

The 4th Lockhart Mill-End Sale Begins Tomorrow at 8 o'clock.

THERE are thousands of people in and nearby Omaha that will receive this announcement with eager interest. Previous experience has taught them the full significance of these Mill-End sales. They know the benefits to be derived and appreciate them. During this Mill-End sale we will establish a new record for bargain-giving. The quantity and character of the merchandise we will place on sale tomorrow and the extremely low prices, will create a stir as never a previous sale has done. Carload after carload of Mill Ends, comprising the products of the best mills and factories in the country have been received. Every department is teeming with Mill-Ends, and every Mill-End is priced in a manner that bewilders and delights the purchasers. It's the trifling prices that have given magic to these Mill-End sales and Mr. Lockhart, their promoter—Mr. Lockhart is here and will conduct this sale in person. He wants you to come early tomorrow and prepare to stay all day. He says, "You can't afford to leave the store for a minute, you will lose money if you do." The bargains mentioned here emphasize his statement. They are wonderful and extremely tempting, there is no denying that fact.
