Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Spring Health Giver
Makes Sick People Well.

A Prominent Clergyman Tells How He Escaped from His Deadly Perils.

When spring comes with its gentle showers, its balmy air, its bright sunshine and bursting buds, it too often brings to our homes scenes of suffering and physical decay.

The seeds of disease which were imperceptibly germinating during the winter months, have developed and planted in the system dangers that now call for our instant care and attention. Neglect and procrastination will only deepen existing perils and lead to death.

Before the advent of spring, you must have noted symptoms, perhaps of indigestion, dyspepsia, rheumatism, neuralgia, kidney disease, liver complaint, functional irregularities, or nervous disorders.

Take warning! Sufferer! The symptoms you experience are signals of disease. Delay not another day; hesitation and indecision on your part may forever seal your fate. If you have already made efforts to banish your troubles by the use of other medicines and the treatment of physicians, and these have failed, we counsel you to put your full trust in that great disease banisher, Paine's Celery Compound. Its use for a week or two will convince you that you have truly commenced a new existence.

Rev. W. E. Aldridge, a leading and prominent clergyman of Birmingham, Ala., says: "I had been afflicted for ten years with what I thought to be heart disease, but after having the physicians examine me, I learned that I was almost dead from indigestion. They told me they could give me medicine that would relieve me but there was no permanent cure. Then I began using Paine's Celery Compound which gave me immediate relief, and I am now well and enjoying good health. I can recommend Paine's Celery Compound to be the best medicine for all ailments; if people will use the Compound freely, they will have no doctor's bills to pay."

ARGUE AGAINST A RAISE

Railroads Present Their Views to State Board on Assessment.

INSURANCE FEES ARE PAID PROMPTLY

Governor Savage Decides to Go to Launching of Battleship Nebraska—Strike of State House Janitors Has Not Spread.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, May 5.—(Special.)—The preliminary work of fixing the valuation of railroad, telegraph and telephone property for purposes of taxation was begun this afternoon by the State Board of Equalization. All three members of the board, Governor Savage, Treasurer Steuffer and Auditor Weston, attended, but did nothing more than listen to arguments by representatives of various corporations. At the conclusion of the session an adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The persons who appeared before the board represented the Burlington, Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroads and the Pullman company. All argued against an increase of last year's valuation and presented figures purporting to show that the assessment of their property is at a higher rate, in proportion to real value, than the assessment of other kinds of property.

"We have not discussed the railroad assessment matter in any official way," said Auditor Weston this afternoon. "This was the first meeting held and the business consisted of listening to the representatives of the railroad companies and the Pullman company. Some of us asked questions as they proceeded, but took no action whatever on any proposition, and when the men finished their talking we adjourned."

The governor held several bulky documents in his hands throughout the arguments and referred to them repeatedly, often basing his questions on figures contained therein. He did not read them, however, but is expected to do so at some future meeting of the board.

The arguments were made to the board in executive session. In response to an inquiry this afternoon Auditor Weston said that future meetings also would probably be held behind closed doors.

Willing to Arbitrate.

There have been no developments of moment since Saturday in the labor trouble at the state house. Janitor McElliot, who turned his keys over to Secretary of State Marsh and resigned from the state's employ, still in the city and is said to be willing to submit to arbitration. Another member of the force is complaining because he has more than his share of duties to perform and threatens to join the strike unless relieved. Still another janitor, who has not been considered the favorite of one of the state officers, is complaining because he has been assigned to exterminate twice as many dandelions as any other janitor.

Insurance Men Pay Early.

Deputy Insurance Auditor Babcock says that $34,322.87 has been paid to the state as fees by insurance companies since January 1. The collections for the four months greatly exceed the amount collected last year with January 1, the total being $15,286.89. The collections for the year, however, will probably not greatly exceed those of last year because very few fees remain to be paid.

With the mystery of his death still unsolved, the body of Bruno Hermann, late editor of the Free Press, was buried yesterday in Wyuka cemetery. Services were conducted in Walton's undertaking rooms by M. A. Newmark, according to the rites of the Reformed Jewish church. No relatives of the dead attended the funeral. Mrs. Hermann's wife, has not yet been located, nor has any word been received from her. Mr. Hermann was found dead in his room, 338 South Thirteenth street, a week ago. An empty vial found in the room contained a fatal dose of strychnine. The total income for the month was $1,182.19, of which $1,867 was collected from business consumers and the balance from the treasurer's office as the amount derived from taxation.

Union Labor Protests.

Governor Savage has accepted the invitation to attend the ceremonies incident to the laying of the keel of the battleship Nebraska at Seattle on July 4. A union labor organization which had some trouble with the contractor who is building the ship requested the governor not to attend the celebration. Governor Savage explains the acceptance of the invitation by saying that he is unwilling to join a labor boycott. The governor will likely be accompanied by his military staff.

The Lincoln Typographical union has nominated four candidates for the office of delegate to the International Typographical union convention, which will be held in Cincinnati in August. They are D. K. Kirkland, O. C. Forbes, Bert Penzler and W. H. Toy.

P. Courcy Richards, the aged man who was recently convicted and sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment for assaulting his 12-year-old step-daughter, was taken to the penitentiary. Strenuous efforts were made to secure a pardon for him, but the governor declined to interfere with the court's judgment.

Miss Caroline Meyer, who has been a member of the office force in the executive department, has gone to Washington to accept a position under Senator Dietrich, and Governor Savage has named Miss Beesie Snowden of Kearney as her successor.

TAKES STRYCHNINE AND DIES

Farmhand at Beaver City Ends His Own Life While Temporarily Insane.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., May 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Conley Thayer, a single man, 32 years old, committed suicide this morning by taking strychnine at the house of James Thornton, two miles from Beaver City. No cause can be assigned for the act, except the probability that he was mentally unbalanced. He purchased the strychnine in Beaver City on Saturday, took it home and buried it near the house. Monday morning, when he was at the separator station in Beaver City with the milk, he dug it up, swallowed half of it and again buried the remainder. He then entered his room and informed Mrs. Thornton that he had taken something. She became alarmed and summoned a neighbor living near Dr. Brewster was sent for, but arrived too late to be of service to the dying man, who expired soon after his arrival. Coroner Hopping convened a jury, who rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

EFFORT TO TAP BANK FAILS

Burglars Try for Waco Cash, but Are Frightened Away Before Securing Anything.

YORK, Neb., May 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Bank robbers tried to get the funds of the Bank of Waco early this morning. They secured tools from a blacksmith shop nearby, but only succeeded in breaking in the door and knocking a few bricks out of the vault when they were scared away. Cashier Caracandis thinks it is the work of three strangers who visited and hung around the bank yesterday. Bloodhounds were secured, but they only succeeded in tracking the burglars to the railroad track, where it is supposed they caught a freight train out of town. Every bank in York carries a full bank insurance and could not suffer heavy loss. These men are supposed to be the same burglars who tried to get in the Milligan bank safe. Every effort is being made to capture them.

DELIVERS UP HIS BROTHER

Jack Lamb Turns Over Alleged Cattle Thief to Officers and Demands Reward.

GREELEY CENTER, Neb., May 5.—(Special.)—The alleged cattle thief, Mike Lamb, accompanied by his brother Jack, surrendered to the officers here this morning. His brother demanded the reward offered for Mike's capture.

A posse consisting of the sheriff and his deputies is still scouring the hills in the vicinity of Lamb's home, being in ignorance of his surrender.

Body that of Tienken.

WEST POINT, Neb., May 5.—(Special.)—The body found in the river at Omaha yesterday is undoubtedly that of Henry Tienken, formerly a prosperous farmer of this county. Tienken and his wife and family lived west of the city on a farm up to a few months ago, when his dissolute habits and abuse of his wife and children compelled the woman to swear out a peace complaint against him. His wife then sold the personal property belonging to them and the pair divided the proceeds. Tienken stayed away for some time, but a few weeks ago returned with the avowed purpose of killing his wife. He was returned to jail and remained there until a few days ago, when he was again set at liberty and presumably went to Omaha, where he met his death.

Saloon Men Must Answer Charge.

BEATRICE, Neb., May 5.—(Special Telegram.)—The cases of the State of Nebraska against the saloon men, Henry Tienken, Frank Dockel, W. Sweeney, Hank Woodruff and Joseph Plear, six saloon men of Wynmore, arrested some time ago on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday, and Rae Hamilton, keeper of an alleged disreputable house, who was also arrested the same day on the same charge, were called in county court today and continued until Friday morning.

RAILROADERS FILE ANSWER

Hill-Morgan Man Describe Merger as Enterprise to Aid International Commerce.

BILL IN DEFENSE IN KNOX PROCEEDING

Purpose of the Company to Secure Ablest Management of Each Road and Not to Restrain Competition.

ST. PAUL, May 5.—An enterprise in aid of a great competitive and international commerce, is the description of the Northern Securities company given in the answer filed by the attorneys for that corporation in the suit brought by Attorney General P. C. Knox on behalf of the United States to enjoin the so-called merger of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railroads.

This answer was filed late this afternoon in the United States circuit court in this city and at the same time individual answers were filed by James J. Hill, William P. Clough, D. Willis James, John S. Kennedy, George F. Baker and the Great Northern railway, and by J. Pierpont Morgan, Robert Bacon, Daniel S. Lamont and the Northern Pacific railway. These various papers follow the same lines.

The answer of the Northern Securities company is divided into two parts. The first part is largely a denial of the petition as respecting any charge of conspiracy and as respecting the purposes of the organization of the Securities company.

Amount of Stock Owned.

Instead of owning a majority of the shares of the Great Northern or Northern Pacific companies, it is stated that those who are interested in the organization of the Securities company did not own over $15,000,000 of a majority of the Great Northern shares and a little more than one-fourth of the Northern Pacific shares.

This part of the answer states that the Securities company has acquired by transfer from the Great Northern and Northern Pacific shares purchased over $40,000,000 in cash; that many stockholders have not and may not sell shares and that neither company, by any act or suggestion, has solicited shareholders to sell to the Securities company.

Purchase of Burlington.

In the second part of the answer the purchase of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway Company is taken up, the petition is largely a denial of the petition as alleged, erroneously stated in the petition.

Attention is called to the sparsely settled or unsettled nature of the country through which the Great Northern lines pass; the abundance of raw materials to be hauled at a low mileage rate; the great timber wealth in the Pacific northwest and the necessity of a return load for the cars taking this timber to the prairie states; the development of trade with eastern Asia as a means of securing such return loads; and the establishment of a connecting steamship line for that purpose.

It is stated that "in the interstate and international commerce, which the Great Northern company has thus built up, it competes both in this country and on the ocean with the other transcontinental lines (including the Canadian Pacific), and at the Oriental port it competes for the commerce of the world."

Its rates are and must be made in competition with the rates of ocean carriers and by way of the Suez canal. The policy thus followed by the Great Northern company in building up an international, and then having interstate commerce, has been followed by the Northern Pacific company since its reorganization in 1896.

It is said that both roads were placed at a disadvantage with other transcontinental railroads, as well as with European competitors, by the want of sufficient railroad connections with the territory offering the best markets along their lines and with the place of production and great centers of distribution from which their traffic must be supplied. The lines of the Burlington, better than those of any other lines, furnished the requirements of both roads in respect to markets for eastbound and freight for westbound traffic. The answer recites these various markets and their products, and continues:

Price Paid for Burlington.

The price paid for said Burlington stock was lower per mile than that for which the stock and other well established systems in the same general territory could then have been obtained.

The purchase of the Burlington stock by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies equal parts served each company as well as if it were the sole owner of the entire stock.

The Northern and Northern Pacific companies therefore each purchased an equal number of shares of the Burlington stock as the best means and for the sole purpose of reaching the best markets for their respective roads, increase the trade and interchange of commodities between the regions traversed by the Burlington lines and the requirements of both regions traversed or reached by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific lines by their connecting lines of shipping on the Pacific coast.

Of Old Origin.

The history of the formation of the holding company is given very fully, the project having its inception many years prior to the decision of the supreme court in the Peck-Balle case, which has been alleged to be the reason for the organization of the holding company. Ten large shareholders in the Great Northern and its predecessor as far back as 1893, began to discuss together what would be the effect upon the company's policy should their holdings become scattered and by what means their holdings could be kept together so as to secure the continuance of such policy in the management of the company. The idea of a holding company resulted, but no definite agreement was made. These same Great Northern shareholders from time to time, after the reorganization of the Northern Pacific in 1896, had made large purchases of Northern Pacific shares, individually, without any concerted action, and solely as investments. About May 1, 1901, their aggregate holdings of Northern Pacific common stock amounted to nearly $20,000,000 of the $50,000,000 of the common stock of the company which also had $75,000,000.

Pending or just after the conclusion of the negotiations for the Burlington stock parties acting in the interest of the Union Pacific railway system bought certain shares, both common and preferred, to the amount of about $750,000, thereby a clear majority of the entire capital stock of that company. The apparent intent of such purchase was to interest adverse to the Burlington railway system, and it was intended that it would have defeated the carrying out of the purposes for which the Burlington shares had been bought by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies and the development of interstate and international commerce of each of them, and would have subordinated the policy of each to the interest adverse to both the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies and to the public served by their lines.

Next is recited the conference with J. Pierpont Morgan over the proposed holding company as a means of protecting all interests, and it is added:

Deny Intention to Combine.

It is denied specifically and generally that any stock secured is to be held or used "for the purpose of combining, consolidating or placing under one common management or control the railways of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific companies or the business thereof, or for the purpose of monopolizing or restraining competition between the said railway companies, or for any other purpose than the election by each of said railway companies of a competent and distinct board of directors, able and intending to manage each of them independently of the other and for the benefit of their shareholders and of the public."

For a Weak Back.

The muscles of the back may be very much strengthened and all pain and soreness removed by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and having the parts rubbed vigorously for five minutes at each application. Twenty-five and fifty-cent bottles of this liniment are for sale by all druggists.

We have a uniform schedule of prices for rooms which you will find quoted below, together with the description of the rooms we can now offer.

List of vacant rooms in The Bee Building

(A. J. Hall, M. D.)

Gentlemen: I have prescribed that wonderful remedy for kidney complaint, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, with most beneficial effect and know of many cures by its use. These patients had kidney trouble, as diagnosed by other physicians, and treated without benefit. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root effected a cure. I am a liberal man and accept a specific wherever I find it, in an accepted school or out of it. For desperate cases of kidney complaint under treatment with unsatisfactory results I turn to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root with most flattering results. I shall continue to prescribe it and from personal observation state that Swamp-Root has great curative properties. Truly yours,
I. Barstow Irish, M. D.

There is no office building in Omaha which can give the same accommodations. We can offer you light, handsome offices in a fireproof building, with all day, all night and all day Sunday elevator service, the rental price including light, heat, water and janitor service at reasonable rates.

We have a uniform schedule of prices for rooms which you will find quoted below, together with the description of the rooms we can now offer.
