HURRY CALL TO FLORENCE FARMERS' DAY AT BENNETT'S STRIKE IN SHOE FACTORY Sheriff Makes Fast Drive to Rescue

FEARS LYNCHING FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT

After Emma Roach Tells Her Story of Attempted

Assault.

Sheriff John Power returned at 4:30 yesterday afternoon from a fast drive to Florence which drive was, he thinks, the means of preventing a lynching in that ordinarily" quiet town.

He brought back with him Frank Smock, accused of attempting a criminal assault upon Emma J. Roach, a 16-year-old girl who is a cripple. Smock, aged about 38, is an exceptionally large man, considerably over six feet tall and weighing in the neighborhood of 200 pounds. For twelve years he has been making his home with Catherine Roach, mother of the girl and a widow. He claims to have been their principal support as a boarder and lodger harvest and to have "bought every stitch of clothes the girl has worn during that time," but he makes no other statement concerning his alleged offense,

While Her Mother is Away.

The story is that while the mother was guests were served. absent yesterday forenoon he followed the girl into a bedroom and there made a proposal, following the refusal of which he used violence, but unsuccessfully. It is told that he held his hand over her mouth and threatened to kill her if she made an outery, but she freed herself and ran into the yard, screaming so lustily that the attention of a neighbor woman was attracted. Smock started for Omaha, but was overtaken by the marshal and returned to be locked up.

As the news spread throughout the town a large crowd gathered about the town who previously had had some schooling in jail and the alarmed marshal telephoned the geography of the store, served to pilot the county attorney, who in turn telephoned the sheriff. The latter and his deputy, Adam Sloup, at once started for the scene of the trouble, as did also Deputy County Attorney Eimer Thomas.

Officers Fear Angry Crowd.

By the time they reached the Florence jail the officers there were more than anxious to be rid of their charge and the prisoner himself was so enthusiastic at the prospect of being removed from the sound of the angry threats that reached him from outside the building that he waived examination instantly. John Negley, police judge of Florence, bound him over in the sum of $1,000, which he could not furnish, Omaha. and he was whisked away to Omaha at once. The girl was held under $100 bond and will he brought here today to be examined by experts who shall discover if there be marks of violence upon her.

GENTLEMEN:-- I have prescribed that wonderful remedy for kidney computint, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, with most beneficial effect and know of many cures by its use These patients had kidney trouble, as diagnosed by other physicians, and treated with out benefit, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root effected a cure. I am a liberal man and accept a specific wherever I find it, in an accepted school or out of it. For desperate cases of kidney complaint under treatment with unsatisfactory results I turn to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root with most flattering results. I shall continue to prescribe it and from ersonal observation state that Swamp-Root has great curative properties.

Truly yours,

(L. Barstow Irish, M. D.) 276 9th St., Borough of Brooklyn, N. Y. ept. 24, 1901.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice, and is taken by doctors themselves who have kidney ailments, because they recognize in it the greatest and most successful remedy for kidney, liver and bladder troubles.
