

OWEN SCORES A WHITWASH

GILT-EDGED PITCHING NICELY SUPPORTED

Money-Burners Unable to Do Anything with Bourke's Offerings, While Rangers All Bat Well.

While Patcher Owen was demonstrating that "Podge" Alloway is not the only Omaha twirler who can hold the Millionaires to three hits, seven other Bourke Rangers were juggling on the bats the most deceptive efforts of McKeely, the star thrower of the visiting team, and landing them gently just out of reach of the wearers whenever they pleased. The result was that another shutout was administered to Colorado Springs at Vinton Street park Monday and this last game of the series, with its score of 8 to 0, illustrated more convincingly than ever the disparity between the two teams.

Aside from Omaha's fusillade of timely and effective hits and the readiness with which the Rangers fielded any kind of plays from doubles down the game was devoid of unusual features on the Gate City side as far as game play was concerned. The boys simply waded in and batted out a victory in the first inning, and then took it easy, never playing loose ball, however.

Omaha's End of the Game.

But Owen's playing was really of the double asterisk order, as was his fielding. Side by side with him stand Stone and Dolan for their magnificent batting. Stone with a double in the first brought in the leading and winning run, and another made three hits out of three times up, also a pretty sacrifice in the ninth, baiting 1000 per cent for the day, and getting a fresh hold on the league batting championship. Dolan made three beautiful singles, two of them scoring runs. Carter and Genies hit safety twice each, the latter one of three times up. It seemed that none of those four could help slaughtering the swift scowls offered by the best twirler the Millionaires can boast, and a mighty good one, too. Again, Thomas caught a very creditable game.

There is no game today, but Des Moines comes Wednesday, and with the arrival of the Jowara ladies' day is announced, when the fans appear on that occasion they will find 1,000 more seats in the west bleachers and a row of boxes decorating the front of the grandstand. Wagons of lumber began arriving even before Monday's game was over, and the only real sensation of the afternoon was caused by a driver from the lumber yard trying to run his pair of Percheron draft horses and his open Studebaker over Calhoun at first base on the gallop. Attendance, 1,000. Score:

Stock Yards Kids Are Strong.

The Union Stockyards Kids went out to Ames Avenue park today to try conclusions with some of the senior team of the Young Men's Christian association. The boys expected defeat, but with lots of nerve they waded in and when it was all over it looked like 12 to 1 in their favor. The boys put up a fast game, making but one error. Adams' curves were puzzlers, Caughy's hit-and-run was noticeable feature. The association men were lined up for the first time this season and showed a lack of practice. Score:

Highland Park is Busted.

OTTAWA, Kan., May 26.—(Special Telegram)—The Highland Park team from Des Moines was defeated by the local team today. The game was a brilliant one with errors and chewing the rag. Both teams made errors and Clark, Iowa's pitcher, is responsible for the aggregate. He got angry with the men of his own team and started to leave the field. He was persuaded to return by his manager. Fogleberg pitched his best game, struck out blood, Peterson, King and Thompson led in the batting. Score:

HARRY NEW WINS LATONIA

Ellison's Colt Takes First Place in the Derby Without Trouble.

CINCINNATI, May 26.—Harry New, from the stable of C. R. Ellison, won the Latonia Derby today in easy fashion, leading a crowd of 10,000 persons. South Trumble, favorite in the betting, coupled with Martin Burke as an entry, finished a poor last. The closing price of the water was $10.10, although at one time during the betting he was as good as lost. There was a big play on Harry New and all the books quit lower to the race.

The Derby was devoid of any sensational features. Ott, who rode the winner, allowed his mount to lag along in third position till the stretch was reached, and with a little urging the colt came away from the others and won by five open lengths.

South Trumble and the place handily. Abe Frank made a bid for the money at the head of the stretch, but the heavy money seemed to tell on his speed and he dropped back steadily in the end. Bob Baker, the trainer of South Trumble, thinks that the horse lost because Jockey Buchanan waited too long to make his run. The favorite was last when the stretch turn was reached and the horse was not equal to the task of overtaking the leader when called upon to do so.

The winner of the race is a black colt by Imp. Pirate st. Pennance-Barcelona, and has been racing all season in the colors of Hope Landman, the bookmaker.

Starter Dwyer's work with the flag was perfect. Charles F. Price presided in the thorough making it received during the last few days, was in fairly good condition as good as new. There was a big play on Harry New and all the books quit lower to the race.

The Yankee's In Europe! Frank G. Carpenter to Investigate the Great American Peril. HE WILL SHOW WHAT AMERICA IS DOING AND WHAT IT CAN DO—LIVE LETTERS OF HUMAN INTEREST ABOUT ENGLAND, FRANCE, GERMANY, RUSSIA AND OTHER COUNTRIES OF CONTINENTAL EUROPE.

PROSPECTUS. Beginning in June The Bee will publish a remarkable series of illustrated letters from Frank G. Carpenter on what the Yankees are doing in Europe and on the changes which are going on in that continent. The old Europe is fast passing away and a new country and people are taking its place.

ENGLAND. In England for instance, he will tell how Uncle Sam has spoon-fed John Bull to keep him alive, how he sleeps him between cotton sheets at night and how by means of his new electrical machinery he is preparing to carry him to work on our modern street cars. He will show how England's cold bids fair to give out and how we eventually must keep our British coasts warm.

GERMANY. In German Mr. Carpenter will investigate the condition of the American Hog and show how the farmers, but the rich land holders are fighting against its importation. He will describe how Germany is trying to capture the Ocean by building the best and fastest ships now afloat, and will make one letter on Kaiser Wilhelm as the Great International Drummer who is pushing Germany's trade and business in every way.

RUSSIA. Mr. Carpenter's letters from Russia cannot but be of the greatest interest. The Russian next to the Americans are the coming people of the world of the future. Mr. Carpenter will visit the capital, St. Petersburg and give letters about the young Czar and his government. He will investigate for us the changes which are going on in industrial Russia and will open up a new view of the enormous public works now building. The Trans-Siberian Railroad is only one of those. Russia has canal and other undertakings in hand which are even more wonderful.

NETHERLANDS. The Yankee in Holland and Belgium will furnish good material. With Mr. Carpenter we shall see how our cotton and wheat are used in the land of "Dykes and Windmills" and learn whether our steel cannot make a foot hold in the beehive of Europe, known as Belgium. FRANCE. In his tour of France Mr. Carpenter will include the silk city of Lyons, where thirty millions of dollars worth of silks and velvets are made every year. He will show how our silk mills are fast crowding those of Europe and give Uncle Sam some points as to how to make his daughter's clothes.
