

FREIGHT WRECK KILLS BOY

John Murphy of Chicago Loses Life While Stealing Ride. HIS COMPANION IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Eight Cars of Special Freight Leave Bails Between Woodbine and Logan, Iowa, and Five Are Smashed.

The ditching of a special Chicago & Northwestern freight train west bound between Woodbine and Logan, Ia., yesterday morning resulted in the death of one boy who was stealing a ride, the injuring of another and the blocking of the line for seven hours.

Three passenger trains were delayed because of the wrecks. No. 11 and 1 from the east, which arrive in Omaha at 8 o'clock and 9:29 in the morning, respectively, were behind the freight. They were taken off the main line at Denison, run north to Boyer, thence down southwest again to Mondamin and into Missouri Valley on the main line again via the Sioux City branch.
