PEORIA LOSES ON ERRORS

Gets Five More Hits Than the Men from Omaha, But Throws Game Away.

ROURKITES NOT SLOW WITH THE STICK

Game Which Was Postponed Tuesday is to Be Played Off Today Along with Regularly Scheduled Contest.

PEORIA, Ill., May 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Although the Peorians outbatted the visitors, securing fifteen hits off Owens, they lost the second game of the series with Omaha, largely through errors, the locals making some rank plays. For three innings not a man crossed the home plate, but in the fourth Omaha won the game. Dolan started the ball with a three-bagger and Tibald's error on Stewart's grounder permitted him to gallop home. Hickey lined out a long hit, which allowed Stewart to score. Owens hit to Kennedy, who made a rank error, and Hickey scored on Carter's hit to Truby. In the sixth inning Omaha scored another. Gonding hit for a base. With two out Carter got a free pass to first and Gonding scored on Genins' hit along the foul line. The locals were strong at the bat, but it was not until the sixth that they made a score. In that inning Truby hit for two bases and Lezotte brought him home with a single. In the eighth another was added. Lezotte hit for a base and went to third on Vaughn's single. Maloney hit to Dolan and in a double play that followed Lezotte scored. Peoria made a desperate effort to tie the score in the ninth. Tibald walked to first and Wilson flew out. McGill hit to Owens and Tibald was retired at second. Stone hit to Dolan, who made a bad error. Truby hit over second, scoring McGill. This ended the run-getting. The game postponed by rain Tuesday will be played off tomorrow. Attendance, 820. The score:

Nebraska Loses to Northwestern.

CHICAGO, May 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Nebraska met its first defeat today at the hands of Northwestern, the latter owing its victory rather to Nebraska's errors than to its own playing. Although it was of a superior sort it was the yellow streak of the westerners which is bound to show up once in a while. The shame is that it should have come in today's game. Townsend pitched a fine game, but his support was extremely ragged at the times when it was needed the most. It was a pretty game from a spectators' point of view, abounding in double plays and pretty fielding on Northwestern's part. Score by innings:

AMATEUR HORSEMEN GET BUSY

Large Number Enrolled as Members of Club and Races Arranged for Saturday.

A meeting was held by the amateur horsemen at the Millard hotel last evening. The outlook for the summer's season seemed particularly bright. The following, most of whom were present, were enrolled as members: J. L. Kennedy, F. A. Nash, J. L. Baker, C. N. Isard, A. W. Nason, W. A. Watson, W. F. Gerke, W. A. Mackey, J. M. Cudahy, W. E. Mullen, M. T. Learned, A. N. Benn, C. C. Kendall, L. F. Crofoot, C. S. Moore, W. C. Russell, R. A. Thompson, D. Talbott, Tom Dennison, W. A. Paxton, jr., H. H. Thomas, H. W. Dunn, John Northcott, G. C. Byrne, F. S. Cowgill, C. W. Hall, John Bishop, Nat Brown, C. E. Black, Dr. C. E. Cosford, W. H. Dudley, Charles Creighton, P. B. Haight, W. B. Huston, W. H. McCord, H. J. Root, H. E. Togg, W. H. Town, A. U. Wyman, A. Campbell, James Hayden, M. Doty, Al Russell, H. E. Fredrickson, Hugh McCaffrey, Frank Burkley, J. H. Jones, Joseph Crow, Clinton Briggs, Hugo Brandeis.

After the enrollment of members was completed races were formed for tomorrow afternoon. The fast event of the day will be a special race, a free-for-all mixed, with these horses: Tom Dennison's Durada, 2:18, trotter; H. W. Dunn's Jeska, 2:14¼, pacer, and doubtless Dr. Cosford's Nellie Ash, pacer, with a half-mile amateur record of 1:09½.

A very interesting regular event will be a mixed race, the horses to be hitched to wagons and the race to be awarded the person driving the half nearest 1:45. Four entries are anticipated, two of which are as follows: M. L. Learned's Patsy, 2:25½, trotter, and A. W. Nason's Cedric, pacer, with no record.

A 2:35 pacing class has the following entries: L. F. Crofoot's Governor Taylor, R. A. Thompson's Blackhawk, C. C. Kendall's Blugen, 2:17¼.

A three-minutes trotting class has been arranged for P. B. Haight's Max, W. A. Paxton, jr.'s, Polly Fox, 2:19¼; Charles Moore's Sunlight.

A 2:50 pacing event is booked for C. E. Black's Ruby, W. E. Mullen's Lolla and W. C. Russell's Poverty.

The classification of these races was not made as to record, but as to the supposed present speed of the various horses.

The races will be called at 2:30 p. m. at the half-mile track at Twenty-fourth and Sprague and according to the rules of the American Trotting association no admission can be charged to the ground or grandstand.

Some prominent Omaha men will officiate as judges and timers, and a well known Council Bluffs horseman will doubtless officiate in the starter's box.

Hawkeyes Ready for Badgers.

IOWA CITY, Ia., May 8.—(Special.)—The Iowa-Minnesota field and track meet on Iowa field Friday afternoon promises to be a hard-fought contest. Coach Williams of Minnesota says of the prospects of the two universities in the meet: "From what I can judge from the records made by the athletes of Minnesota and Iowa previous to the meet, I should say that Iowa has the best chances of winning a closely contested meet." The three events which Iowa think they are sure to win are the broad jump, the discus-throw and the two-mile run. Ross made 22 feet 3 inches last Saturday in the Iowa home meet against 21 feet 2¾ inches by Crossette of Minnesota. Swift of Iowa threw the discus 113 feet, against 106 feet by LaFans of Minnesota. Haroldson won the Minnesota two-mile run in 13 minutes.—Iowa has but one performer in the event, Ralph Williamson, who went last week the distance in 11:30.

Whitney Has Bad Luck.

NEW YORK, May 8.—W. C. Whitney's English Derby candidate, Nasturtium, will, it is reported, be shipped back to the United States on the steamer Minneapolis. Great hopes had been held for the winning of the classic event by an American bred animal, but soon after Nasturtium's arrival in England, several months ago, she developed lung trouble. Mr. Whitney is said to have small hope of ever racing her again. Firebrand, a promising 2-year-old, by Water Cress-Cottage Girl, is dead at Mr. Whitney's place, Westbury, L. I. The colt had been entered in many juvenile stakes at Morris park.

WOMAN STABBED TO DEATH

Crime Occurs at Her Home During Progress of a Drunken Carousal.

CINCINNATI, May 8.—Mrs. George W. Herget was killed early today during a carousel at her home in Dayton, Ky. Her husband, William Thornton, Frank Kent, Thomas Shields and William Murray, alias Ford Mattox, have been arrested on the charge of murder.

Herget is the son of a wealthy distiller who died at Pekin, Ill., two years ago. Owing to the habits of George his inheritance was left in trust. When his monthly remittance came, Thornton, Kent, Shields and Murray were accustomed to visit the Herget home.

One of those occasions, yesterday, continued during the night. At 1 o'clock this morning the officers were attracted by screams and found Mrs. Herget lying prostrate in her yard badly stabbed. She died shortly after being taken to the hospital without making any statement.

The seven men were taken out of the house afterward in such condition that none of them up to almost noon were able to talk. The dead woman's maiden name was Sellinger of Clyde, O. They had no children.

Mrs. Palma Sails for Havana.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Mrs. Tomas Estrada Palma, wife of the president-elect of the Cuban republic, sailed for Havana today on the steamer Havana.

HAMPTON ROADS CONFERENCE

Meeting Between Lincoln and Confederate Leaders Detailed by Senator Vest.

CORRECTS STATEMENT OF TILLMAN

Dolliver of Iowa Humorously, but Sarcastically, Rebukes Carmack for His Attack of Philippine Policy.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Discussion of the Philippine bill in the senate today, while it scarcely abated in bitterness, took on an amusing phase. In a breezy speech Mr. Dolliver of Iowa made such a good-natured and yet such a sarcastic arraignment of Mr. Carmack of Tennessee that senators and occupants of the thronged galleries were convulsed with laughter. While seemingly considerable temper was aroused by the debate, good feeling was shown by the active participants in the war of words—Mr. Dolliver and Mr. Carmack—who cordially shook hands and laughed over the encounter.

In response to some statements made yesterday by Mr. Tillman, Mr. Vest of Missouri delivered a forceful and effective speech and made an historical contribution with reference to the Hampton Roads conference between President Lincoln and confederate leaders.

Mr. Carmack delivered a scathing denunciation of the conduct of military operations in the Philippines and denounced General Smith, branding him as a "scoundrel" and "murderer who had dishonored the American army and had done nothing but butcher a whole people."

Dolliver's Trenchant Rebuke.

In a sarcastic response Mr. Dolliver of Iowa scorchingly arraigned Mr. Carmack, incidentally reading an editorial from a Memphis paper criticising the Tennessee senator's attitude on the Philippine question. Mr. Carmack's reply was of such a nature as to cause him to be called to order for a statement reflecting upon Mr. Dolliver, but the incident ended in good feeling.

Mr. Perkins of California interrupted the debate to offer a resolution declaring that the senate had heard with profound grief of the death of Rear Admiral William T. Sampson, and providing for the appointment of a committee of five senators to join a like committee of the house to attend the funeral as a mark of respect to the dead officer. The resolution was adopted and Messrs. Perkins, Gallinger, Quarles, Martin and Mallory were named as the committee.

Mr. Carmack of Tennessee replied to Mr. Burton's defense of General Funston. He acknowledged Funston's physical courage, but said he had been guilty of falsification and was not fit to wear a uniform.

Mr. Carmack then entered a protest against the revival of sectional animosities. He said he presumed that the republicans were acting under instructions from the White House in the hope of breaking the force of the disclosures, which were being brought out regarding the Philippines. Mr. Carmack said the south had a problem to deal with and all they asked was to be let alone. If the republicans proved all the outrages they alleged in the south it would not justify the policy in the Philippines.

Mr. Vest of Missouri called attention to the statement of Mr. Tillman, made yesterday, that at the historic conference in Hampton Roads in 1864, between President Lincoln, William H. Seward, secretary of state, Alex A. Stevens, vice president of the Confederate states; R. M. T. Hunter, former United States senator, and John A. Campbell, formerly justice of the United tSates supreme court, President Lincoln wrote upon a piece of paper: "Save the Union," then handing it to Stevens, said:

"Alex, take this paper and fill up for yourselves the conditions of peace between the two countries."

Mr. Vest said the story had been denied by John H. Reagan of Texas, who was the last surviving member of the Confederate cabinet.

"He knew personally," said Mr. Vest, "without having been present at that celebrated interview, that the incident was without the slightest foundation.

Effect if True.

"If true," said he, "it would place the government and officers of the Confederate states in the category of criminals, because it offered the Confederacy all that it ever demanded in the wildest hope of the most extreme partisans of that cause if they would only return to the union; if true it would mean that the Confederates could have placed on that sheet of paper the perpetual establishment of slavery and the right of secession, the most extreme demand that had ever taken locality even in the dream of any Confederate."

From the lips of Stephens and Hunter had come to him, he said, "the details of what took place. Upon the return of the commissioners of the Confederacy he heard their official report, as Mr. Reagan heard it, the latter being a member of the cabinet and the speaker (Mr. Vest, a member of the Confederate senate.) I am today the only surviving member of the twenty-six gentlemen who acted as Confederate senators."

Mr. Vest then stated that what did happen at Hampton Roads beyond question was this: That when the president and Secretary Seward met the commissioners of the Confederacy, Mr. Lincoln, addressing himself to Mr. Hunter, whom he knew well, said: "In the first place, gentlemen, I desire to know what are your powers and instructions from the Richmond government," avoiding, said Mr. Vest, as Mr. Hunter told him himself, the words "confederate states."

Mr. Hunter, to whom the inquiry was addressed, said: "Mr. President, we are instructed to consider no proposition that does not involve the independence of the Confederate States of America."

"Then," said Mr. Lincoln, "the interview had as well terminate now, for I must say to you, gentlemen, frankly and honestly, that nothing will be accepted from the government at Richmond except absolute and unconditional surrender."

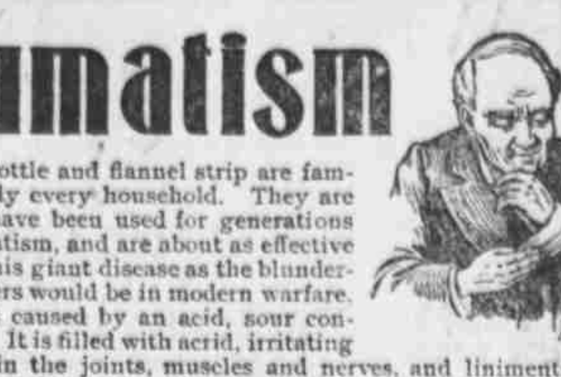
This Terminates Interview.

Mr. Vest said that this terminated the interview and as the Confederate commissioners retired President Lincoln, addressing Stephens, who was the last to go out, said: "Stephens, you are making a great mistake. Your government is a failure and when the crash comes, as it soon must come, there will be chaos and disasters which we cannot now foresee which must come to your people."

"This account of that interview," continued Mr. Vest, "substantially, and almost word for word as I have given it, came to me from Mr. Stephens and Mr. Hunter."

Mr. Vest said he considered it his duty to make this statement in order that history may not be falsified, in order that the men who were said to have refused this offer at the hands of President Lincoln should not be made to sin in their graves, adding, "for if they had refused what was said to have been tendered to them by the president, they would have been accessories to the murder of every man who fell from that time in defense of the Confederate cause and they should had given the lie to the intentions which they professed when they risked everything, everything that is held dear amongst men, in defense of the Confederate cause."

Rheumatism



The liniment bottle and flannel strip are familiar objects in nearly every household. They are the weapons that have been used for generations to fight old Rheumatism, and are about as effective in the battle with this giant disease as the blunderbuss of our forefathers would be in modern warfare.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid, sour condition of the blood. It is filled with acrid, irritating matter that settles in the joints, muscles and nerves, and liniments and oils nor anything else applied externally can dislodge these gritty, corroding particles. They were deposited there by the blood and can be reached only through the blood. Rubbing with liniments sometimes relieves temporarily the aches and pains, but these are only symptoms; the real disease lies deeper. The blood and system are infected. Rheumatism cannot be radically and permanently cured until the blood has been purified, and no remedy does this so thoroughly and promptly as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acids and sends a stream of rich, strong blood to the affected parts, which dissolves and washes out all foreign materials, and the sufferer obtains happy relief from the torturing pains.

SSS

S. S. S. contains no potash or other mineral, is a perfect vegetable blood purifier and most exhilarating tonic. It relieves pain and builds up the exhausted vital forces at the same time. Our physicians will advise, without charge, all who write about their case, and we will send free our special book on Rheumatism and its treatment.
