Labor Temple Directors Explain Exclusion of Hod Carriers' Union.

CRITICISE WAY THE ROOM WAS KEPT

If Central Labor Union Enforces Its Resolution, Temple Association Will Appeal Directly to Various Unions.

Labor circles in Omaha are all torn up over the action of the board of directors of the Labor Temple association in refusing to rent lodge rooms to the Hodcarriers' union and the matter has reached the American Federation of Labor, where it has having never been filled. General Gunther, caused considerable comment. While the Labor Temple association occupied rooms in the Patterson block at Seventeenth and Douglas streets the hodearriers were accorded the same privileges as all other unions, but when the quarters were removed to the present location and the Temple association was incorporated that body discovered that for its best interests the Hodcarriers' union must be excluded. As soon as this action was taken, which was done by the unanimous vote of the directory, a few persons claimed that the action was the result of race prejudice. The matter was brought up at the last meeting of the Central Labor union and that body decided to take up the cause of the hodcarriers, adopting a resolution declaring that the action of the Temple association was wrong, and that the hodcarriers should be given place in the build-

Pending this action on the part of the Central Labor union interested parties had written to the secretary and president of the American Federation of Labor, but the statement made was apparently so obscure that the officers of the federation did not understand the case, as they replied that if the hodcarriers had been excluded from the building on account of the race of some of the members and the union was not restored to equal fellowship with the other unions the federation would annul the charter of the Omaha Central Labor union.

Temple Association Independent. The Central Labor union has no connection with the Labor Temple association and has no representation on the board of directors. Harry McVea, the president of the Temple association, said: There was no racial question involved directly in the exclusion of the hodearriers | Merriam, but as the chief executive was not from the building. It was done simply be- disposed to act at that time the matter was cause we found it difficult to prepare the room occupied by the hodearriers for the use of other societies after they had held a meeting. It was not a question of race, but a question of cleanliness."

Mr. Willis says that has resulted in pneumonia, which that he is willing to surrender the commission whenever it is demanded.

Other members of the Temple association threaten to carry the question to the floor of the various unions, and say that if the will be guided by the result of that vote. Such a course is deprecated by union leaders in the city, as they fear that the hod-carriers would not be sustained and the division in the ranks of labor thus shown would be used against all unions by interestal parties.

MAKING CITIZENS RAPIDLY Jonas Holmgren Urges Friends from Sweden to Take Out Second Papers.

Not every day, but almost every day, there is led before Judge Baxter in courtroom No. 1 a procession of men who were born abroad, who desire to take out their second papers and become full-fledged American citizens. Among them it has been noted that Sweden is almost invariably given as the place of birth and telloring as the occupation. Inquiry discloses that the man who is responsible for this daily fronting up at the bar is Jonas Holmgren, who cuts trousers for a living. Jones got to thinking it over one day and concluded that while the laws of Nebraska do not require that a foreign-born resident take out his second papers before voting, the man himself should have pride enough and loyalty enough to do so, and he forthwith began the propagation of his theory, with the result that more have taken the oath in Douglas county during the last three weeks than for years back. And Jonas proposes to keep up the good work until he has his countrymen all in line.

NO PREJUDICE AGAINST RACE GENERAL BATES IS IN LINE May Be Advanced to Rank of Major General Within a Few Months.

Considerable interest is manifest in local army circles over the retirement of Major General E. S. Otts, which will take place Tuesday, and there are many hopes expressed that General John C. Bates, the commander of the Department of the Missouri, will be given the vacant place. General Bates stands second in the rank of brigadier generals, General Wade being the senior brigadier general. The retirement of General Otis and the filling of that vacancy will make three vacancles in the list of brigadier generals, the vacancies caused by the retirement of General Merriam and General Hall last fall now retired, was promoted to the vacancy aused by the retirement of General Hall, but retired immediately upon his appointment, leaving the place again vacant.

Word from semi-official sources has ceached the city that within less than a week after the retirement of General Otls all vacancies will be filled, which inclines interested parties to the opinion that the promotions have already been decided upon. In the month of July there will be two nere vacancies in the rank of major general, General Lloyd Wheaton retiring July 15 and General John R. Brooke retiring This will cause vacancies in the rank of major general, and it is confidently asserted by army men that if General Bates does not come into the rank of major general upon the retirement of General Otis he will be elevated upon the refrement of these generals in July. It is said that General Leonard Wood is almost certain to be called upon to fill one of these vacancies and that the others will probably go in the way of seniority, especially as the two men standing in the highest rank are persons whose records have been brilliant not only in recent campaigns, but in the civil war.

For one of the vacancies in the rank of rigadier general there is a strong sentiment in Illinois, which will no doubt be backed up from Nebraska, for the appointment of Colonel E. J. McClernand, the present adjutant general of this department. Colonel McClernand held the rank of origadier general of volunteers during the Spanish war and made a record which in the opinion of his friends and the Illinois congressional delegation entitles him to advancement. A number of the congressmen from Illinois presented his name to the president upon the retirement of General not pressed.

Don't try to whip them to greater exertion with stimulants, condiments and spices. Such treatment will only leave them worse in the end.

The proper treatment is something to help digest the food and give the stomach needed rest and at the same time tone up and energite the exhausted organ.

There is one remedy that will do this. It is convenient, asfe, cheap, reliable and satisfactory. Once used, the dyspeptic is its advocate and friend. It can be bought at any drug store for fifty cents a box; call for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you have it.

Mrs. G. H. Urotsley, 533 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I ve had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything size and runs for them."

Miss Lells Dively, 4627 Plummer St., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I wish everyone to know how grateful I am for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I suffered for a jong time and did not know what alled me. I lost flesh right along until one day I noticed an advertisement of these tablets and immediately bought a se cent box at the drug store. I am only on the second bex and am gaining in flesh and color. I have at last found some-
