erday that the large order received by Cudahy from the British government for canned corned beef would materially effect the price of poor cattle. It was stated that at this time of the year there is but little of this class of stork on hand, the run being generally made in the fall. The material which goes to make up the mean Secretary of State Hay: ordered from London is exclusively from which can be used for but little attle else. The supply being so limited, and the order for 21,000,000 pounds having to be filled within the next sixty days, it is thought will naturally raise the price of them broken into and robbed. Not to be outdone by the Omaha assessment investigation, South Omaha will have a little trouble of its own along this line in all probability. In the opinion of the tax commissioner, the assessment on corporation property has been entirely too low and the amount of tax will be required to pay will exceed all former years. The deduction by the electric light company of $100,000 for South Omaha property in the Omaha assessment will probably be used as a basis in the new assessment. Have More Teachers to Elect.

Secretary Lott of the Board of Educaion stated yesterday that the report circulated to the effect that the board had elected some twenty more teachers than was necessary to carry on the school work in South Omaha was an error. Mr. Lott stated that the number of teachers employed last year was 104, while but ninetyfour had thus far been chosen.

Relatives Do Not Respond.

Although the address of the mother of Thomas J.
