FIREWORKS AT TAX HEARING

Attorneys Warm Up a Trifle Over the Introduction of Evidence.

NOT ALLOWED TO PROVE THE FORGERY

Charge Made by Mr. McIntosh Again, but Testimony on the Point Kept Out on Objection by Webster.

There were stirring times at the tax-mandamus hearing yesterday, caused by Attorney McIntosh's attempt to prove forgery in connection with making up the record of the Board of Equalization. As was anticipated, he was not permitted to prove forgery, even if there had been forgery to prove, but he did show some peculiar irregularities in the record. Even this point was gained only after a strenuous fight with the corporation lawyers and the city attorney.

Every step he took in this direction was through a tangle of legal technicalities put in his way by the other side. The session was long and the proceedings, written in a large office book, had been garbled and mutilated, so that an entire paragraph had been erased in order to make room for a false entry; that this false entry had been made after the injunction hearing before Judge Dickinson, and that it made the record show that there had been a hearing and an adjudication of the so-called Real Estate exchange complaints. Mr. Webster objected to cross-examination on this for the reason that the subject had not been touched upon in examination-in-chief. The objection was sustained.

Shrewd Move of Respondents. In this connection the interesting fact cropped out that the attorneys for the respondents had anticipated just this contingency and had planned to circumvent Mr. McIntosh's move. They had withdrawn City Clerk Elbourn from the stand before introducing the journal in evidence. He had not been questioned about it. This rendered it necessary for Mr. McIntosh to make his own witness, a thing he was very reluctant to do.

"Have you the pencil minutes taken at the time the board was in session?" asked Mr. McIntosh.

Mr. Webster objected on the ground that it was immaterial.

This precipitated an interminable quarrel between Mr. Webster and Mr. Connell.

"I want your honor to understand," shouted the latter, "that I have something to say in this case as well as Mr. Webster! I don't want the record to show either the sharp practices of Mr. McIntosh or the negligence of Mr. Webster, and before any further questions are asked of this witness I want the record to show that Mr. McIntosh has recalled Mr. Elbourn as his own witness!"

"Tut, tut, gentlemen!" said the referee. "I wish your honor would keep out!" said Mr. McIntosh. "This suit is mine! This is helping my side of the case!"

"Well, it's the only thing that can help it!" was Mr. Connell's retort.

Elbourn's Status Settled.

Then the court reporter was asked to record the fact that City Clerk Elbourn was recalled as Mr. McIntosh's witness, and the hearing was resumed.

Mr. Elbourn waited for the heretofore inevitable objection and seemed surprised that none was forthcoming. He finally answered:

NEW OVERLAND EQUIPMENT

Union Pacific Goes in for Splendor on Chicago-Frisco Run.

PROVIDES EVERY MODERN CONVENIENCE

New Interchangeable Mileage Book in Which Script Represents Money Goes into Use on Western Railroads.

General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific railway announces details of equipment and service on the new Overland train to be run between Chicago and San Francisco over the Chicago & Northwestern, the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, commencing April 1.

These will be the present Nos. 1 and 2, but will be entirely different trains, as the equipment is new throughout. One train leaves Chicago and one San Francisco every day. It is asserted that they will be the finest trains crossing the continent. All the cars in them were made especially to the order of the Union Pacific, which owns them. Telephone service on the train at terminals will be a feature. Everything will be electric lighted, and each train will carry its own skilled electrician, whose sole duties will be to care for the different features of his department on that train.

One entire car on each train will be reserved for the electrical appliances and dynamo. The total equipment will be: Dynamo car, mail car, baggage car, composite car, dining car, Portland sleeper, San Francisco sleeper and San Francisco observation car. The composite car is a buffet, smoking and library car, with barber shop and bath auxiliaries. The sleeping cars are all fourteen-section, with a single drawing room. The observation is a new type, the apartment observation car. There is in each car one drawing room, six staterooms and one observation room at the rear.

Interchangeable Mileage Book. A novel mileage book has been adopted by lines west of Denver and El Paso. It is interchangeable and is the first mileage of this kind to be used in the territory covered. This is the same pattern that the lines from the Missouri river to Denver are now considering for adoption and it is called an "exchange script book."

The book is not different in appearance from the usual mileage book, but its contents represent money instead of mileage.

Railway Notes and Personal.

General Agent Bucknum of the Pennsylvania lines has gone to Minneapolis, Minn., to attend to business.
