FIX UP THE ASSESSMENTS

Board of Review Tacks Fifty Thousand Dollars on Implement Men.

LOOKING INTO THE BANK VALUATIONS

Real Estate Marked Off of Assess. ments and Rebate for United States Bonds Owned up for Consideration,

The aldermen, sitting as a board of reiew, spent another afternoon yesterday wrestling with the assessment. Having succeeded Wednesday afternoon in classifying to a certain extent the assessment rolls, the board yesterday took up the individual assessments with a view to equalizing them. This "equalizing" process was applied to most of the wholesale implement firms and before the board adjourned for the day about $50,000 had been added to their assessments. The board declined to make public any figures, as one of the aldermen stated that "they would probably take it all back again before they got through, but, neverthless, we are making a bluff at it."

When the assessment of the banks came up for discussion Alderman Lougee stated that it appeared to him the banks had charged off a large amount of real estate so that it does not appear in their assets and he thought the board ought to know whether this real estate was assessed elsewhere. Another question in connection with the assessment of the banks came up when City Solicitor Snyder gave it as his opinion that they were not entitled to an offset for government bonds and he recommended that the claim for such offsets be denied and the assessment as returned by Assessor Everest stand. Such a course, be said. would give the banks an opportunity to appeal, but the city would have no appeal from its own action. In this connection, he stated that a case was now pending before the state suprem court from Keokuk county involving this question, and until this was decided the city had better let the assessment stand and not allow the offset claimed by the banks. Outside of the implement houses none but minor changes were made yesterday in the assessment. The board will meet again this afternoon and expects to complete its work by Saturday.

Mrs. Gertrude Marsh, a neat appearing colored woman, was arrested yesterday afternoon on an information filed before Justice Ferrier by George Blackwell, her former husband. Mrs. Blackwell, at the January term of the district court of Leavenworth county. Kansas, obtained a divorce from George Blackwell, the decree prohibiting her from marrying again within six months. Wednesday Mrs. Blackwell, under her maiden name of Gertrude M. Johnson, was married in this city to F. W. Marsh. Mrs. Marsh was highly indignant at being arrested and produced her decree of divorce in court. She was permitted to approval. As a starter in this direction a resolution was adopted to the effect that the city Board of Health be requested to advertise for bids from physicians for medical attendance on smallpox patients, including other persons who may be in houses quarantined and who need medical attendance, contract to run from April 12, 1902, and the first to be improved this way.

The board will visit Fairmount park this afternoon and determine what improvements shall be carried out there. Commissioner Graham hopes to be able to secure and produced her decree of divorce in court. She was permitted to the resolution was a resolution was a for the city to F. W. Attached to the resolution was a rider to the effect that all such bids be submitted to the county board for its approval.

the company. The principal witness was J. W. French conductor of motor No. 50, which left Douglas street, Omaha, about 12 o'clock and on which McLean was a passenger. He testified that when the car was crossing the bridge McLean demanded that he be let off and that he made several attempts to pull the bell cord. French restrained him and told McLean that he would notify him when the car reached Twenty-third street. Between Thirty-eighth and Thirty seventh streets McLean succeeded in pulling the bell cord and the motorman stopped the car, but kept the gates shut until a westbound car had passed. When last seen by the witness McLean was walking south on Thirty-seventh street. French also testified that McLean appeared considerably excited and as if not altogether in his right mind.

Motorman W. H. Poncelow of the car which struck McLean testified that his car was running about fourteen miles an hour at the time of the accident. He saw Mc-Lean on the track when within about fifteen feet of him. He sounded the gong reversed the motor, dropped the fender and applied the brakes. McLean, he said, was walking with his head down and near the outer rail. The fender caught him and his head and shoulders struck the cushion of the fender. McLean was thrown about ten feet to the north side of the track The witness said he stopped the motor in about two car lengths. When McLean was picked up he was apparently dead.

The bishop had nothing to say as to the extent of his powers in these matters, but it is a fact that in the face of the existing vacancy in the post of archibshop of Manila there is no one else to speak to the highly complimentary to Speaker Eaton and authorities here upon these questions except Bishop O'Gorman and Mgr. Sharretti, the latter fresh from the vatican. If there were an archibshop of Manila the disposition of the authorities would be to deal with him directly in the matter, inasmuch as he would be the one person legally empowered to transfer title to the frairs' lands, which are nominally held in his name. But in the absence of such a legal custodian at Manila it may become necessary for the United States government to deal with the vatican either directly at Rome, through Governor Taft, when he returns to Manila from the United States or here at Washington through some of the prelates duly authorized to act.

Governor Dole said today:

There is some complaint among business men of Hawall on account of the tightness of the mency market. There are no failures or assignments of importance. The enterprises, however, are too large for the available capital. The Hawallan government is limited by the revenues which are inadequate for carrying on necessary public improvements. The current revenues are sufficient only to carry out the administration expenses. The last legislature failed to enact legislation for necessary public improvements. The country lost a large part of the revenues at the beginning of the territory by the transfer of the customs revenues, amounting to about $1.200.000, to the federal government.

But we are getting along. The territorial government is doing something in the way of public improvements, but not nearly so much as ought to be done. The government has little in sight for payment of the fire claims for buildings burned during the plague epidemic in Honelulu in 1900.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who tofk me hast only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
