

SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS

Kansas City Gives Omaha Its First Real Drubbing for the Season.

NICHOLS HAS THE LEADERS GUESSING

Connect with His Batters Only Four Times and But for Kansas City's Errors It Would Have Been a Shutout.

KANSAS CITY, May 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The Mannings put a check on Omaha's winning streak in the opening game of the series at Sportsman park today and did it easily. Twirler Brown, who operated the center of the diamond for the Bourke band, proved to be the easiest proposition that the local Western League team has met and they kept up a steady bombardment from start to finish, storing away nineteen hits, which, with four errors, gave them the game by a score of 11 to 0. It was simply Brown's day to sit on the bench, but Manager Bourke did not find his out in time and when it did dawn upon him that perhaps someone else might do better it was too late, for the inhabitants of the park had practically finished the game in the first four innings with seven runs. This was the first time this season that Brown's twisters had been treated so. Had Brown not already been on quiver boulevard his support would have tended to demoralize him, a poor attempt in the second inning by Carrier to stop Ketchum's drive, letting in three runs. The other two errors were not so costly, as the hits which followed would have scored the Mannings anyway.

The poor showing of the Omahahogs may be accounted for and excused in a measure by the fact that they rode all Friday night on the way from Peoria and the lack of rest showed when steadiness and clear headwork was required.

Nichols Has Them Guessing

Charlie Nichols did the twirling for Kansas City and his twisters were at all times puzzles to the guests, who placed only four of them out of the road. His backing, however, was not up to the standard of the work set in the box and to errors can be laid two of the Nebraska's runs. Calhoun at first was hurt in the fourth inning and forced to retire. Goding was taken from behind the bat and placed at the first corner and Thomas went in to catch.

In the second Ketter, the first man up, walked and sailed on to second on DeMontreville's sacrifice. Allen scored Ketter on a hit to center and Messitt was given a pass to first. Nichols placed a long one to left that looked good to two bases, but Fleming, by a great piece of fielding, pulled it down. Ketchum pushed a drive to left and Carrier, overly anxious to gather it in, let it go through him clear to the fence. Ketchum never stopped, following Allen and Messitt across the plate.

Sixth a Battering Carnival

The sixth inning was a batting carnival for fair. Nichols was the first to get in scoring, lacing out a two-bagger. Ketchum scored him on a single to center. Shanon fell in line with a sharp grounder to Hickey. The third baseman could not handle it in time to cut off Shanon at first, but he threw anyway, perhaps just for practice. However, it was a disastrous piece of work, for the ball went wide and Shanon scampered on to third. It was on this play that Calhoun was hurt. In trying to get the wide throw he stepped in the path and Shanon pumped into him, Walcott, Robinson and Ketter followed with three more singles, adding two runs. Four more scores were added in the seventh on three triples and two doubles.
