CHICAGO. April 24.—Builts in the grain pits changed front today and bears came in for a share of the profits. After 25 stered ay's remarkable advance of dry weather a dusty weather map started prices firm, but rains brought a scare and liquidation was the order of the day. Prices slipped down badly, May wheat closing 156(15c) lower, May corn 15c depressed and May casts 15c off. Provisions were firm and closed 25c off. Provisions were strong that the close of yesterday's wheat splurge, it was but natural that anything in the way of rains in the wheat shelt should influence rapid changes in sentiment on the part of the builts. There was plenty of buil news—cables were strong, receipts small, clearances large and crop damage reports came in abundance. The morning weather report showed the wheat fields as dry as tinder. Selling started early, merely for profits by the longs, who had accumulated stuff alow prices. This eased the market somewhat, but when the rain reports from Kansas arrived selling was general. The outside markets liquidating freely, especially 8t. Louis, which sold very heavily and slumped. Before there was any cessation of the heavy pressure on the market here prices had slipped down almost 2c. Late in the day there was fair covering and values recovered a little of the loss. May wheat opened unchanged to the loss. May wheat pened unchanged to five lower to 75cc and fell to 756754cc, closing weak. 15467bd down at 7542755cc, Receipts were 250,000 bushels, compared with 304,000 as

Day's Market Discloses Intimate Re-Intions of Grain and Securities.

Intions of Grain and Securities.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The important influence of the grain crop prospect upon the stock market was again demonstrated today. After a strong opening prices wavered and commenced to go back when the weather map was published, showing almost no rain precipitation east of the Rocky mountains, but when the wheat markets opened and revealed an active liquidation there at declining prices, stocks promptly began to pick up again.

The persistent sagging of the price of wheat was accompanied by growing and broadening strength in stocks, with the notable demand centered on the graincarrying raincads.

But the day's events are a striking evidence of the Intimate association at present between the grain markets and the securities market. The quick response between the two is emphasized by the general conviction that the present strong leadership in the stock market is held by persons of long experience in grain speculation and heavily committed in the current grain dealings.

There were other features which conjoined to help the recovery in stocks. The annual report of the Lake Shore railroad was a palpable influence on all of the Vanderbilts and indirectly on the whole railroad list on account of the enormous carning power revealed and the prespecous traffic conditions. The disclosure of the purchase by the Lake Shore of a large block of Lehigh Valley stock and admissions on the part of the principal banking house interested in the coalers that purchases of Reading were being made by New York Central, Pennsylvania and the extensive community of interest being established in the whole coal transportation industry.

New York Central recovered strongly, 2% from its recent depression. Lake Shore markets opened and revealed an active in quidation there at declining prices stocks promptly began to pick up again. The persistent sagging or growing and broadening strength in stocks, with the notable demand centered on the strain carrying railreads.

HOGS—There was a moderate supply of hogs here today, which makes the receipts for the week to date about the same as for last week, but much less than for the same days of last year. Favorable reports were received from other points, and under the influence of a good local demand the market advanced 10(15c. On the start the market was, perhaps, not over a dime higher, but it soon took on more life and strength, so that the general market could be quoted 16515c higher. Good heavy hogs soid largely at $7.00 to $7.20, which carries the market to as high a point as has been reached this year. The medium weights went mostly from $8.5 to $7.00, while the lighter loads soid from $6.56 down. There was not much improvement in the demand for the lightweight stuff, which was left until the last, and although that class of hogs also improved in price, it was hard to get packers to take them. Everything was disposed of at an early hour. Representative sales:

SHEEP—There was a light run of sheep and lambs here today, but still there were more on sale than yesterday. For the week the supply is much less than it was a week ago, and a slight decrease is noted as compared with last year. The exact figures will be seen in the table of receipts above.

Packers were all anxious for supplies this morphies so that an active and airpager.

Packers were all anxious for supplies this morning, so that an active and stronger market was experienced. Some of the offerings were of better quality than anything offered up to this time, so that prices reached the high point of the season. Clipped lambs sold as high as $6.40, and clipped wethers brought $6.25. The market for the week so far can safely be quoted 106/15c higher all around. The $6.25 clipped wethers weighed 117 pounds, but they were of extra choice quality.

In view of the liberal demand everytting on sale was cut of first hands in good season.
