

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

WHERE TRADE SHOULD BE SOUGHT.

Mr. M. E. Ingalls, the well-known railway manager and a careful student of commercial conditions, thinks that more attention should be given by our manufacturers and merchants to cultivating the trade of South America and the West Indies...

ST. LOUIS HAS GONE DAFT OVER SANTOS-DUMONT AND AERIAL NAVIGATION.

Now that the smallpox scare has subsided the atmosphere here is full of spring fever.

GUBERNATORIAL TIMBER.

Table Rock Argus: As a candidate for governor Judge Paul Jensen of Nebraska City will be highly satisfactory to the republicans of Pawnee county.

NEBRASKA IS ALL RIGHT.

Kearney Hub: Nothing short of divine wrath can beat the Nebraska wheat crop.

WESTERN NEBRASKA OBSERVER.

With six or eight candidates in the field willing to accept the republican nomination for governor the best interests of the state...

ALLIANCE TIMES.

If additional evidence of prosperity is needed it can be seen in the quarterly report of the State Banking Board just made public.

AS TO NATIONAL CREDIT.

The floating of the new British war loan of $100,000,000 invites attention to the difference between British and American credit.

WABBLING ON THE WANE.

Baltimore American. With a bicycle revival in the east and religious revivals in the west, a great many people are trying to keep in the straight and narrow path.

GOOD ADVICE TO ASSESSORS.

The printed instructions of the clerk of York county to the township assessors are suggestive as well as instructive.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Most of the recipes for meals without meat, now being published, are of a nature to make one order meat at a cost.

RAILROAD SPEED RECORDS.

Philadelphia Ledger. The record-breaking run of a Burlington train—14 1/2 miles at the rate of 24 1/2 miles an hour—was very good as a sample, but for actual result the run made by a Wabash train about the same time is to be preferred.

STUNTING THE HOUSE.

Chicago News. Congressman Cushman made a sensation the other day by declaring in the house that Speaker Henderson was the whole works.

FRESH TABLE BUTTER.

Fresh table butter is selling at 33 cents a pound, wholesale, in New York City, payable in gold standard money.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, APRIL 21, 1902.

Live Nebraska Towns

Seward—Prosperous and Progressive.

Seward, with a population of 2,500, is situated on the east and north of the Blue river, with Plum creek to the east.

There Will Be Something Doing.

Chicago Post. The dattos of Minutano have declined to see General Chaffee, but they have agreed to talk the matter over among themselves.

A Poor Investment.

Minneapolis Tribune. Germany is another country that finds colonies unprofitable. The income for the past year is stated at $2,000,000 and the outgo at $2,500,000.

Strangling a Popular Measure.

Philadelphia Ledger. There seems to be no doubt that Senator Dewey's amendment to the bill providing for popular election of United States senators insures the defeat of that measure.

Must Face Changed Conditions.

An alarm has been sounded through the corridors of the state capitol. The contention raised before the supreme court as to the validity of the pure food law has also raised the question of the constitutionality of the appointment of a deputy labor commissioner.

Justice Public Expectations.

Chicago Record-Herald. The president's vigorous condemnation of the offenses that are said to have been committed by his American military in the Philippines and his prompt orders for an investigation confirm the popular opinion of his character.

Nebraska is All Right.

Kearney Hub: Nothing short of divine wrath can beat the Nebraska wheat crop.
