LONDON. May 31 .- Those in touch with royal circles are busy gossiping about the reported tiff between Lord Salisbury and King Edward, which is said to have arisen on account of the king's demand that the premier recommend Sir Ernest Cassel for s peerage. Last year the same request met with a refusal. This year it was again urged by the king on the ground of Sir Ernest's munificent gift of £200,000 toward the cure of consumption. The premier absolutely refused to coun tenance the suggestion, and at the end of a stormy interview which occurred the day the state dinner was held at Buckingham palace Lord Salisbury remarked: "Well, sir, I suppose I had better leave my place at tonight's banquet vacant?" to ing parties being present. which the king ts said to have replied: 'Yes, I think you had," and stalked out of the room. Since then, according to court gossip, King Edward and his aged prime ninister have scarcely been on speaking terms.

Another incident which is causing considerable commotion in royal circles is the disagreement between King Edward and the duchess of Buccleuch, a member of the old-style, exclusive aristocracy, who has not countenanced the so-called "smart The king was to dine with the duke and duchese of Buccleuch and intimated his desire that a lady of his surrounding be invited. This is usually tantamount to a command, but the duchess of Euccleuch, nothing daunted, refused point blank to ask the king's friend to make one of the dinner party,

His majesty was furious and threatens to cancel his promise to dine with the Buccleuchs, whereat the duchess of Buccleuch retorted that she was quite willing to send her resignation as mistress of the robes to Queen Alexandra. Later in the day the king thought better of it, informed the Buccleughs that he accepted the exclusion of his favorite, and forbade the duchess to resign

Crisis Expected on Monday. WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 31.-There is every reason to believe that the pump runners will respond with practical unanimity next Monday to President Mitchell's order to strike, unless granted an eight-hour work day and other conditions prescribed by the Shamokin convention.

That the operators do not propose to yield is evidenced by the big fences and barbed wire which they have placed around the collieries. Hundreds of extra coal and iron policemen have been employed, armed principally with revolvers.

PITTSTON, Pa., May 31 .- The Erie Railroad company today brought a trainload of cots, bedding and provisions here and distributed them at the various collieries located in and around this city. Several colored cooks accompanied the goods and a number of strange men also appeared. Mr. Sargent further said that the arbitration board is making every effort to avert such a calamity.
