DOUBLE TRACK TO VALLEY

Union Pacific Will Make Improvement in the Near Future.

ENGINE OFF TRACK AT UNION STATION

Officials of New York, New Haven and Hartford Visit Omnbn to Investigate Railroad Situation at This Point.

It was stated at Union Pacific headquarters Friday morning that the double tracking of the Union Pacific system between Council Bluffs and Valley was to be completed in the near future. This portion of the main line is now double-tracked as far as Gilmore, thirteen miles from Council Bluffs. From Valley to Council Bluffs is thirty-eight miles, and this will be the longest continuous stretch of double track on the Union Pacific line.

This move means that the concentration of traffic on this part of the line has become so pronounced as to demand a double track. Those thirty-eight miles constitute the peripheral center of the main line, as practically all trains that move anywhere save short locals from intermediate terminais run over this piece of track. That short piece of track, therefore, receives during the day the traffic and train accretions of every portion of the system.

This centralizing of all this business in both freight and passenger sides on the main line from Valley in makes the line aguratively solid with trains during the busier hours of the day. It also compels many arrangements of schedule and running time which are inconvenient, but necbecary because of the limited track facilition. Thirty-two regular trains run across that stretch of track every day, and then there is the usual quota of specials, especially in treight traffic, which is always

Engine Jumps the Track.

A peculiar accident happened to Illinois Central engine No. 232 at the Union station yards Thursday night, delaying in departure for ferty-five minutes the Hilinois Central Cannon Ball, No. 2, which is scheduled to leave for Chicago at 7:50 p m. Engine No. 232 was just backing the train into the station when at a point just west of the east switch tower the tender of the engine climbed a rail with seemingly no cause at all, and the next minute the tender and engine were both off the track. That particular point in the track is passed over hundreds of times a day and has never caused any trouble before. None of the cars was disturbed and a switch engine was quickly on hand from Council Bluffs to pull them away from the derailed engine. The "pony" pulled the train out across the river, when it was finally learned that No. 232 could not be put back on and used that night. Meanwhile another of the huge locomotives was being fired at the Bluffs, so when the train arrived it was all ready to take hold and pull out for the east. A crew of men with a wrecker continued to work with the derailed engine but the wrecker broke down and it was near midnight when the 170 tone of steel and iron were finally replaced and run back to the engine house in Council Bluffs. A party of Burlington civil engineers with a force of workmen from the engineering department of the Great Northern railway was at Pacific Junction, Ia., all day Thureday and Friday investigating for the location of a route for a proposed extension of the double track from Red Oak, Ia., westward. This is in accordance with the announced intention of this railroad to run its double track out to a point very near the Missouri river during 1902. It is thought that work will commence from Red Oak west soon.

TAX FROM PROCESS BUTTER Local Manufacturer Says It Will No.

Affect Farmer or Consumer.

The law governing the payment of tax on oleemargarine and process butter and reulring the payment of a license by manuacturers and dealers in the same will affect five manufacturers of process butter in Omaha and South Omaha.

These five factories have a combined capacity of 25,000 pounds daily and at this time are making about 25,000 pounds of butter a day. The law does not go into effect until July, when a tax of one-quarter of 1 cent a pound will be levied on all process butter, Omaha thus producing a possible revenue to the government of $87.50 per day. or $37,300 per annum, exclusive of the license paid by manufacturers and dealers. "The law will have little effect upon the market price, in my opinion," said W. E. Riddell, who is engaged in the business. The tax will be paid by the manufacturer and he will pay as high a price for farm butter as he does now, while the law of supply and demand will regulate the price at which he sells his product."

After some months of litigation Swift and Company has won its case wherein it was to build very probable estimates. Judge Munger's position as stated in court was that Homan had no cause of setion, as there was no contributory negligence on the part of the company existent, since Homan knew full well the danger he was undergoing. He was carrying a can of ammonia used in the refrigerating process at the packing house when the dangerous package, which was leaking, expladed and blew off various parts of Homan's spatemy.

High School Ball Players.

High School Ball Players.

The Omaha High school base ball team and the student body as well are in a fervor of excitement over the game this Saturday afternoon with the nine from the Lincoln High school which is to be played at the Ames avenue park.

Because of the continued rain the team was confined to indoor practice till Friday, being worked all the week in the cage in the basement of the High school building. Captain Fairbrother seized this chapte, however, to add some finishing touchea in stick work, so no great loss resulted.

This game is by far the most important of the season and there has been keen competition among the candidates for the team to see who shall play in the contest Saturday. Lowell, the sophomore, who will throw, says his arm is in fine shape and the boys are hopeful of winning, in which case they say they feel badly for the bell in the High school tower.

KITTREDGE HOLDS PAT HAND

South Dakota Senator Backed by Unanimous Delegation for Renomination.

'FIRST TERMERS" MAY FEEL AT EASE

Congressmen and State Executives Given Strong Endorsements by Republicans, but Other Places May Be Contested.

PIERRE, S. D., May 16 .- (Special.) -At the risk of being called down by those who claim that a news correspondent never knows what he is talking about in political matters a few statements will be made as to the present political situation of republican politics in South Dakota. Without attempting to "guess," the cold facts as they stand at present are that half the counties of the state with considerably over half the delegates to the coming convention, have held their conventions, and the voters of each and every one of such counties, with one lone exception, have either instructed their delegations or else to the present members of congress and the state administration. All the "first termers" should feel certain of being renominated if significance can be placed in the action of the county convention.

A total of 666 delegates out of 1,130 will be a strong enough following upon which not in any way instructed except for Senator Kittredge, but without this number those left are a majority of thirty-three of the convention, while the rest of the counties as they hold their conventions will probably all, or at least nearly all, take the same action as that which has been taken by nearly every county so far. Besides these endorsements for congress and for state officers every county without exception has given an endorsement and instructions for Senator Kittredge to succeed himself. If the endorsements given do not give a basis for saying that the present congressmen, the governor, the Heutenant governor and secretary of state will be renominated, what would be called reasonable prediction?

As to the rest of the ticket, neither Collins for treasurer, Halladay for auditor, nor Hall for attorney general have any opposition, and they can be looked upon as certain nominees.

The other places are that of commissioner of lands, superintendent of instruction and railroad commissioner. These places will be contested for and may go to any of the aspirants, but if surface indications mean anything whatever Bach will be selected for commissioner of lands and Smith for railroad commissioner, with even chances between Nash and Lange for superintendent of instruction.

The counties which are yet to hold their onventions are Campbell and Potter, May 16th; Custer, Douel, lin, Pennington and Sully, May 17; Brule, Buffalo, Clay, Fall River, Lake, Lyman, Marshall, Meade, Miner, Sanborn and Stanley, May 24; Charles, Mix, Codington and Jerauld, May 31.

MORAL SUPREMACY OF THE JEW Rev. Dr. Koehne Sketches Career of the Race Through Past Centuries.

John B. Koehne, D. D., delivered the first of a series of lectures on the "Place of Christ in History," at the First Congregaional church Thursday night, taking for his subject, "The Moral Supremacy of the Jewish Race.

The lecture was a comparison of the Jewish and other races of ancient times, following the history of the Jews down to more recent times. He demonstrated that the Jewish had been the race of religion and righteousness. "It is the race of liberty," said the speaker, "and when the young Jew said to Pharach, 'Let my people go free," out of that cry came American liberty. "In the Greek we have the noblest example of mind; in him we find the man who thinks, who reasons and who arrives at conclusions. The Jew states conclusions given the strongest possible endorsements and claims that conclusions were revealed to him. It is the only race that ever felt conscious of a mission; it is the only race that ever lived to serve humanity; it is the only race that ever came in contact with all men; it is the only race that ever produced a multitude of prophets who never contradicted each other.

"Every epoch unfolded in the history of the Jew is marked by some religious dogma. While we were making progress the Jew was making an upward movement-a God movement.

"During these latter days, when great things are being accomplished and we are taught to applaud the inventor and the builder, there is one who stands above all the rest-the Hebrew prophet. He began 1,000 years before Christ. Ahab was crowned monarch. He desecrated Jehovah's altar. Elijah came pleading against idolatry; a rebuke to kings, pleading He sung every nation to justice. prayer.

KANSAS CITY, May 16 .- A special to the limes from Keytesville, Mo., says: Harry Hawes, president of the St. Louis Board of Police Commissioners, Congressman W. W. The gambling is alleged to have occurred last summer during a fishing trip to the Grand river in Chariton county. Some of the farmers of the neighborhood observed that the outsiders were playing a game in which cards were used and complained to the officials that the fishermen had been gambling. This week the grand jury met and the information was laid before that body, which resulted in the indictments. Whether warrants have been issued for the defendants the prosecuting attorney has not

The inauguration ceremonies will be held in the palace at noon Tuesday. They will not be public and will be brief and formal. The judiciary of the island, the members of congress and the consular corps alone will witness the formal transfer of the government, which will consist in the handing over by Governor General Wood of a document prepared by the United States war department announcing the American relinquishment of the reins of government and the delivery of President Palma's inaugural address. Then will follow the public spectacle. Six hundred dismounted American troopers will salute the American flag as it is lowered and the Cuban flag as it is hoisted to the booming of artillery and the crash of Cuban bands stationed in the plaza at Morro castle and on the Malecon. General Wood, his staff and the cavalry will then be escorted by bands and a procession to the harbor, where they will immediately embark.
