PRESIDENT SEXTON IS HERE Talks of Success of Western League Clubs-Omaha Team Too

Strong. M. H. Sexton of Rock Island, Ill., president of the Western league, was in Omaha

Friday in conference with Manager Rourke and Burns. The latter preceded his Colorado Springs team into Omaha, it arriving at 11:25 a. m. from Des Moines. Mr. Sexton is highly elated at the progress of the Western league thus far and speaks in confidence of the ultimate outcome. Said he: "I suppose you have noticed that we are not drawing very heavily at Kansas City or

Milwaukee, but we are running close to the others all the time, and as long as we do that we are satisfied. Meanwhile our other ities are at the apex of prosperity. Even at Des Moines, where the team has been meeting defeat so regularly, the support is still loyal and strong, and its faith will no e tested any stronger, as Des Moines will today be strengthened by a new pitcher, a third baseman and a first baseman. They will pull up now.

"Peoria, St. Joseph, Colorado Springs and Denver speak for themselves. They are all on the high wave of success. Meanwhile here in Omaha you can rest on your oars. The only trouble is that I am afraid your team is too good. If you keep on like this we'll have to hobble you."

DOUBLE EVENT AT CREIGHTON Saturday morning and evening. Warsity Field to Be the Scene of

Pair of Red Hot Ball Games.

Creighton university field will be the scene of the biggest collegiate base ball event that has ever occurred in Omaha this afternoon. Not only will Creighton engage with Nebraska in a state champlonship contest, but there will also be a ondary struggle of no mean proportion. At 2 o'clock the Omaha Field club will engage the crack C. B. Havens team, which Manager Fred Nash has gathered together. Then at 3:30 o'clock Count John A. Creighton will begin the championship game by throwing the first ball over the plate into Captain O'Keefe's mitt.

The Creighton management has made great preparations for this contest. Addi- Six delegates will attend from this division people, have been built and special reserve weats have been engaged for the various the convention. society and-convent bodies that attend the
