Mrs. Mary A. Huit's experience was similar to that of her husband:

"I was suffering from dyspepsia and heart disease and would be unconscious sometimes for a whole day. When in one of these attacks my husband gave me out of it almost at once, and the strange part of it is I have never had an attack of it since. Whenever I feel any symptoms I take a tablespoonful of Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey and it drives the wind from around my heart and as soon as this is done the pain is all gone and I feel perfectly strong. My dyspepsia is entirely cured, I can eat anything, and after eating too heartlily I take a drink of Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey and the distressed, heavy feeling disappears. I am in my seventieth year and do all of my own work, with six in my family. I heartly recommend Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey to old people. ### BOYCOTT ON STOCK YARDS

Withdrawal of Patronage Solicited by Kansas City Stock Exchange.

OBJECTIONABLE RULE OF YARD COMPANY

Resolutions Adopted by Exchange Urging Patrons to Ship Live Stock to Other Markets Pending a Settlement.

KANSAS CITY, April 11.—Because of an objectionable yarding rule put into effect here yesterday the Kansas City Live Stock exchange today, at a specially called meeting, decided by an almost unanimous vote, to boycott the Kansas City stock yards, and adopted resolutions requesting shippers to send their cattle, hogs and sheep to other markets until the differences are adjusted. Resolutions adopted by the live stock men, and which are signed by G. M. Welden, president of the exchange, follow: Important notice to live stock shippers: The Kansas City Live Stock exchange is desirous of calling your attention to the fact that the Kansas City Stock Yards company recently has undertaken to enforce certain rules in the way of handling live stock at this market which the exchange considers arbitrary, unreasonable and detrimental to the interests of live stock shippers to this market.

Therefore, we suggest to all patrons of this market not to ship cattle, hogs or sheep to this market until the existing troubles between the stock yards company and the Kansas City Live Stock exchange are satisfactorily settled.

If there are any shippers who are compelled to ship cattle, hogs or sheep at once, we suggest that they ship to some other market until this matter has been adjusted.

The Kansas City Live Stock exchange is a friend to all patrons of this market in the present trouble with the stock yards company. It asks the hearty co-operation of all shippers to this market. Notice will be given through the columns of the daily press when the matter has been adjusted.

tle between a saleon keeper and eight drunken marauders at 3 a. m. today two men were shot and two others badly wounded, which later led to their arrest. Others were hurt, but escaped. The affair occurred in Michael Adonowicz's saloon in a lonely spot on the south side. The saloon keeper was about to close his doors when eight men carrying revolvers entered. Two of them covered Adonowicz with their pistols while another pair started to open the cash register. Other members of the gang helped themselves to whisky and cigars. Adonowicz, undaunted by the pistols leveled at him, seized a heavy bottle from the bar and assailed his captors with a vigor so sudden that both were stretched out in a trice. Then Adonowicz, maddened by the sight of the looting, snatched a revolver from a third robber and opened fire. Michael Bensley, one of the intruders, fell with bullets in his hip and abdomen. Bensley's companions immediately returned the fire. The scene had become one of general riot. Chairs were hurled through the windows and the bar wrenched from its fastenings. Bullets flew wild, but one of the robbers knocked Adonowicz out. Charles Ashmus, living over the saloon, attracted by the noise, rushed into the street just in time to meet two of the highwaymen who were leaving the place. One of the men promptly shot at him. The bullet inflicted a scalp wound and knocked Ashmus senseless. The men took $7 from him and departed. When the police arrived all but Bensley, who was unconscious, had fled. Later Herman Podehl and Joseph Polaczynski, supposed to have been the men who held up Ashmus, were arrested. Both pens and allows stock to be taken out only men were cut and bruised from the blows same rules are in effect at Chicago, St. revived. The saloon is a complete wreck.

JEFFERSON CITY, Md., April 11.—Joseph F. Dickman, Sheriff, St. Louis: I have granted a respite of fifteen days in case of Henry Flutcher, to be hanged to-day. Stay execution, Answer.

A. M. DOCKERY, Governor. The following reply was sent:

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 11.—A. M. Dockery, Governor, Jefferson City, Mo.: Henry Flutcher executed 6:10. Telegram of res-pite received 6:45. JOSEPH F. DICKMAN, Sheriff.

At 11 o'clock last night Circuit Attorney Folk telegraphed Governor Dockery, recommending a ten days' reprieve, in order to investigate more fully some testimony to the effect that Flutcher acted in self defense when he killed Roth. A reply to this message reached the Four Courts at 2 a. m. Friday. Mr. Folk not being there, Sheriff Dickman received the dispatch. It was from the telegraph office at Jefferson City and stated that the Folk message had been delivered to the governor's mansion. It read:

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., 1:36 a. m.—Jo-seph W. Folk, St. Louis; Yours to Governor A. M. Dockery, signed Folk, received. Mes-senger reports governor would not come to door. Stuck his head out of second-story window and asked, "What's wanted?" Messenger told him nature of message. He told him to put it under the door; made no reply.

Sheriff Dickman concluded that this meant no interference and went on with his preparations for the execution. Flutcher was told of the circumstances, but evinced no surprise at the outcome. He lost al hope at midnight.

At 5:50 Sheriff Dickman told the condemned boy to prepare for the march to the gallows. With Flutcher was Rev. Mr. Roberts, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episco-

The next five minutes were spent in prayer, Flutcher praying aloud in a firm voice. When he finished he turned to a deputy and placed his arms behind him. 'We'll go now," he said quietly, and the rope was tied over his elbows.

Makes Speech on Gallows.

The boy walked to the gallows with a steady step and when asked by the sheriff if he wished to say anything began a speech that occupied three minutes. He declared that he fired the fatal shot, but disavowed any intention to murder. His object, he said, was merely to disarm his assailant. Flutcher concluded as follows:

Louis, Omaha and Sioux City, and have given entire satisfaction to the commission men and the trade in general.

Circuit Attorney Folk said:

There can be no doubt as to Flutcher's guilt. He was given a fair trial before an impartial jury and his case was fully examined by the supreme court.

When Detectives McNeil and Harrington came to my house last night at il o'clock and reported they had just discovered witnesses who, it was alleged, through fear, had been restrained from appearing at the trial, I thought it best as a matter of caution to ask the governor for a reprieve of ten days, until I could fully investigate and examine these witnesses.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 11.-Governor Dockery declines to discuss the time of receiving Circuit Attorney Folk's telegram regarding Flutcher, but says he did not decide until an early hour this morning to grant a respite. The governor says he went down stairs to get Folk's message and read it at 12:20 o'clock this morning, but did not decide to act until 5:30 a. m. He wired Sheriff Dickman and also telephoned him to stay the execution, he says, the order being sent at 6 o'clock. The telegram reached St. Louis thirty-five minutes too late and the telephone message ten minutes too late. Governor Dockery stated that the respite could only have operated to stay the execution a few days.

Negro Hanged at Kansas City KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 11.-James Jackson, a negro aged 28 years, was hanged in the county jail here today for the murder, in December, 1900, of Prophet Everett another colored man. The men had quarreled over cards and Everett left to avoid further trouble. Jackson followed and shot Everett from behind without warning, killing him instantly. Jackson had shot another man several years ago.

Several months ago Jackson professed religion and when Governor Dockery recently refused a respite he said he was glad and anxious to die. Jackson slept soundly last night and went to the scaffold willingly Only the jail officials, newspaper men and a few others witnessed the execution.

Shot by Drunken Herder.

RAWLINS, Wyo., April 11.-Mrs. Maggie Davis, formerly Miss Maggie Jones of Carbon, was shot in the forehead by a drunken Mexican sheep herder at Fort Steele Tuesday night. The woman was brought to Rawlins and the wound, which is not serious, dressed. The Mexican held his pis tol so close to Mrs. Davis that a grain of powder entered one eye, this injury causing more pain than the bullet wound. The cause of the shooting could not be learned. but it is said that the Mexican became infatuated with the woman and became angry when she refused to have anything to do with him.

I immediately began and lived on it for four months and was so faithful in taking the medicine that I did not miss one dose. I made up my mind that it was a fight for my life, and, as Mr. Nau said, it would require patience and perseverance, and that I would have to take from fifteen to twenty bottles of the medicine. This was all the encouragement I had. The greatest denial was not to eat solid food, but I made a business of it, and the first of November I began to eat like a mortal man and have not had a moment's trouble since I began and am eating any food desired and still taking the medicine, and on the eighteenth botand I intend to send for another one-half dozen bottles, and then I shall be doubly sure that I am cured.
