

SMITH'S TRIAL AT AN END

Court-Martial of American General Concludes Its Inquiry of Charges.

FORWARDS FINDINGS TO WASHINGTON

Counsel for Defense Extols Client as Brave and Humane, and Smith's Acquittal is Looked For.

MANTLA, May 3.—The trial by court-martial of General J. H. Smith ended today. The findings of the court will be forwarded to Washington. The general impression here is that he will be acquitted.

The closing address of Colonel Charles A. Woodruff for the defense, was a remarkable oratorical effort that drew tears from his hearers. He dramatically sketched General Smith's career and declared he conducted a remarkable and successful campaign in a manner which reflected credit on his valor, humanity and kindness.

"We claim," continued the colonel, "that the Samar campaign just brought to a successful termination, while pushed actively, was ever conducted within the limits of what is sanctioned by military law. He seemed popular to criticize the army in the Philippines. People seem to have forgotten its magnificent service for America's honor and glory, through sunshine, mud and dust, across rivers and over mountains, through tangled underbrush, in sickness and health, it has reflected nothing but glory upon our flag and country."

Political Abuse of Army. "We have been worthy members of the army, whose bayonets never flashed except in the defense of the law and whose tramp has carried comfort to those in danger, yet today we are apparently disgraced. Why? I cannot imagine that people at home expect to gain glory and political advancement by abusing the army."

Colonel Woodruff, during his address, reviewed the evidence at length, showing the necessity for making Samar a "howling wilderness" and comparing the campaign in the island with the strenuous march to the sea, which was made by "cloud of smoke by day and a pillar of fire by night."

The colonel said it had been proved by the evidence that native boys 8 years of age were capable of wielding bolos. He cited numerous instances of military law, Roman, English and American, in behalf of the defense, and dramatically portrayed General Smith's military career from the time he enlisted in 1861 to 1901, when he was appointed brigadier general, and described his wounds, heroism and devotion to duty.

Lauds Smith's Heroism. Colonel Woodruff added: "Now, after wearing for forty years the uniform of the United States with honor to himself and to the government, at the close of a remarkably successful campaign in which he accomplished what Spain was unable to do in 400 years, returning, as his friends thought, covered with glory, he was halted and taken off to a military prison. Then this gray, wounded, victorious general was exposed to the indignity of a trial, in defense of hysterical public opinion."

Colonel Woodruff alluded to the Balinggasa massacre in Samar as furnishing splendid testimony to the soldiers' heroism, and concluded with saying: "General Smith faces the conscience of the court and people with the full knowledge that he did his duty as an honorable soldier."

The judge advocate, Major Harvey C. Carbaugh, in closing the prosecution, declared the defense had admitted everything, and that it only claimed justification. He said General Smith's orders, given to Major Waller on the bloody battleground of Balinggasa, were such as to cause men to act ruthlessly in a spirit of revenge.

GENERAL SMITH'S LAST ORDER

Publishes Among Troops Order from Chief Forbidding Practice of Water Cure.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The latest order received by the War department from General Smith is as follows: HEADQUARTERS SIXTH SEPARATE BRIGADE, FALLOBAN, Leyte, March 5, 1902.—Circular No. 4.

The following telegram from the division commander received at these headquarters is communicated for general information and guidance: Division headquarters, March 4, 1902. General Smith, Wacloban: Do you know whether or not troops under your command practice water cure on natives? If any truth in action forbid it. (Signed) CHAFFEE.

In order that there may be no possible misunderstanding regarding the strict enforcement of general order and the treatment of natives as required in circular six, dated February 5, 1902, from division headquarters, the brigade commander directs that if any treatment of natives which can possibly be construed as being in violation of general order 100 has occurred at any station in this brigade at any time, that such action must cease. All officers are enjoined to see that natives are always treated in such manner by United States forces that said treatment cannot be criticized by any person.

Hereafter all possible efforts will be used to persuade the natives to come into garrisoned towns to live in order that they be kept under observation and efforts to this end should be made by all scouting parties, which, if persuasion is of no avail, should endeavor to capture all persons seen and they should then be taken to the garrisoned towns. In this way those yet outside our garrisoned towns will be diminished in numbers and the available source of insubordinate recruits and success reduced to a minimum.

By order of Brigadier General Smith: W. A. AYER, Captain Twelfth Infantry.

shape and color of his house before planting his ground. A dwelling should not approach from a little distance as it were disassociated from its surroundings, nor should it seem as if some giant hand had laid it down on a knoll like a chessman on a table. It should be tied down to the ground by the aid of vines and harmoniously placed trees and shrubs. It should be framed in, not wholly concealed, and all features on the grounds should lead up to it.

Beauty of the Grounds Leads Up. Planting should be handled as an artist does his work. In gain certain effects. Never forget that the occupied lawn spaces bear the same relation to trees and shrubs as a room does to the notes in a symphony of music.

There is no reason why planting about a school should interfere with light, air and shade. Cover the bare walls with clinging ivy; add the front entrance by flanking with hardy native shrubs that flower in the early spring or late fall that the children may enjoy them. Tuck a few more in the angles of the playground or yard, protect them by a low railing and cover the fences with vines. Organize the children into improvement associations, give them the care of the plants. Special attention should be given to weekly lessons, on the preparation of ground for sodding and preparing for the plants.

Go into the tenement districts, hold mass meetings of residents of selected blocks. Secure from them some contributions of money, also pledges to assist in caring for the trees, shrubs and flowers. Your committee shall agree to plant. Turn a barren, ugly street into an avenue and see how the people themselves will rise up mentally and morally to meet the added attractiveness of their dwelling spot.

Chinese Woman Doctor. Dr. Yami Kien, an educated Chinese woman, who lives in San Francisco, attracted much attention not only because of her personality, but by her paper on "Glass Mosaics."

Other speakers included Mrs. Alonzo Chapin, Pasadena, Mrs. Julia Von Kirk Willis of Chicago, and Mrs. Katharine Hall of San Francisco. Then came the press program, under Mrs. Ella Peattie of Chicago, which attracted a crowd. The speakers and judges were: Mrs. Sarah Hagin of Atlanta, on "Are Women Necessary to the Newspaper Business?" Mrs. Margaret Collier Graham of California, on "Vogues of the Historical Novel," Emma Payne Ewing of Wisconsin, on "The Moral Influence of the Novelist," Mary Holland Kinkaid, on "Some Humorous Aspects of Newspaper Life," and Rowena Heald Loudon on "The Press—Our American Type."

HONOR A DEAD COLLEAGUE

House Passes Appropriate Resolution Concerning Death of Amos J. Cummings.

ADJOURNS AS A MARK OF RESPECT

Committee Appointed to Attend the Funeral and a Day Set for Memorial Services in the House.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The death of Representative Amos J. Cummings of New York in Baltimore last night caused general regret and sorrow in the house today. Above the hall the flag fluttered at half-mast and on the floor the old familiar desk in the center aisle in the front row which he occupied for so long was draped in black and covered with a profusion of purple orchids and spring flowers. Mr. Cummings was one of the universally popular members of the house and his death seemed to come as a personal loss to all the members.

The blind chaplain, Rev. Dr. Couden, in his invocation made a touching reference to Mr. Cummings' death, his great service to his country as a journalist and statesman, and he prayed for those who had been near and dear to him by the ties of kinship. An order was made to give a day to claim after the disposition of the statehood bill and then Mr. Payne of New York, the dean of the delegation, and the floor leader of the majority, arose and in simple but fitting words made the announcement of Mr. Cummings' death.

"It becomes my sad duty," said he, "to announce the death of my distinguished colleague, Amos J. Cummings, which occurred in Baltimore last night. Of his loyalty and courage, his devotion to duty and unswerving patriotism and his long and distinguished service in the house I shall speak when the house shall set aside a day to pay fitting tribute to his memory."

Resolutions Are Adopted. He then offered the following resolutions: Resolved, That the house has heard with deep regret and profound grief the death of Hon. Amos J. Cummings, late a representative from the state of New York.

Resolved, in recognition of the long and distinguished term of service rendered in this body by Mr. Cummings, that appropriate services be held in the hall of the house Sunday, May 4, at 10 o'clock. Resolved, That a committee of fourteen members of the house, with such members of the senate as may be joined, be appointed to take steps concerning the funeral.

Resolved, That the clerk communicate these resolutions to the senate and transmit a copy of the same to the family of the deceased. Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased the house do now adjourn.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and in accordance with their terms the speaker announced the appointment of the following committee to attend the funeral: Messrs. McClain, Wadsworth, Sulzer, Ray, Fitzgerald, Sherman and Ryan, all of New York; Young of Pennsylvania, Clark of Missouri, Foss of Illinois, Williams of Mississippi, McLeary of Minnesota, Tate of Georgia and Glynn of Virginia.

At 1:25 the speaker as a further mark of respect, declared the house adjourned.

FUNERAL SERVICES IN HOUSE

Tribute to Cummings Will Be Participated in by Both Branches of Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The members of the New York delegation held a meeting prior to the assembling of the house today to take action upon the death of Representative Cummings of New York. Appropriate resolutions were drawn and at the request of the delegation it was decided that Representative Payne, the floor leader of the majority, should make the announcement to the house. It was also decided to hold a service over the remains in the hall of the house tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The body will then be taken to New York, accompanied by a committee. The funeral services will be held there on Wednesday.

The public ceremony in the hall of the house is an unusual tribute to the deceased and is given in recent years only in the case of Representative Kelly of Pennsylvania, a veteran of the house. The ceremony tomorrow will be entirely of a religious character without eulogies or remarks from members. It is expected that the chaplain of the house, Rev. Dr. Couden, will officiate. Both branches of congress will be present, the senate assembling prior to the ceremony in the senate chamber and proceeding in a body to the house.

BALTIMORE, May 3.—The body of Amos J. Cummings of New York was today removed from the Church Home and interred in an undertaking establishment, whence it will be taken to union station tomorrow morning and placed on the 9:34 train for Washington over the Pennsylvania railroad. The body-bearers consisting of capitol policemen, will come over from Washington tomorrow morning and take charge of the casket. Delegations from the local Typographical union, Letter Carriers' association and the Grand Army of the Republic will accompany the body to the railroad station. A committee from the Journalists' club of this city will go to Washington on the funeral train. Handsome floral tributes have been contributed by each of these organizations.

LADYBUGS ARE IMPORTED Brought from China to Fight the Dreaded San Jose Fruit Scale.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The Department of Agriculture is preparing to fight the ravages of the San Jose scale throughout the country with its natural enemy, the ladybug, brought from the interior of China.

Assistant Botanist Mariett has just returned from the Orient, where he sought the original home of the dreaded scale. Far in the interior of the latter country, where European plants had not penetrated, he found the scale and also the ladybugs, which kept the scales in subjection and permitted the native plants to flourish.

Mr. Mariett started home with a good supply of these ladybugs, but only sixteen survived in this country and fourteen of these subsequently died. The remaining two, however, were nursed carefully by the government, with a view to fighting the scale in the same manner as in China. There are now fifty of them, requiring the constant gathering of scales from the department grounds for food. While not expecting the scales to be exterminated from the country, experts are planning to attack them with the increasing breed of their natural enemy.

Her Son's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up by his regular physician, who stands high in my profession. After administering three doses of it my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller of Mount Crawford, Va.

PLACE FOR H. CLAY EVANS Nominated by the President to Be Consul General at London.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The president today set the nomination of H. Clay Evans, to be consul general at London, to the senate.

DO YOU DOUBT?

It doesn't always pay to be a doubter. When vaccination was discovered by Jenner in 1796, the general public refused to believe in the discovery, until thousands of lives were, needlessly, sacrificed.

Prof. Unna, Europe's greatest dermatologist, has discovered that dandruff, falling hair and baldness are caused by a germ or microbe.

His discovery has been verified by such men as Sebourand, Kaposi, Neuman, Lassar, Bishop and many others.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

kills the parasite, whose continued presence means future baldness. This statement is made without reservation, for the reason that careful tests, in the hands of prominent physicians, have removed all doubt upon the subject.

DOCTOR V. T. MCGILLYCUDDY, Medical Inspector Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, Denver, Col., says: "Knowing the composition of Herpicide, I can state that it contains nothing injurious. In twenty-five per cent of the causes of baldness, a neglected dandruff can be considered as its immediate exciting cause or associated condition. Your Herpicide will, in the vast majority of cases, cure and prevent the continuation of dandruff. It is an elegant and ideal hair dressing."

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE stops itching as if by magic. It stops dandruff and falling hair, and in addition it is the most cooling and delightful hair dressing made. The most fastidious are pleased with it and persons of refinement regard it as a toilet necessity.

Shampoo with Newbro's Herpicide Soap Before beginning treatment with Herpicide the hair and scalp should be washed thoroughly, and regularly once a week thereafter. The best soap for this purpose is NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE SOAP (Aseptic Tar). This soap is manufactured for the sole purpose of protecting the users of Newbro's Herpicide from the harmful effects of inferior or alkaline-dangerous shampoos. It represents the highest skill of modern soap making and stands for purity and cleanliness. It is invaluable for the nursery and for persons who cannot use the ordinary commercial soaps. Physicians may use NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE SOAP with the positive assurance that it is absolutely aseptic.

Note: Beware of Imitations The marvelous success of Newbro's Herpicide, from its introduction, as the only destroyer of the dandruff germ, has caused unscrupulous persons to put upon the market many imitations with the false assertion that they also kill the dandruff germ. They are all spurious and some are even dangerous. When you call for Newbro's Herpicide do not accept a substitute. The "just as good" kind is an unknown mixture dishonestly compounded to rob you of your money. You can afford to pay for the genuine. Take no other.

Rawlins said that his only intention in bringing the Gardner matter to the attention of the senate had been to develop the status of the case. He did not want to besmirch the army, but he did want a full inquiry to develop the guilty and have them punished while the innocent may be exonerated. He said the minority "met everywhere with objections and obstructions."

"I call the senator from Utah to order," said Mr. Lodge. "No senator has a right to charge any other senator with obstructions."

Mr. Rawlins referred to the case of Private Riley and quoted the secretary of war as saying private soldiers are inclined to "draw the long bow" in writing home, which, he said, in itself was a reflection on the army. Contrary to the secretary's statement, he said, the charges of the privates had been sustained.

Mr. Lodge—The Riley case is the only one that has been sustained. Mr. Rawlins—The Riley case is the only one that has been fully investigated.

Lodge Serves Notice of Speech. Without replying Mr. Lodge gave notice of a speech next Monday. Mr. Culberson replied to Mr. Foraker's reference to Governor Taft, saying he had intimated a lack of candor in connection with the withholding of the report of Major Gardner. He said the report had been suppressed and added that the secretary of war was now attempting to take the inquiry out of the hands of the senate committee.

At the conclusion of Mr. Culberson's comments, Mr. Pettus said: "I rise merely to ask the senator from Utah (Rawlins) to withdraw the resolution. We are in a situation where the witness cannot be had, and why press this discussion which can only lead to bitterness?"

Mr. Foraker took sharp exception to the criticism of Governor Taft made by Mr. Culberson. He paid a high tribute to Governor Taft and declared that it had remained for the minority to question his honesty of purpose and his veracity.

Patterson Gets Into It. Mr. Patterson of Colorado declared that the record, in his opinion, fully justified the criticism of the lack of frankness of Governor Taft made by Mr. Culberson. Without concluding his remarks Mr. Patterson yielded the floor, as he said he understood the report of the death of Representative Amos J. Cummings of New York was on the president's desk.

The resolutions concerning the death of the secretary Taft were laid before the senate. Mr. Depey of New York offered a resolution expressive of the sorrow of the senate at the death of Mr. Cummings and providing that the chairman appoint a committee of five to join a like committee of the house to make arrangements for the funeral. This resolution was adopted and Senators Platt of New York, Keam of New Jersey, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Jones of Arkansas and Bailey of Texas were named as the committee.

SLAUGHTER IN THE ORIENT Frightful Outrages Committed by the Ever Increasing Army of Chinese Rebels. MORE THAN ONE THOUSAND MURDERED Bodies Left Unburied in the Streets of Ching Shang Fu While Rebels Loot the Stores and Houses.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 3.—News has been brought by the steamer Olympia from the Orient of further successes by the Kwang Si rebels, whose ever growing armies were besieging Nan King on West river at last reports.

Fugitives who were flying to Canton from the scenes of bloodshed and pillage reported that the slaughter at Ching Shang Fu, when that city fell, was awful. More than 1,000 persons were killed and their bodies left unburied in the streets, while the rebels burned and looted the stores and houses.

GATES DEAL IS EXPLAINED Sequel to Recent Heavy Purchases of Louisville & Nashville Stock. CHICAGO, May 3.—A new railway system embracing the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville (Monon) and the Louisville & Nashville will, it is said, soon be in operation between Chicago and New Orleans.

It was learned today, according to the Daily News, that John W. Gates and those working with him have secured control of the Monon. This was done by buying $1,000,000 worth of stock in the open market and by the purchase yesterday from General Sam Thomas of $4,000,000 additional at 72 cents. The Gates syndicate $9,000,000 of the $15,000,000 capital stock of the road.

The purchase was made with the idea of gaining entrance to Chicago for the Louisville & Nashville. A new company, which probably will be called the Chicago & New Orleans Railway company, will operate the two roads. J. P. Morgan & Co., according to the Daily News, will finance the deal. The Louisville & Nashville has about 2,500 miles of track south of the Ohio river, while the Monon has about 600 miles north. The new road will have among its chief points Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, Birmingham, Atlanta, Pensacola and New Orleans. The amount of the capital stock, it is said, has not yet been decided upon.

REDUCED RATES TO PACIFIC Missouri River Points to Get Benefit of a Cut Made in Chicago. CHICAGO, May 3.—The Great Northern, the Northern Pacific and the Soo line have given notice that they will give a round trip rate to North Pacific coast points of $45, and of $40 to Spokane and Montana common points, July 1-23. The Union Pacific has given notice that this rate will be met from Missouri river points. Ticket agents of roads in the Transcontinental Passenger association have been notified not to accept commissions offered by the Pacific coast company, which owns and operates the Pacific Coast Steamship company. A circular of this company offers 5 per cent commissions on Alaska tourist business.

PLACE FOR H. CLAY EVANS

Nominated by the President to Be Consul General at London.

MISS SARAH FINLEY

Vice-President of the Palmetto Club, Memphis, Tennessee.

WINE OF CARDUI has brought relief to over a million women during the years of its existence. It is a thoroughly scientific and modern remedy, meeting the needs of the modern women in the modern way—without the torture of an operation. Women are modest. Modesty is their charm and because Wine of Cardui appeals to women's modesty by curing them in the privacy of their homes it has found a place in the hearts of American women that no other medicine has found. In their gratitude over 10,000 American women have written letters commending Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui meets their wants as no other medicine does. It sustains the young girl at the shock of her entrance to womanhood. Women who take Wine of Cardui have little discomfort during pregnancy and little pain at childbirth. When the change of life appears they enter a happy, healthy old age. Every month it comes to the rescue to assist Nature in throwing the impurities from the body.

Miss Sarah Finley, of Memphis, Tenn., Vice-President of the Palmetto Club of that city, speaks for herself and many friends when she bestows the following praise on Wine of Cardui: "Among the numerous medicines placed before suffering women for their relief none can touch McEneaney's Wine of Cardui. It towers above them all as a reliable female remedy. It simply drives pain and disease away and restores health in an incredibly short period. I have taken great interest in this medicine for the past two years, since it brought health and strength to me. I have also recommended it to a number of my friends and they who have used it speak of it in the highest terms and I feel that it is praise well bestowed."

If you are suffering from female weakness Wine of Cardui is the medicine you need. Mrs. Lizzie C. Ward, of Bowmans, Va., says so. "Wine of Cardui is doing me lots of good. I feel better than I have for some time. My menses are all right now and I feel better at this time than I have ever felt in my life. I think it is a grand medicine."

Mrs. S. L. Horton, of Tampa, Fla., says so. "I have taken Wine of Cardui for some time and I am glad to say it does me more good than anything else I have ever taken. I have told so many about it. I have taken six bottles and have also given it to my daughter."

Miss Emma Harris, of Charlottesville, Va., says so. "Wine of Cardui is just what it is put up for. There is nothing like it. I would be in my grave were it not for Wine of Cardui and I hope every woman will give it a trial."

You can have health the same as these women if you will take the Wine of Cardui treatment. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles. If you need advice further than the complete directions given on the bottle, address The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI RELIEVES ALL "FEMALE ILLS".
