OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1902.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

HAYDEN'S TWO NEW YORK LARGEST COMMISSION HOUSE STOCKS CLOSED OUT

The most stupendous purchase ever made. These houses supplied only the very best dealers in the east, and carried only the highest grades of DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, CLOAKS AND SUITS, CARPETS AND DRAPERIES.

The damp, cold season caused the cancelling of hundreds of their biggest orders. They had enormous amounts of money tied up in large stocks of high priced merchandise, on which they could not realize. Foreign manufacturers pressed them for settlements and THEY WERE COMPELLED TO CLOSE. Our buyers, headed by a member of the firm, were on the spot and realizing the tremendous output Hayden Bros. have throughout the Trans-Mississippi country, made a spot cash offer on each of the stocks. Eastern merchants were already overloaded and stood aghast at this big plunge by a western house. HAYDEN'S OFFER WAS ACCEPTED. THE MONEY WAS PLANKED DOWN AND THE GOODS ARE ARRIVING BY THE CARLOAD IN OMAHA. Every available man and the entire forces of the different transfer companies, so far as they could be secured, are employed in transferring these gigantic stocks to Hayden Bros., unpacking, checking and marking them, and MONDAY THE FIRST INSTALMENT OF THIS MOST ASTONISHING PURCHASE WILL GO ON SALE. Customers have a idea what such a sale means at Hayden Bros., but never in our history have we been able to offer SUCH SENSATIONAL BARGAINS IN SUCH VAST ASSORTMENTS AND SUCH UNHEARD OF VARIETIES OF NEWEST, CHOICEST, MOST DESIRABLE AND HIGHEST GRADE, SEASONABLE MERCHANDISE IN ALL LINES. It will pay customers to come hundreds of miles to this sale. Such values were never offered before by any house in America. Despite the astonishing magnitude of the sale, Hayden Bros. will open at 8 o'clock, Monday, as usual, so that early buyers may avoid the later crowds. We have made arrangements for the largest force of clerks ever employed by any house west of Chicago, and every inch of space in the store will be utilized to make selection and purchase as convenient, rapid and satisfactory as possible. ENTIRE STOCKS OF TWO OF NEW YORK'S LARGEST COMMISSION HOUSES ON SALE AT BANKRUPT PRICES.

The New York Cloak and Suit Sale Stock.
