TROUBLE IS OVER PAYMENT OF A FARE

Conductor's Injury is Not Serious and Occurs White He is Trying to Take Knife from the Senator.

WASHINGTON, April 24.-Senator H. D. Money of Mississippi had an altercation road entering the gity sent out trains laden with a conductor on a street car this morn ing which resulted in the senator receiving two severs blows from the conductor and the conductor being cut quite severely in the right hand with a knife.

As Senator Money relates the circumstances, he was proceeding from his home to the Baltimore & Ohio depot to take the 9 o'clock train on that road for Baltimore where he goes frequently for medical treatment of his eyes. He had taken a car on the Fourteenth street branch of the Capital Traction company line and had chanced to board a car which stops at the Peace monument, a dozen blacks short of his destination. He had failed to notice this circumstance until the car began to turn around Boards the Wrong Car.

The car bound for the depot was immediately behind the car on which he was seated. The senator says that he had only three or four minutes' time in which to make his train, but that after he discovered that he was on the wrong car he called to the conductor and asked him for a transfer ticket to the car bound for the depot. He does not recall what the conductor replied, but failing to receive the ticket and recognizing that he had no time to lose, he jumped from the car he was on and boarded the other. He had no sconer taken his seat, he says, than the conductor of that car approached him and asked for his ticket. He then told the conductor that he had not had time to secure a transfer and reminded him that he, the conductor, had been a witness to the circumstance of his change from one car to the other The conductor replied that the cenator would either have to produce a ticket or pay his fare, whereupon the senator told him that having paid one fare and being entitled to a transfer, which he had asked for but had not received, he would not pay

Is Ejected by Conductor. Thereupon the conductor told him that if he would not pay his fare he would put him off the car, and immediately proceeded to carry his threat into execution. This the senator resisted by grasping an upright post and engaged in a struggle with the conductor, who was not making much headway, when a passenger who had been sitting next to Senator Money volunteered to assist the conductor. By their combined strength they contrived to break the ans. senator's hold upon the post and to force him from the car. The senator says that when they first undertook to eject him the par was in full motion and he feels that if they had succeeded at that time he nets," with hornets' nests pinned to the would inevitably have been badly hurt. The breasts or hanging from poles, and the conductor and his assistant did not, however, with Georgia, Texas, Tennessee, Kentuck succeed in their design until the car in fact every southern state which was restopped, at the next crossing, to let off resented in the parade, proudly bore flag other passengers. He says that both the now faded and torn, but cherished meme conductor and the passenger were very toes. The Arkansas delegation carried a gruff and abusive in their language and that after he had reached the street the Now Laugh, darn you." The sponsors and conductor hit him a severe blow over the heart with his clinched fist in order to protect himself, he ok a small pocketknife from his pocket and opened it. This weapon the conductor grasped and in doing so cut his hand so hat it bled very freely. After this proeeding other persons stepped between the two, but notwithstanding their presence the conductor, who is a very tall man struck him another blow over the shoulder of a man standing between them. This blow was struck with the conductor's bloody hand and it hit the senator squarely on the jaw. He was as a conse-quence of this blow covered with blood from the conductor's wound, and this circumstance was responsible for a rumor that the senator himself had been severely

The senator adds that there were three four policemen present, but that none of them took any steps to prevent the alter-cation. He says also that both the conductor and the passenger who assisted in his ejectment refused to give their names. The senator was not badly hurt, but his trip to Baltimore was prevented. He, however, proceeded with his customary duties about the capitol during the day as if nothing unusual had occurred.

Story of the Conductor,

The name of the street car conductor with whom Senator Money had trouble today is O. H. Shaner, a vigorous but bovishlooking man. He says that he did not see the senator leave the car preceding his; he did not strike the senator till the latter drew his knife. His wound is a slight out across the ball of the thumb. A ing northwesterly, warrant was issued this afternoon for the arrest of Conductor Shaner on the charge of assault. It was sworn out by Senator

A warrant also was sworn out by the Mississippi senator against James E. Hooper, foreman of Truck A of the district fire department, on the same charge. Hooper was the passenger on the car who sesisted the conductor. Later Senator Friday; Saturday, fair; northwest winds. foney called on President MacParland of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia and preferred verbal charges

Mr. MacFarland told him Hooper would be brought before the trial board and the thoroughly investigated. Senator Money also wrote to the president of the years: Capitol Traction company, demanding the nediate dismissal of Conductor Shaner and threatened to sue the company for damages if such action was not taken.

This company several years ago dismissed a conductor at the request of a Massachu setts sensior, who resented the conductor's polite offer of assistance while leaving the car on an loy day. The company's action resulted in vigorous protests at the time.

DALLAS, Tex. April 24 -- After one the greatest parades ever held at a cenfederate reunion Dallas tonight bade goodby to thousands of its visitors. Every railwith fatigued but satisfied veterans. Tonight chivalry and beauty gathered at Camp Johnston, where the Grand Kallpher ball was held. Occasionally in the whirling mass going through the dance, doing his best among the younger people, a veteran could be seen dancing with some laughing sponsor or maid of honor. The Kallphates in their costumes gave the scene a bizarre cast and afforded considerable amusement.

Saved by Martial Airs.

With their blood stirring to the same airs to which they had marched and fought two score years ago, the veteran remnant of the confederate armies marched through the streets of the city of Dallas today, the object of a wildly cheering mulititude. The day was a holiday, public buildings and stores generally being closed during the hours when the parade was passing Thousands of visitors, coming for the sole purpose of seeing the old soldiers, were added to the throng already on the streets. The erect, slender figure, the alert eyes and the gray, pointed beard of the commander-in-chief were well known to most of the spectators. The location of his gray horse, according to one observer, could almost be told by the increase of the volume of cheers proceedin like a wave along with him. NO TROUBLE WITH THE CANDIDATES By Way of Diversion the Locals Put Up Fancy Double-Play Ceremonies - Dolan Does Clever Stunt.

With Oscar Graham pitching fair base ball and the Rourke rangers playing a beautiful game behind him, the second of Corcoran, sa. 1 Steinfeld, 3b. 1 the series with Milwaukee came to Omaha easily yesterday by a score of 8 to 2. Duffy's angels hit well and showed an improvement also in their fielding during certain innings, but deplorable errors in such crises as two men out and men on St bases cost them heavily at different times. What would make it seem really true such tricks are merely the result of lack of practice is the fact that Shortstop Gatins, the star of the infield, made the worst mistake of all yesterday. It was in the sixth and Gatins had a clean record to with some thrilling work to his credit. Stewart led and flew out, Hickey and Gonding hit safe and Graham fouled out. Carter came to bat and knocked an easy grounder to Gatins, which he scooped up in-his thoroughbred way and started over toward first base. When the ball got to Thornton, however, it was away above his head and going with all Gatins' push behind it. So Hickey and Gonding scored, when Barber deserved a shutout

Double Plays Plenty.

The brilliant playing of the home team however, brightened up the game. Louble plays were numerous and the one with which the contest was ended added an ther laurel twig to Dolan's wreath. The ball was a hot grounder from Mattle McVicker's bat, headed between second and third. It was very fast and was on Dolan's right wing, but he made a swift run and took it on the bare mit singlehanded. His recovery was remarkably quick, as he fielded to Stewart at second in time for the secof Stewart at second in time for the second out across to first.

BALTIMORE, April 24.—The home team won the game from Philadelphia in the first inning today. A base on balls, three two-baggers, a three-bagger, a single, a sacrifice and an error by Plank netted six runs. After that Plank steadied down and stopped the run-getting. Hughes pitched a good game for the home team. Attendance, 2,455. Score:

appears in the Republican today, in which the following language is used:

What I said at the banquet of the Colorado Sons of the American Revolution last Saturday night made a distinction between two classes of people; the first, the demagogues, who do not believe what they are saying; the other, the class of people to which Senator Hoar from Massachusetts belongs, who did believe what they were saying, were perfectly sincere, but were suffering from overheated consciences; that is, they were too sincere.

Instead of criticising Senator Hoar, I intended to pay him a compliment on being so sincere. I intended to keep off the subject entirely, but General Haie's introduction was such that it compelled me to say something on the Philippine war.

In regard to my leave of absence, in order that I might attend the Middlesex club banquet at Boston, I made the application one evening, but department matters came up next morning that made it impossible for me to leave here. Therefore I telegraphed withdrawing my application made the night before, and before the War department had time to act upon it.

The banquet of the Middlesex club in Boston is to be given April 26. I had received within one week ten telegrams, three in one day, urging me to attend. Senator Lodge was very anxious for me to come. At first I said I could not, but afterward, and until this important incident came up, I thought I possibly could make it.

As you understand, I cannot discuss any order I have received or may receive. So far I have received the order only through the newspapers, not officially. I had decided to talk no further of the Philippine question. My plan in regard to the banquet of the officers of the Colorado National Guard May I was to say nothing whatever about the merits of the war, but simply to speak to the toast, "The Eighth Army Corps."

stood 25 to 9 in favor of Creighton.

From the second inning the game was all in the hands of the boys from Omaha. Nineteen base hits were chalked up to their credit, three of them being home runs, two by Clark and one by Lynch. These, with the poor fielding of the Cotner lads and fifteen stolen bases netted Creighton twenty-five scores.

Welch was in the box for Omaha and pitched superb ball, allowing only four hits. He also made seven of the runs. All the Creighton infield played fast ball and likewise the outfield.

Shuman and Judivine were the only Cotner lads able to connect with Welch's delivery, and in addition to his stick work Shuman pitched fairly good ball.
