July opened a shade higher to unchanged at 74%74% to the and went up to 74% Kansas City was weak. In the last hour of business the bears took advantage of an apparent lack of energy in the wheat market and put on presure. Liquidation brought out some stop-loss orders; there was no export sup-port and prices slumped to a weak close, July %% a down, at 73% array to contract grade; Minneapolis and Dulpth reported 105 cars, making a total for the three points of 116 cars, against 109 last week and 250 bushels, compared with 25%,000 bushels last year. Seaboard clearances jin wheat and four equaled 374,000 bushes, against 654,000 bushels last week. Corn ruled the strongest of the pits until wheat broke. Country offerings were smaller and cash business was good. Trade early was active and there was fair trevest in the market was very small, al-though the southwest sent in some builish reports on the cash situation. ......  calitie here this morning, but still the re-celpts for the week are a little in excess of last week, but there is not much differ-ence as compared with the same week of last year. About the same conditions pre-valled on the market as yesterday, that is, good stuff sold at strong prices, but com-mon kinds were neglected. There was about the usual proportion of beef steers included in the offerings this morning, and the quality was good. As high as $7.30 was paid this morning for several bunches, as will be seen from the sales below. The demand for the good to choice grades was quite active and every-thing answering to that description was disposed of in good season at steady to strong prices. The common kinds did not move as readily and did not bring in most cases over steady prices. Everything, though, was disposed of in good season. There were only a few cows and helfers on sale this morning, and the same as was the case with beef steers, the botter grades were in active demand at steady to strong prices. A bunch sold as high as $5.50 but they were of good quality. There did not seem to be much of any improvement in the demand or the prices and for the com-mon to medium cattle. As a general thing they sold in just about yesterday's prices. Buils, veal calves and stags allso sold freely at fully steady prices where the quality was good, but common stuff was more or less neglected. There were very few stockers and feed-ers in the yards today, and anything oe-strable sold at good, steady prices. As the end of the week is at hand buyers were more cautious than usual about tak-ing the common stuff. Yesterday there were about 15 cars of feeders shipped to the country.
