Italian Firm Captures Contract for Decorating Streets in Westminster, Much to the Chagrin of the Britishers.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The absence of the American contingent is sadly felt in London "smart" society. The Odeon Golets are not coming until the middle of June, if at all. They have not taken a house. Mrs. Mackay intends to spend her stay in Constantinople, but will spend some weeks with the Grand Duke and Duchess Michael at Cannes on his way.

VICTIM OF FORTUNE HUNTER

Former Heiress Abandoned by Husband Arrested on Paris Streets as a Vagrant.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Laura de Verneuil, who was arrested yesterday for vagrancy, is only 24 years. Five years ago she married a young man of Boston named Willard, who was earning a modest salary as a clerk in one of the American banks in Paris.

PARIS SHORT ON NEW PLAYS

One Noted Actress Accepts New American Drama and Bernhardt Revives One.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mme. LeBarry has accepted for her next season an American drama, the name of which is withheld. The translation is by Rosny Bros. Coquelin revived "Cyrano de Bergerac" last night. Critics consider the fact proof of a dearth of new plays.

LONDON HAS THE MOTOR CRAZE

Little Slow in Starting, but Has Secured a Firm Hold at Last.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The motor craze has been the dominant feature of the London season for many years, but it is now being thrown into the shade by the motor car. ELEPHANTS COME IN FLOCKS

Paris Hunter Brings Back a Big Story From the Wilds of Central Africa.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The slaying of the biggest elephant story in its experience. The vicomte of Bour de Bous was sent by the state on a scientific mission to equatorial Africa in January, 1901. He pursued his researches for many months without any notable event, when one day he went out to search for big game. Just at the moment when he had begun to despair he perceived two large elephants looming up before him.

TWO-DAY FETE AT MARSEILLES

French and Italians to Join in Celebration to Help Along National Amity.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) MARSEILLES, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Marseillais counts among its inhabitants 110,000 Italians, and is going to have a Franco-Italian fete, no doubt to strengthen the links between the Latin countries. This will begin May 1 and last two days. The date is chosen because it is the anniversary of the founding of Italian mutual aid societies on the French Mediterranean coast. The presence of Italian Minister Luzzati is counted on, and the famous tenor, Tamagno, will sing.

PARTICULAR ABOUT THEIR AGE

Paris Actresses Sue for Damages Because Biographer is Too Precise in His Work.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Julia Martin, who is compiling a book called "Nos Artistes," which contains the photographs and short biographies of singers and actors of Paris, has brought down upon his head a feminine tempest. He did not consider a biography complete without the date of the birth of the person in question. Hence he had recourse to the records. Now two actresses have brought him into court. One has sued him for $2,000 damages, the other for 20 cents for the principal of the thing, as she saith and graciously put it.

AID ARRIVES NONE TOO SOON

Destitute American Artists in Paris Had Turned on the Gas When Money Arrives.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Another tragedy among the American students in the Latin quarter has been averted by the merest chance. Evelyn Masole, a girl from New York, being absolutely destitute and starving, called three weeks ago as a last resort on a young Californian, a fellow painter, Andrew Choate, by name, whom she had met at some social reception. She found him seriously ill and without any one to attend him in his garret room except a gruff janitor, who reluctantly climbed the stairs once a day. Instead of asking for a loan, Miss Masole went home and her belongings to buy food and medicine, went to attend her countryman and saved his life after five weeks, nursing him day and night. As soon as he was well enough he married the girl, but their abject want became unbearable. Neither could find work, and he resorted to the police to get painting materials. Finally, as neither received an answer to appeals sent to relatives in America, they determined to commit suicide.

HEART FOUND IN A CHURCH

Strange Relic of Bygone Days Unearthed in Making Repairs Upon a Church.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Found—a heart. In the church of Val de Grace, Paris, to the left of the altar is a vault where the Carmelites used to go to pray. There, on tables of marble, were arranged hearts of silver and gold. These included the hearts of kings and princes, whose bodies reposed in the tombs of St. Denis.

CROKER'S PLANS DEVELOPING

Cuts a Straight Road from Wantage to His Newly Acquired Dairy Farm.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) WANTAGE, Eng., April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Richard Croker's purchase of Manor farm is taken here to indicate a definite intention to make Letcombe his home. Possession of this property enables him to cut a straight road from Wantage to Letcombe, doing away with awkward turnings for fast trotters or motors. He is planting many trees on the property and is immensely interested in the whole place. Dairy farming is profitable and an aristocratic hobby.

DAVID PORTRAITS FOR LOUVRE

Two Valuable Additions to the Art Treasures of the Famous Collection.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The Louvre has acquired two of the most admirable portraits painted by David—those of his brother-in-law and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Seriat. The first represents Mr. Seriat in hunting costume, and the second, seated, the left leg crossed over the right.

ARISTOCRACY LEARNS TO COOK

Young Mrs. Vanderbilt Does an Apron and Takes Lessons of Mother Moreau.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., attended the culinary competition lately, now opened at the Tuilleries gardens, and took a lesson in cooking from "Mother" Moreau, a character famous all over France, being remarkably picturesque and an expert in home-made dainties. Young Mrs. Vanderbilt removed her hat, donned a pretty white apron and a pair of white sleeves. Her lesson lasted two hours. The elder Mrs. Vanderbilt, who was her escort, was highly amused at his daughter-in-law.

PROVE EXPERTS WERE WRONG

Man Pardoned After Long Term on Testimony that Turns Out to Be Ridiculous.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—President Loubet has ended the newspaper agitation for a new trial for M. Danvala, a druggist who had been condemned six years ago on a charge of having poisoned his wife, by signing a pardon. M. Danvala was convicted solely on evidence furnished by medical experts, whose conclusions recent scientific progress shows to have been preposterous.

POPE'S BLESSING ON IRELAND

William O'Brien Gives out an Interview Had with the Aged Prelate.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) ROME, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The pope received William O'Brien, M. P., and his wife in a special private audience Thursday, at which nobody else was present. Mr. O'Brien afterward said to the World correspondent: "The pope was pleased to speak of my hard struggles in the cause of Ireland, whereupon I said that the Irish were a race of nearly 20,000,000, principally living in America, and all filled with reverence for his holiness and his supreme office. 'The pope replied: 'Yes, I have just been reminded how widespread the Irish race is. Only yesterday I received Cardinal Moran of Australia, who used to be bishop of Osnabrug in your country, and Archbishop Kelly, who has gone out to Sydney to fill his place. Another great Irishman. 'Then after a little, the pope added: 'Ireland always has been affectionately in my thoughts. She was always faithful from the days of St. Patrick to this moment. 'Finally, with most touching kindness, the pope said: 'You will take away with you my blessing for yourself, your wife and for Ireland. I repeat it, God bless Ireland and the Irish race wherever they may be.'"

UNION OF SHIP LINES

Combination of Leading Transatlantic Lines Will Be Made by Morgan.

PLAN IS ALREADY CONSUMMATED

Capitalization of the Concern Will Be Almost Fifteen Million Dollars.

BRITISH, GERMAN AND AMERICAN LINES

Deal is Announced from Morgan Company's Office in New York.

LATTER WILL BE AT HEAD OF COMBINE

Among Component Companies Are American and Red Star, Dominion, White Star, Leyland, Atlantic Transport and Others.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) NEW YORK, April 19.—J. P. Morgan, who is now abroad, has practically consummated a plan to combine all the leading transatlantic steamship lines. London dispatches to the Associated Press announcing the combination were today confirmed by the various companies. The combine will be consolidated, it is understood, include the American and Red Star lines, White Star line, Dominion line, Atlantic Transport line and the Leyland line. The two last named lines have been under Morgan control for some time. Probable additions to this list are the Cunard, Willson and Holland-American companies, and it is understood that a "working agreement" will be reached with the other leading transatlantic companies, including the North German Lloyd, Hamburg-American, General Transatlantic (French), Allen and Anchor lines.

Irish Leaders Accuse Government of Doing Nothing for Relief of Tenants and Abandoning Land Purchase Act.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) DUBLIN, April 19.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Ireland will celebrate the coronation of Edward VII as it celebrated the first jubilee of Queen Victoria—with jails full of political prisoners convicted by what is considered their mockers "law." With unbridled police riot to exasperate the people, the Irish leaders can no longer be responsible for consequences.

TO SETTLE THE JURISDICTION

Attorney General of Minnesota Will Oppose Transfer of Merger Suit to Federal Courts.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) ST. PAUL, Minn., April 19.—The attorney general of Minnesota, W. B. Douglas, will oppose the removal of the merger suit from the Ramsey county district court into the United States circuit court. He will go into the United States circuit court and there move the court to remand the suit to the county court from which it came. General Douglas said today, after a consultation with Senator Wilson, associate counsel in the case: "The transfer of the case will not embarrass or hinder the action of the state. It is immaterial in which court the case is tried, but the motion to remand will be on the question of jurisdiction and when that is settled we can proceed with the trial of the case on its merits. In any event, it will reach the supreme court without unnecessary delay."

FARMER KILLS LITTLE GIRL

Confesses Deed After Burying the Body of His Young Victim.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) WELLINGTON, Kan., April 19.—John Cummings, a farmer living near Portland, in this county, was arrested today, charged with the murder of Anna Dishman, aged 18 years, Arkansas City, Kan., who worked in his family as a domestic. The crime was committed August 18, 1899, and it was witnessed by Cummings' wife and two sons, who have been compelled to maintain secrecy in regard to the matter.

CHILD PERISHES IN FLOOD

Six-Year-Old Girl Killed and Others Dangerously Hurt from Defective Water Main.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) PITTSBURG, April 19.—As the result of the bursting of a forty-eight-inch main of the Pennsylvania Water company on Frankston avenue, Wilkesburg, this evening, six-year-old girl, aged 6 years, is dead, her sister, Lillian, aged 5 years, is so badly hurt that she is not expected to live through the night and the children's father, William Englehart, has a leg broken and is otherwise seriously injured. The main runs just above the Englehart house, which stood on the hill. The house was literally carried away, leaving only a portion of the rear standing alone, in which Mrs. Englehart managed to climb and save herself and youngest daughter. The other members of the family were carried three-quarters of a mile from the house.

BATSON JURY IS STILL OUT

Slow in Deciding Fate of Man Accused of Murdering Six Persons.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) LAKE CHARLES, La., April 19.—The jury in the case of Ed Batson, on trial for the murder of six members of the Eri family, not having agreed after being out for two hours, Judge Miller adjourned court this evening until Monday morning, having decided not to receive a verdict after dark. The failure of the jury to agree has naturally created surprise and there is intense interest here. The courtroom was crowded with women today and many of them shook hands with Batson and his mother during the recess of court.

POPE SUGGESTS SUCCESSOR

Firmly Believes Cardinal Sarzo, an Italian, Will Succeed to the Vatican.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.) ROME, April 19.—Considerable importance is attached to a recent remark made by the pope, who in conversation with Father Lorenzo Peroni, the Italian composer, asked him for news of his friend, Cardinal Giuseppe Sarzo, the patriarch of Venice. "Hold him very dear, Peroni," said his holiness, "as in the future he will be able to do much for you. We firmly believe he will be our successor." Cardinal Sarzo is an Italian. He was born in 1826 and was created a cardinal in 1893.
