GEORGE GOULD IS SET FREE

Judge Good Declares He Did Not Help Wreck Bellwood Bank.

NOT AN ABETTER OF BROTHER AMOS

Wahoo Court Orders Prisoner's Release from Custody of the Sheriff on Writ of Habeas Corpus.

DAVID CITY, Neb., April 1.—(Special.)—

Some time ago George Gould was arrested on the charge of aiding and abetting Amos H. Gould in forging notes and mortgages which resulted in the wrecking of the Platte Valley State bank of Bellwood. The preliminary hearing was had before County Judge Skiles, and Gould was held to the district court under bonds in the sum of $5,000. Gould's attorneys immediately made application to Judge Good of Wahoo for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Good passed on the application last night. In an exhaustive opinion in which he carefully reviews all the evidence introduced before County Judge Skiles at the preliminary examination, on which Judge Skiles held Gould to the district court for trial, and in which he reviewed the law governing the crime charged against Gould, Judge Good held that there was not sufficient competent evidence showing that anyone had aided, abetted or counseled Amos H. Gould in the commission of the forgeries charged in the complaint upon which the examination was held, and that there was not sufficient competent evidence introduced before the county judge to show that George Gould by any act aided, abetted or counseled Amos H. Gould, either in the forging or uttering of forged paper.

The evidence being held insufficient to justify the detention of Gould, the judge ordered that he be discharged from the custody of the sheriff.
