Mayor Morgan Allows Salcons to Remain Open Late for Their Benefit.

NORMAL TIMES MUST CLOSE AT TWELVE

Police to Give the Tip When the Necsanry Number of Strangers Are to the City to Warrant Keep. ing Late Hours.

Mayor Morgan has adopted what might be designated a sliding scale regulating the closing of saloons. When the city has its normal population and the census is not increased by the addition of a number of visitors within the corporate limits all saloons must close their doors at midnight. This order is being rigidly enforced and the police have strict orders to see that the ment the clock on the Bloomer school house tolls the midnight hour every saloon closes its doors promptly to the minute. This refers to the days when the city is not entertaining some convention or gathering, bringing numbers of visitors to town. On such occasions Mayor Morgan facis that the visitors should be entitled to all the courtesies possible and given every opportunity to slack their thirst if they happen to have one. With this end in view the chief executive has given orders that the saloons may keep open all night tf trade warrants it, but that there must be no disorder. The tip to this effect is quietly passed around to the saloon men by Chief Tibbits and the men under him. Saloon men are hoping that by the time the Manawa season opens the mayor will

Scandinavians Move Church

In order to avoid as far as possible further damage by the overflow of Indian creek, the congregation of the First Scandinavian church, on Avenue A and Ninth street, will change the site of its church, so that the building will face on Ninth street, instead of on Avenue A, as at present. Permission has been granted by the city council to the church officers to move the sidewalk on the west side of the property to the curb line and this will enable the lot to be terraced up so that it will be above high water mark. The parsonage will also be moved. to its close proximity to Indian creek, the church in past years has suffered considerable damage at times when the creek overflows its banks and floods the surrounding territory. The foundations of the church have more than once been partly washed out and the water has invaded the church, leaving a muddy deposit several inches thick on the floor.
