ENTIRE BLOCK OF BUILDINGS BURNED

Trouble Arises When Officers Attempt to Arrest the Negroes Suspected of Assaulting Former Police Officer.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 17 .- Four white men and three negroes dead, five white men and one negro wounded, and an entire block of buildings burned is the result of a conflic which began here early today between the police and blacks. Will Richardson, who is believed to have been half Indian and half negro, the owner of a store on McDaniel street, in the suburb of Pittsburg, and four other negroes brought on the trouble by resisting arrest and defying the officers of Fulton county and Atlanta.

A sergeant stationed at Fort Mc-Pherson, who heard his cries for help, ran to the place and found Kerlin unconscious. At midnight County Policeman Golden heard that Kerlin's five assailants were located in a house on McDaniel street and hastened to the city and secured a warrant for their arrest from Justice Orr. in several patrol wagons. The officers to whom King had given himself up determined to make use of the negro, and at the point of a Winchester they forced him to walk up to the rear of the house and fire it. As soon as the flames were discovered the officers, in order to get the inmates of the house, stepped out of their shelter in every direction. Again there was a shot from the house and Officer Crabtree met death. An instant later there was a third shot and County

Policeman Robert Osburn fell dead.

Militia Ordered to Scene. Governor Candler, advised by telephone of the rioting, nastily ordered out the militis. Captain W. W. Barker of the Fifth regiment was ordered to proceed with fifty men and a platoon gun to the scene of the shooting and co-operate with the city authorities and the sheriff of Fulton county. Chief of Police Ball hurried to the scene on horseback and was joined a few minutes later by Sheriff Nelms. The desperado. W. T. Jackson, a street car conductor, was one of those who hurried to the scene. As he was nearing the house he was shot in the right hip, presumably by Richardson. A negro cabman, driving a spectator to the vicinity of the rioting, was hit in the hand by a bullet.

Call Officer Spradlin, speeding to the scene on his bicycle, received a wound in the arm. A main sewer which runs through this part of the city was utilized by two of the negroes as a possible means of escape, but to no avail. The crowd had increased until at least 3,000 people, 2,000 of whom were armed, surrounded the burning area. Soon from the mouth of the sewer Milton Rosby, a negro, was seen to emerge. A shout went up and the fleeing negro, who struck out over an adjacent lot, was being pursued. Shot after shot rang out and in a minute he fell dead. The pursuing party quickly surrounded him and filled his body with lead. He was literally shot to pieces. The crowd of enraged citizens had carcely finished this work when another negro was seen coming out of the sewer. He, too, made a run for life and managed to get into the backyard of a neighboring home, where, surrounded by several head of cattle and hoge, he was shot to frag-

The queen regent has sent the following letter to the premier, Senor Sagasta:

On terminating today the regency to which I was called by the constitution at a time of profound sadness and unexpected widowhood, I feel from the depths of my heart the necessity of expressing to the Spanish people my immense and unchanging gratitude for the proofs of affection and support which I have received from all classes of society.

If at that time I "oresaw that without the loyalty and confidence of the people I would be unable to fulfill my mission, today, in looking back on this period, the longest of all Spanish regencies, and recollecting the bitter trials which providence has spared us, I appreciate those virtues in all their magnitude, affirming that, thanks to them, the nation has been able to traverse such a profound crisis under conditions which augur an epoch of tranquil well being for the future.

Therefore, in handing to King Alfonso XIII the powers which I have exercised in his name, I am confident that all the Spaniards who are gathering around him will inspire him with the confidence and fortitude necessary to fulfill the hopes placed in him. That will be the most complete recompense for his mother, who, having devoted her life to the fulfillment of her duties, begs God to protect her son, in order that emulating the glories of his ancestors he may succeed in giving peace and proeperity to the noble people.

I wish to give to all Spaniards my expression of profound thanks, and the fervent wishes I make for the felicity of our beloved country.

SUSTAINS WISH OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Navy Yard Historian is Denounced as Dastard for Defaming Admiral Schley, Who is Genernlly Extolled.

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- The house spent the day in discussing the naval appropriation bill and the most important feature of the discussion involved a revival of the Sampson-Schley controversy. This arose over an amendment to the bill, which was presented by Mr. Mudd of Maryland and which was adopted, prohibiting the use of Maclay's history of the navy as a text book at the naval scademy. A number of minor amendments to the bill was adopted, but the consideration of the measure was not completed before the house adjourned.

Dayton Loses This Time Mr. Dayton of West Virginia made the usual point of order against the substitute smendment, but the chair held that the amendment was germane. Mr. Mudd having succeeded in getting this matter before the house, said that the president of the United States had stated to him that this work should never be used. In reply to a question of the fact that the president would hold over the next fiscal year, Mr. Mudd said that of the force. But for the timely arrival to the table and from there, addressing while Mr. Roosevelt was a very lively force at this time and promised to live out this term and be ready to take another, he wanted to guarantee against any contingencies.

Mr. Pearre of Maryland said he wanted to join his colleague in his unqualified admiration for that admirable American and great sea fighter, Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, Admiral Schley, he said, had borne with fine pattence the onslaughts of his defamers and, with it all, stood before the country as the real hero of Santiago. number of Kerlin's neighbors, including the procession was reformed and proceeded The wounds in the hull of the gallant Brooklyn testified which vessel had borne

Mr. Schirm of Maryland, in making his malden effort before the house, said that the unfortunate controversy between Sampson and Schley had not been forced by the friends of Admiral Schley; that truth had been perverted by Maclay. He had attempted to besmirch the record of one of the most illustrious naval officers of his time. Mr. Schirm characterized the act of Maclay as "dastardly" and he wanted the house to stand by the president, who had publicly announced that Maclay's history should find no place in the curriculum of the naval academy or in the ships' libraries. Mr. Cannon of Illinois remarked that he by a volley of shots, one of which killed wore the uniform of a captain general, dark did not believe that anybody in the house County Officer Battel. EASLEY LOOKS OVER GROUND Secretary of Civic Federation Confers with President Mitchell on Strike.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 17 .- The arrival here tonight of Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic federation, lends color to the reports which have been current for the past few days that the Civic federation is making an effort to terminate the anthracite coal miners' strike.

Mr. Easley reached this city from New York at 9:15 o'clock and repaired at once to the Valley hotel, where he met President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers, with whom he immediately went into conference behind closed doors. Secretary Easley stated that his visit was for the purpose of "looking over the ground.

Asked if he brought any message from Senator Hanna or any other member of the Civic federation, Mr. Easley replied in the negative and added that he was not acting in the capacity of a messenger, Despite Secretary Easley's reticence, however, his presence here at this time is regarded as significant from the fact that he spent part of yesterday in Washington in conference with Senator Hanna and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and ambassador of the National Civic federation.

No New Developments.

There were no developments here today in the anthracite miners' strike. No peace offers have been made by either and there is nothing on the surface to indicate that anything in the direction of a settlement will be done during the next few days. President Mitchell remained close to headquarters and spent a busy day going over matters principally taken up by a inference with the Illinois soft coal operators over a few disputed points in the Springfield (III.) bituminous district. The troller of the currency shows an average matter was finally disposed of, an agreement being reached which was satisfactory to both eides. The agreement was not made public, but it will run for another west at 9 o'clock tonight.

Presidents in Conference.

Nothing official was given out today regarding the calling out of the bituminous miners. It is understood, however, that the district presidents of the three anthracite districts are in communication with the presidents of the bituminous districts for the purpose of getting two of them to make up the five necessary to call a special national convention to consider the advisability of calling out the soft coal miners. This is believed to be a mere ginia districts will agree to the assembing of such a convention.

STATUS OF ROSEBUD BILL

House is Not Likely to Pass it with the Free Homes Provision.

MUST DEPEND ON CONFERENCE FOR THAT

Lomax Mackey of Omaha Gets His Discharge from the Navy on Account of Physical Disability. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, May 17 .- (Special Telegram.)-The legislative position of the bill to open the Rosebud reservation in South Dakota under the substitute offered in the house to the senate measure, gives the bill rather an interesting standing. Under the house substitute the bill does not contain the proposition for free homes which is embodied in the senate measure, but does contain a commutation provision, which the senate knocked out. Representative Burke, who has been actively interested in the measure, probably could have obtained a favorable report from the house committee on Indian affairs on the free homes feature of the senate bill, but it would have been at the expense of influential aupport. Chairman Sherman of the committee and Major Lacey of Iowa, two of the very strongest members of the committee, are opposed to free homes and should Mr. Burke insist upon carrying the free homes feature through by the aid of democratic votes he would have lost the support of the gentlemen named. A minority report would in all probability have been filed, which would have made it practically impossible to have secured consideration at the hands of the speaker. Under present conditions the chances are very much in favor of it receiving consideration, although that will depend largely on Mr. Sherman inducing the speaker to give the Indian committee a day for the consideration of bills which have been reported from that committee and are now on the calendar. Should consideration be given, which now seems probable, the bill opening the portion of the Rosebud agency in Gregory county, South Dakota, will undoubtedly pass the house, thereby getting into conference, where it is hoped that the free homes provision as passed by the senate will be adopted. Colonel Hepburn of the Eighth Iowa district has been active in behalf of George Van Houton of Lenox, Taylor county, late secretary of the Iowa Agricultural society. Yesterday Mr. Van Houton was appointed deputy collector of customs at Sitka,
