N's "This is the Largest Purchase We Have Ever Made" (Extract from Telegram.)

Certainly the facts bear out this message. Never have we seen such colossal quantities of new, seasonable, high class dry goods, notions, cloaks, carpets and draperies, as have come in by the car load within the past ten day from the gigantic purchase of the

TWO NEW YORK COMMISSION HOUSE STOCKS

Last week we tol. " the story of the purchase-how, owing to the most unseasonable wet and cold in the east, hundreds of the biggest orders placed with these two largest commission houses being cancelled, they were compelled to close. HAYDEN BROS' SPOT CASH OFFER FOR EACH OF THE STOCKS WAS ACCEPTED. Last week, small consignments were put on sale, as they came in, but now every dollar's worth has been received, and MONDAY, MAY 5th, AS PROMISED, THESE TWO ENTIRE MAGNIFICENT STOCKS GO ON SALE AT LOWER THAN THE LOWEST BANKRUPT PRICES EVER PUT ON ANY GOODS BEFORE. No matter what the expectations of the shrewdest and most economical buyers, they will not be disappointed. Every aisle, counter and shelf, in every department, is crowded with vast assortments of most stylish and desirable merchandise, at the most sensationally low bargain prices ever dreamed of. In spite of the magnitude of these stocks we have taken pains to arrange $.00 to $1.25 them as conveniently as possible for selection and sale and have engaged the largest force of clerks, wrappers and cashiers ever employed by a Trans-Mississ-SILK FOULARDS ippi house, to wait on you while the sale continues. Every hour and every day new bargains will be added as fast as room is made in the selling departments UNTIL THESE TWO ENTIRE VAST NEW YORK COMMISSION HOUSE STOCKS are finally disposed of. Shop early if possible. Sale opens at S o'clock

Big Sheet Music Sale

WRAPPERS.

The New York bankrupt stock of music is now in and will be placed on sale Monday morning. The greatest opportunity ever afforded the musical people to stock up with all the latest hits of the season at about one-half the cost of publishing them. Thousands and thousands of copies of nice, new sheet music; among this lot there are such favorite hits as "Dreaming Eyes," new two step by the same composers as "Creole Belle;" "Down Where the Cotton Blossoms Grow," song; "I'll Be With You When the Roses Bloom Again," song; "Hello, Central, Give Me Heaven;" "The Tie that Binds," and "It's Not Always Bullets that Kill;" the above three are by Charles K. Harris and are tremendous hits. "Dalsy and the Butterfly," "The Good Old Days Gone By," "When the Gold is Turning Gray," "She Lives in Alabama," "You'll Wish Me Back Some Day," "Shore Acres" and "If I Thought You Could Make Him Happy." Every one of the above songs are selling fine. "Creole Belle" and "Pickininny Christening," cake walks Mail orders filled the same day we receive them.
