Inhabitants of Martinique Are Seeking Safety in Other Localities.

Sky is Again Clear at Fort de France but Change Does Not Allay the Fears of the Citikens.

FORT DE FRANCE, Island of Martinique, Thursday, May 22 -- At 5 o'clock this afternoon the sky was clear and the population was calm, but despite this favorable change in the situation many families left Fort de France by the French vessels Versailles and the Ville de Tanger for the Island of This, with the 1,200 persons who have gone to the Island of Guadeloupe, and many others who have sought refuse at St Lucia and other islands, has lessened the population considerably. Besides these some 2,000 penple have left for the southern parts of the island of Martinique, where 3,000 refugees have now assembled.

The desertion of Fort de France has resulted in the disorganization of many trades. A number of bakers have been compelled to close their stores, owing to the fact that their employes are among those who have

The French cruiser Tage, having Admiral Sevan on board, afrival this evening. It reported that Mount Pelce now presents more assuring aspect. The clouds of amoke leaving the crater mingle with the clouds in the sky and do not have the threatening look they formerly had. The crater has formed in the vicinity of Adjoupa Bouillon. A locality known as Camae Trianon is causing a good deal of anxiety at present. The Capote is running with hot water.

The French cruiser d'Assas has arrived here from Brest, having on board the French government relief and large sums of money and provisions. A torrential downpour of rain in the morning washed off the ashes from the vegetation on the mountain. The United States steamer Potomac made its usual trip to St. Pierre today with another party of scientists. It found the conditions there unchanged from yesterday. The top of the mountain was clearly visible for a considerable time. Captain McLean of the United States cruiser Cincinnati, who has carefully observed Mont Peles, agrees with other experts in reporting that a new crater has been formed below the old one.

In the new crater there is a great cinder cone, more than 100 feet high, from which steam and volcanic matter is constantly pouring. It is now the unanimous opinion of the scientists that this is an explosive volcano, no real lava or moga rock material having been emitted, only mud, steam, gases and fragments of the old crater beds. The scientists compare the mountain's outthrow to the steam of a boiler in which the pressure rises to bursting point, and they think it possible that a more violent outbreak

They remark that the explosions have occurred at progressively longer intervals and that they also have been progressively more violent. Thus there has been three light eruptions of ashes.

On May 5 there was an overflow of mud which caused the destruction of the Usine Guerin; on May 8 there was the outburst which destroyed St. Pierre, and on May 20, or after an interval of twelve days, the last, tremendous outburst occurred. A new period of rest is now on, and one of two confined for a still longer period, and to Lemars to reside, explode with greater violence, apreading destruction over a vast area, or the mountain may remain quiescent for another half

PARIS. May 23 .- A dispatch received here from the governor of Martinique, M. l'Heuerr, yesterday reads as follows:

I have consulted with the consuls of the colony on the subject of total or partial evacuation of the island. They are unanimous in declaring that such a measure is not justifiable at present. A transatiantic line steamship, now undergoing repairs hers, might be-utilized to transport those who are desirous of emigrating. About 1,000 persons are leaving by the steamer Versaliles and others are sailing on the Ville de Tanger for Trinidad and Cayenne. There have been no new fatalities.

The French cruiser Tage left New Or leans May II with money and supplies for the Martinique sufferers, contributed by the citizens of New Orleans.

The large exportation of flour from the United States to the Orient he thought had misled people to believing that we could establish there a large trade. This was an idle dream. He believed it would be but a short time until the wheat needed by China would be raised by Chinese.

Fears Land Monopoly.

Mr. Dubois described that feature of the bill which permitted corporations to take up 5,000 acres of land in the Philippines ought to be stricken out; he believed that under it the richest lands would ultimately fall into the hands of great syndicates, thus encouraging a tremendous production of sugar, cotton and tobacco.

The total trade of the United States with the Philippine islands he said was about $5,000,000 a year. We had spent more money in the Philippines war than all the trade of the Islands with the United States would amount to in a 150 years, and every day we remained in the islands our loss would be increased.

Mr Beveridge declared that the whole arrument of the Idaho senator had been made for the purpose of frightening the Ameri can people with the dragon of China. Mr. Dubois had maintained that when China had adopted modern methods in the development of its resources it would supply not only its own needs, but those of the world. If it were true, Mr. Beveridge held, then it would be true that the United states ought not to encourage the development of any country. He urged that that was not true.

Japan had had recently a most wonderful development and along with that development our exports had increased from $3,000,000 a year to more than $29,000,000 a year. This would be true of China. The exports to China from outside countries amounted to about $250,000,000 a year and he believed that it would be possible easily for the United States to secure one-half of that trade. The Philippines, he maintained, were a door to Chinese trade.

CHANGING SOME OLD RULES President and Secretary Root Issue Orders Creating Innovation in War Department.

WASHINGTON, May 23 .- The president has revoked the old executive order of August 29, 1901, by which the lieutenant general commanding the army (General Miles) and the adjutant general (General Corbin) in turn are to assume the duties of secretary of war in the absence of the accretary and assistant secretary.

The president's order of revocation, which is dated yesterday, leaves the department without a head in the absence of the secre tary and assistant secretary until such head is specifically designated on each oc-

Both the secretary and asistant secretary were absent today, but Secretary Root, before he left this morning, issued a special order designating his chief clerk, John C. Schofield, "to sign requisitions upon the treasury and other papers requiring my signature during my temporary absence from Washington on the 23d of May, 1902, and until my return, or until the return of the assistant secretary of war." It is presumed that similar special orders will be made designating Mr. Schofield to perform these duties whenever the secretary and assistant secretary are ab sent in the future. Secretary Root has issued an order which revives an old order of January 18, 1886, providing that in the absence of the head of a bureau, the senior officer of the department or corps on duty in the bureau shall assume temporary charge. The significance of the order lies in the limitation on duty in the bureau." Under the application of this limitation no officer on duty outside of the bureau could assume charge, as does Colonal Ward of General Miles' headquarters in the case of the adjutant general's office, but General Corbin's duties would ordinarily be assumed by Colonel Carter.

Ing:

Three of my brothers, Lorenzo, Cipriano and Manuel Lopez, are prisoners in the island of Talim; all the property of my family has been seized and we are almost destitute. Against two of my brothers there is no definite charges, nor have any of them been allowed even a court-martial. My other brother, Cipriano, is accused, without evidence, of having concealed fifty guns when he surrendered with his troops in March, 1901. Moreover, four of the superintendents of our estates have been arrested and have been inhumanly punished to make them give up these supposed guns. My family has always been friendly with the American officers, my oldest brother, Marisno, having rendered valuable service in pacifying several provinces, and our town of Balayan is the only permanently pacified town in the province of Batangas. The authorities in the Philippines have refused to hear us, and, therefore, because of such great injustice I have come directly to you, Mr. President, to beg of you to give us justice.

She says that when the superintendents of the estates were arrested they were cruelly beaten, one of them dying as a result of the blows inflicted by the soldiers.

Among the papers is a report on the case by Charles E. Magoon, law officer of the division of the insular affairs of the Philippines of the War department, who recom mended that the petition be not granted for the following reasons:

 That under the conditions existing in Batangas province in December, 1901, Brig-adier General Bell, in the instance under consideration, exercised a lawful authority in a lawful manner.

2 That the showing made by the papers filed herein is not sufficient to overthrow the presumption that the action taken by the authorities in Batangas was warranted by the facts and the necessities of the military situation. The president's position in the matter i

WOMEN SHOULD BE CAREFUL . NOT TO OVERDOTH EMBELVES.

The Experience of Mrs. Prasak, Wife of the Town Clerk of Mil-lersville, Minnesota.

The woman with the responsibility of a house and family on her shoulders has always been given to everdoing berself. As a result almost every day we hear of one breaking down. Her perves have given way or her strength has failed. Such was the experience of Mrs. Prazak, wife of J. M. Prazak, town clerk of Millersville, Douglas Co., Minn. She says:

"I had been sewing h great deal and it was too much for me. Between that and my other household duties I began to be very nervous. I had no appetite and there was a feeling of heaviness around my heart so had at times that it seemed as if I couldn't get any air. I was so nervous always that any little thing would upset me. Nothing that I could do gave me any relief and it became so bad that I was obliged to neglect my housework. I had nervous prostration.

"Some time in March, after I had been suffering for several months. I happened to get a book that gave the statements of people who had suffered complaints similar to mine and had been cured by Dr. William's Pink Pills for Pale People. I thought that if Pink Pills had done so much good in other cases they migh thenefit me also, and I began taking them. I felt a little better and that made me willing to give them a thorough trial, took the pills regularly for two months and by that time my health was completely

"I am glad of this change to tell how easily and thoroughly I was cured by Pink Pills for Pale People. I keep them in the house all the time and strongly ecommend them to all who are afflicted as I was."

The pills which cured Mrs. Prazak act directly on the blood and nerves and in that are different from any other medicine They cure locomotor staxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciata, neuralgia, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female.
