have printed as a document some Philippine correspondence.

Two veto messages of the president were laid before the senate and ordered printed.

The first was a veto of an act to grant an honorable discharge from military service to certain soldiers of the Philippine army.

Mr. Rawlins then rose to read the correspondence which had been printed in the Congressional Record.

The correspondence, which was voluminous, proved to be a collection of private letters exchanged between unnamed persons in this country.

MINERS CONCEAL ALL PLANS

Anthracite Workers Decline to State Object of Their Convention.

EVENTFUL MEETING IS ANTICIPATED

Many Grievances Are to Be Made, but Recognition of Union Is Not Held to Be Foremost.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 18.—The most important convention of hard coal miners since that which resulted in the memorable strike of 1900, began here today and is likely to result in a new era of industry.

President John Mitchell arrived from Altoona early today and was met by a large delegation of the miners.

The convention merely organized today and the proceedings were simply preliminary to the more important work as follows.

It is next to impossible to obtain an idea of the wishes of the delegates.

According to Secretary Hartlein of district No. 2, the Shamokin district, there are 14,000 mine workers in the anthracite region, and 98 per cent of these are members of the United Mine Workers of America.

Mr. Mitchell commended the committee for taking the "back track" upon wasteful expenditures in certain directions, pointing out the abandonment of further improvements of the Missouri canal.

He said that congress should set a definite limit upon the depth of water sought to be obtained in seaport harbors—thirty feet, for instance—and place a limit upon naval architecture.

Speaking of the Hennepin canal Mr. Hepburn admitted that he had voted for it. "But considering the mental pressure I have undergone since," said he, "and my infancy and ignorance when I cast the vote it will not go as hard with me as with a hard-headed old sinner like my friend from Illinois (Mr. Reeves) if he should attempt to include in another such freak of legislation." (Laughter.)

The canal was projected to get the produce of the farmers of Iowa to the Great Lakes," suggested Mr. Reeves.

"Quite true," retorted Mr. Hepburn, "but the farmers of that day are all dead, while the incompleting canal continues to drain its annual appropriations from the treasury." (Renewed laughter.)

QUESTION POWER OF COURT

MANILA, March 18.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Walter and Lieutenant John H. A. Day of the marine corps on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial held its first session today.

Major Walter was represented by Captain Arthur T. Marx of the marine corps, Major Edwin F. Glenn of the army and Mr. Suire, a lawyer.

General William H. Bissop presided. Captain Marx pleaded that the court lacked jurisdiction, as marines cannot be tried by the army, except when attached to that service.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—It is understood that the president has about decided to tender the civil service commissioner's place vacant by the resignation of Mr. W. A. Rodenburg to Mr. Harry A. Garfield of Cleveland, O., a son of President Garfield.

There is some doubt, however, as to whether he will accept the office, though it is believed to be an appointment with some attractions for him, as he has taken an interest in civil service reform for several years, especially in connection with improvement of municipal government and consular service.

PRINCE IN HIS OWN COUNTRY

Many and sum up the results of his trip to the United States with great satisfaction.

Die Post expects a permanent change in the attitude of the German public toward the United States and says: "We must not cast completely overboard the old legends about American character and civilization. We must admit that beyond the seas, and almost in the sunlight of the most modern times, a people has grown up which, in its peculiar character, can make a just claim to be recognized as the equal of the old civilizations of the world."
