

CULLOM RAISES CRY

Chairman of Foreign Relations Committee Protests Against Chinese Bill.

CONDEMNNS PRESENT FORM OF MEASURE

Says It Contravenes Existing Treaties Between Americans and Orientals.

URGES OBSERVANCE OF SOLEMN COMPACT

Senator Personally Favors Exclusion, but Objects to the Present Bill.

BUSINESS MEN OF COAST SEND IN PROTEST

Class Speeches Hears List Urging Senate Not to Pass the Bill Without Modifications — Measure Referred to Committee.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A vigorous protest was made in the senate today by Mr. Cullom of Illinois, against the passage of the Chinese exclusion bill in its present form. Coming from the chairman of the committee on foreign relations, the protest made a deep impression on the senate.

PROTEST OF SPEECHES AND OTHERS.

At the opening of the session today, the president pro tem, (Mr. Frye), laid before the senate a telegram signed by Claus Spreckels, and about twenty other business men of San Francisco, protesting against the passage of the Chinese exclusion bill in its present form.

PERSONALLY I AM IN FAVOR OF AN ABSOLUTE EXCLUSION OF CHINESE LABORERS.

Personally, I am in favor of an absolute exclusion of Chinese laborers, and I am in favor of the present bill, but I do not think it would be wise for us to pass the bill under consideration, because I consider it a violation of our treaty relations with China.

MOST REGRET CHINESE TREATY.

Our treaty with China is worthy of consideration in our eyes, and it is in our interest to maintain it. I do not think it would be wise for us to pass the bill under consideration, because I consider it a violation of our treaty relations with China.

CUT CAPTIVES INTO PIECES

Ladrones Capture Three of the Constabulary of Sarsang and Treat Them Barbarously.

MANILA, April 8.—Fifty Ladrones, armed with rifles, recently attacked five members of the constabulary of Sarsang, southwest Luzon, captured three of them and treated the captives with hideous brutality, eventually cutting them into small pieces.

LORD KIMBERLEY IS DEAD

Liberal Statesman of Great Britain Passes Away After Long Illness.

LONDON, April 8.—Lord Kimberley, the liberal statesman who had been ill for some time past, died this afternoon.

WON'T BE BRITAIN'S GUEST

Whitelaw Reid Declines Invitation to Be Entertained by British Government During Coronation.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Whitelaw Reid, head of the special embassy to represent the United States at the coronation of King Edward VII, has declined the tender of the British government to become its guest during the coronation.

LIKES THE AMERICAN SYSTEM

British Labor Leader Points Out Wisdom of Yankees' Co-Operative Methods.

LONDON, April 8.—William Abram, M. P., a prominent member of the labor party, in a speech delivered in the Rhondda valley, the parliamentary division in Wales, said that his tour of the United States had thoroughly converted him to the necessity of the men co-operating with their employers.

RHODES' BODY LIES IN STATE

Occupies Place in Drill Hall, Where Thousands of Mourners Pay Their Tributes.

RULUWAYO, Matabeleland, April 8.—The funeral train conveying the body of Cecil Rhodes, which left Capetown, April 5, arrived here today.

MORGAN INTERVIEWED AT SEA

Tells Irish Officials He Will Consider Their Proposals Concerning Columbia.

QUEENSTOWN, April 8.—The delegation from Cork headed by the lord mayor of that city, which purposed meeting J. P. Morgan when the White Star liner Oceanic arrived here today, to urge him to send the Columbian to Cork harbor, to compete in the forthcoming contest for the king's cup, missed the tender and was therefore unable to board Oceanic.

OBJECT TO INDEMNITY TAX

Chinese Villages in Revolt and Government Troops Ordered to Southern Mongolia.

TIEN TSIN, April 8.—Three thousand Chinese troops and a number of Krupp guns have been dispatched to southern Mongolia, where the people are in revolt against the severe indemnity taxation.

REDUCTION OF THE CEREALS

Raising of Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye and Barley, Together with Their Values.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A report issued by the census bureau today on statistics in the most important cereals shows that 2,653,912 farms in the United States derive the census year 1900 produce 463,252 bushels of wheat of a farm value of $202,945,920.

OFFERS TO HELP PRESIDENT

General Pearson Tenders Services to Ferret Out British Camp Situation.

LONDON, April 8.—After the cabinet meeting today, A. J. Balfour, the government leader, informed the liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in the House of Commons, that the government had no important information regarding the peace negotiations in South Africa.

SON OF YANG YU DIES

ST. PETERSBURG, April 8.—The son of Yang Yu, the former Chinese minister to Russia, died here on Saturday and it was now admitted that he committed suicide.

EIGHT KILLED IN INDIA

SIMLA, India, April 8.—Fifteen Sepoys were ambushed April 1 on the Mahmud frontier; eight of the soldiers were killed and three wounded.

MUST KEEP THE PHILIPPINES

United States Possession, Says MacArthur, is an Absolute Necessity.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Henry H. Roelofs of this city, who is one of the largest manufacturers in the United States, today began suit in the United States circuit court for $250,000 damages against fifteen individuals residing in different states who are members of the United Hatters' association.

ROOSEVELT AT CHARLESTON

President Receives Hearty Welcome to City in the South.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 8.—The president's train reached Charleston at 8:30 a. m., on time. The party did not come into the city, but left the train five miles out, where trolley cars were waiting to convey them to the naval station, to take the revenue cutter for a tour of the harbor.

LAND AND NAVAL GUNS ROAR IN SALUTE

Party Headed by National Executive Makes Cruise of Rivers and Harbor on Cutter Algonquin—Crowds in City.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 8.—The president's train reached Charleston at 8:30 a. m., on time. The party did not come into the city, but left the train five miles out, where trolley cars were waiting to convey them to the naval station, to take the revenue cutter for a tour of the harbor.

FORMER PRIEST IS CLEARED

Acquitted on a Charge of Manslaughter After Trial of Two Weeks.

GENESECO, N. Y., April 8.—The case of Charles Flaherty, the former priest, charged with manslaughter, which has been on trial in the Livingston county court for nearly two weeks, came to a speedy termination this evening by the judge directing the jury to render a verdict of acquittal.

TAFI RECOVERING SLOWLY

Physician Advises Him Not to Begin Active Work for Several Days.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—Although Governor William H. Taft has been released from the hospital and has been walking out and attending to correspondence at the house of his brother, Mr. Charles F. Taft, he is not yet entirely recovered, and his surgeon has advised him to wait at least until April 15 before beginning the duties that precede his return to the Philippines.

SHAW IS A GUEST OF HONOR

William F. King of Mount Vernon, Iowa, is Also Present at Banquet.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw and President William F. King of Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., were the guests of honor at a banquet tendered them here by the resident members of the college alumni.

THROWS GIRLS OUT OF WORK

New Electrical Appliance Displaces Forty Thousand Telephone Instruments and Operators.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The Daily News today says: A financial transaction of big proportions was announced today in telephone circles. The government of Germany appears as the purchaser of patent rights covering all Europe, except Great Britain, Ireland and France, for an automatic exchangeboard made in Chicago.

PAYS PENALTY OF CRIME

Jealous Husband Murders Wife and Ends His Life on the Scaffold.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 8.—Samuel Van Stavern was hanged here today for the murder of his wife. The crime was committed on the night of November 29 last and was the result of jealousy. Van Stavern and his wife had been married eighteen years, but separated frequently and were not living together at the time of the tragedy.

SOLDIERS LEAVE FOR MANILA

Part of Eleventh Infantry, Arrived from Porto Rico, to Embark for the Philippines.

NEWPORT, Va., April 8.—The second battalion of the Eleventh infantry arrived here today from Porto Rico.

TOOMBS JURY DISAGREES

Can't Reach Verdict in Chicago Murder Case and is Discharged.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The jury in the Toombs murder trial has disagreed and been discharged.

FATALY SHOT IN QUARREL

Men Take Sides in Boys' Fight, and James Young's Death Will Result.

JOPLIN, Mo., April 8.—Eugene Fritzwaters, aged 26 years, today shot and fatally wounded James Young, aged 35, in this city, discharging a load of shot into Young's right breast at a distance of ten feet.

HATTER SUES FOR DAMAGES

Henry H. Roelofs of Philadelphia Wants Quarter Million for Alleged Injuries.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Henry H. Roelofs of this city, who is one of the largest manufacturers in the United States, today began suit in the United States circuit court for $250,000 damages against fifteen individuals residing in different states who are members of the United Hatters' association.

ROOSEVELT AT CHARLESTON

President Receives Hearty Welcome to City in the South.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 8.—The president's train reached Charleston at 8:30 a. m., on time. The party did not come into the city, but left the train five miles out, where trolley cars were waiting to convey them to the naval station, to take the revenue cutter for a tour of the harbor.

LAND AND NAVAL GUNS ROAR IN SALUTE

Party Headed by National Executive Makes Cruise of Rivers and Harbor on Cutter Algonquin—Crowds in City.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 8.—The president's train reached Charleston at 8:30 a. m., on time. The party did not come into the city, but left the train five miles out, where trolley cars were waiting to convey them to the naval station, to take the revenue cutter for a tour of the harbor.

FORMER PRIEST IS CLEARED

Acquitted on a Charge of Manslaughter After Trial of Two Weeks.

GENESECO, N. Y., April 8.—The case of Charles Flaherty, the former priest, charged with manslaughter, which has been on trial in the Livingston county court for nearly two weeks, came to a speedy termination this evening by the judge directing the jury to render a verdict of acquittal.

TAFI RECOVERING SLOWLY

Physician Advises Him Not to Begin Active Work for Several Days.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—Although Governor William H. Taft has been released from the hospital and has been walking out and attending to correspondence at the house of his brother, Mr. Charles F. Taft, he is not yet entirely recovered, and his surgeon has advised him to wait at least until April 15 before beginning the duties that precede his return to the Philippines.

SHAW IS A GUEST OF HONOR

William F. King of Mount Vernon, Iowa, is Also Present at Banquet.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw and President William F. King of Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., were the guests of honor at a banquet tendered them here by the resident members of the college alumni.

THROWS GIRLS OUT OF WORK

New Electrical Appliance Displaces Forty Thousand Telephone Instruments and Operators.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The Daily News today says: A financial transaction of big proportions was announced today in telephone circles. The government of Germany appears as the purchaser of patent rights covering all Europe, except Great Britain, Ireland and France, for an automatic exchangeboard made in Chicago.

PAYS PENALTY OF CRIME

Jealous Husband Murders Wife and Ends His Life on the Scaffold.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 8.—Samuel Van Stavern was hanged here today for the murder of his wife. The crime was committed on the night of November 29 last and was the result of jealousy. Van Stavern and his wife had been married eighteen years, but separated frequently and were not living together at the time of the tragedy.

SOLDIERS LEAVE FOR MANILA

Part of Eleventh Infantry, Arrived from Porto Rico, to Embark for the Philippines.

NEWPORT, Va., April 8.—The second battalion of the Eleventh infantry arrived here today from Porto Rico.

TOOMBS JURY DISAGREES

Can't Reach Verdict in Chicago Murder Case and is Discharged.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The jury in the Toombs murder trial has disagreed and been discharged.

FATALY SHOT IN QUARREL

Men Take Sides in Boys' Fight, and James Young's Death Will Result.

JOPLIN, Mo., April 8.—Eugene Fritzwaters, aged 26 years, today shot and fatally wounded James Young, aged 35, in this city, discharging a load of shot into Young's right breast at a distance of ten feet.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Fair and Cooler for Today.

Table with 4 columns: Temperature, Deg., Wind, Dir., and another Temperature, Deg. column. Rows show data for 5 a.m., 6 a.m., 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 12 m.

RHODES' INMOST AIMS

His Life's Dream to Promote Racial Unity on Basis of American Principles.

THEORY SET FORTH BY WILLIAM T. STEAD

Extracts from Letters by South African Reflect His Cherished Plans.

VIEWS ON AMERICA AND GREAT BRITAIN

Letter, He Said, Slept While Former Was Rapidly Forging Ahead.

NCITES AGGRESSION ON PART OF ENGLISH

Stead Declares that His Separation from Rhodes on War Issues Did Not Affect Their Actual Political Intimacy.

INTIMATE TIE UNBROKEN

Mr. Rhodes' election was only natural, and from an administrative point of view desirable, and it in no way affected his status as political confidant in all that related to Mr. Rhodes' world-wide policy.

KEY TO RHODES' IDEAS

Mr. Rhodes commenced by declaring that "the key" to his idea for the development of the English-speaking race was the foundation of a society copied as to organization from the Jesuits.

AMERICA IN THE FOREFRONT

"The world with America in the forefront," he wrote, "is a fearful thing to see. It is a fearful thing to see your life will last you through the circumlocution of the patent office. I have that inner conviction that if I can live the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their greatness or their destiny, but who are wasting their time in minor or local matters; but, being angry, do not know how to be living the life of a registered inventor, it is worthy of being registered in the patent office. The fear is, shall I have time and opportunity, and I believe with all the enthusiasm bred in the soul of an inventor that it is not self-glorification that I desire, but I desire to register my patent for those whom I think are the greatest people the world has ever seen, but whose fault is that they do not know their strength, their