Carlow Barth and a Barth and a start and a HE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE. EDITORIAL SHEET. PAGES 13 TO 24. A REAL PROPERTY AND A REAL ESTABLISHED JUNE 19, 1871. OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1902-TWENTY-FOUR PAGES. SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS. Attend Our Famous onday in the Bargain Room 30 Minute Sales

We have prepared for the greatest sale of DRY GOODS this city has ever known-having bought the entire summer stock of a Providence, R. I. mill, together with the four stocks purchased from St. Joe. Mo., we have added 50,000 yards from one of our Omaha jobbers. This gives us over 200,000 yards of fine foreign and domestic wash goods-all this season's best styles and colorings-all the sheer and delicate tints, all the black and whites, all the linen and other colors. This is unquestionably the largest lot that ever came into Omaha at one time-twice as much as any other store west of Chicago could handle, that is why our low spot cash offer was accepted-and here we may remark that never before, to our knowledge, so early in the season, has such a choice lot of wash fabrics, silks and dress goods been placed on this market at July and even August cut prices-AND WE DEFY ANY OTHER HOUSE ON THE CONTINENT TO COME ANYWHERE NEAR MEETING THE FOLLOWING PRICES ON THIS SAME CLASS OF MATERIALS.

No Peddlers, Dealers or Manufacturers Sold to in this Room.
