

BIG CROWD AT BALL GAME

'Pa' Bourke's Aggregation Draws Out Fifteen Hundred People.

OMAHA WIN FROM ORIGINALS AGAIN

Three New Twirlers for League Team Are Tried Out and Brown Makes Himself Solid with Fans.

Fifteen hundred Sunday pleasure-seekers gathered at Vinton Street park yesterday to watch the antics of 'Pa' Bourke's new baseball players...

Though it was a cold base ball day the field and battery play was not affected visibly by this fact...

Three of Omaha's new twirlers were tried out, and the first man out, Brown, made exceeding good with the crowd.

Third Base Men Hickey was on exhibition for the first time and considering his lack of preliminary practice appeared a good actor.

Some Pretty Ball Playing. All this goose-egging, however, meant some pretty ball playing...

The Omaha team goes to Lincoln to play a few games with the State university boys today...

It remained for the originals to make the sole double, Genina and Calhoun being caught at first and second on a grounder by the latter to Bradford.
