Governor Cannot Name Sheriff. TOPEKA, Kan., April 5.—The supreme court today decided that the new biennial election law does not give the governor power to appoint successors to the county sheriffs who have been in office four years. They will retain their office till the next election. The opinion holds that there are no vacancies in the office of the sheriff which the governor is authorized to fill.

Captain Carter Much Better Off. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 5.—The condition of ex-Captain Oberlin M. Carter, who is ill at the Fort Leavenworth Military prison with typhoid fever, showed marked improvement today. The physicians now say he will soon recover.

CHAMBERLAIN SNUBS ORCHID

Abandons Favorite Flower and Pails Into a General Slackness of Attire.

Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, April 5 .- (New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-The noticeable absence for two months of the orchid with which Colonial Secretary Chamberlain has been accustomed to decorate himself on all occasions is attributed to the Boer war. It is asserted that he registered a vow to discard his favorite flower until the war ended, just as Queen Isabella once vowed never to change a garment until Granada was taken.

A general slackness in the heretofore spruce Mr. Chamberlain has been noticed, the only characteristic bit of style he clings to being his monocle. A tailors' periodical lately ridiculed in a mild way the present cut of his clothes and his general shabbi ness in appearance, one offense against smartness being the wearing of side spring

The current number of the Tatler leads its society department with the following paragraph, accompanied by a portrait: "The duchess of Marlborough, Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, when she was married to the duke of Mariborough, had the desire to become the best type of the English chatelaine without abandoning her national characteristics, and she has certainly succeeded. Within a very short time of her marriage she entertained the then second royalties of the kingdom as to the manor born. She has restored the fortunes of the house of Spencer Churchill. WASHINGTON, April 5.—Secretary of the All other sources...... 118,488.27 Treasury Shaw has sent a letter to each of the women who recently signed a paper addressed to him complaining of the illtreatment, etc., at the hands of baggage inspectors at the port of New York. The letter states than on receipt of the petition a circular letter was sent to each signer asking a more specific statement and the facts upon which the conclusion recited in the petition were based. This circular was sent to 1,020 women, whose addresses were given in the petition. A little over 300 were returned for want of sufficient address. cstablishment built on the most scientific principles.

Schweninger incurred the hostility of the entire staff of physicians and nurses by his criticism of their treatment hitherto of various diseases and of his somewhat penurious methods in regulating the institution's affairs. Besides, he was so indiscreet as to proclaim that in the treatment of diphtheria and several other atiments the medical men of today, and especially those in Germany, are all on the wrong track and display ignorance of these diseases at every turn.

The medical world of Berlin flercely attacks Schweeninger, calling him a man of no skill, and saying he was "pitchforked" into his present position, and as a professor in Berlin university by Bismarck, without any regard to his qualifications. His condemning of the methods of treating diphtheria is regarded by his opponents as merely a bid for popularity.
