BRYAN NAMED FOR GOVERNOR candidate with a sufficient amount of money. If Mr. Bryan should be elected he would carry the balance of the ticket to victory, and the young state of which we are all proud would be thoroughly redemed. Mr. Bryan would then be placed in a position to defeat the attempts of the reorganizers of the democratic party to control the nomination for the presidency in 1904. If he should be defeated we would know that we had a fair test of political strength and would understand "where we are at."

Has Not Seen the Editorial Endorsing

His Candidney, but Says He is Not an Aspirant for the Piace.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 31 .- (Special.)-When interviewed this afternoon regarding the editorial in the Madison Mail favoring him for governor, W. J. Bryan said:

"I am not a candidate and don't intend to be. I haven't seen the editorial notice in the Mail, but I can say anyway that I am not a candidate for governor." Several prominent democrats in this city, and among them are some of Mr. Bryan's erry close friends, are striving to bring about Mr. Bryan's nomination, notwithstanding his declaration that he is not a candidate. One of them said: "It is very evident that Mr. Bryan does not aspire to the nomination, but if the democrats and the populists in the conventions in Grand Island say they want him to take up the fight he can't very well refuse. An effort is being made by a few democrats along this line and, while it would be folly now to predict his nomination, it is very reasonable to say that it is not impossible.

In the latest issue of his paper, the Madison Mail, William Vincent Allen expresses his advocacy of Mr. Bryan's gubernatorial candidacy in the following language:

A very careful study of the political situation satisfies us that the only really wise thing to be done by the fusionists in to nominate Hon. William J. Bryan for governor and redeem the state from republican misrule. Without the slightest disparagement of other gentlemen who have announced their willingness to make the race, all of whom are well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, the Mall is satisfied that wisdom and prudence demand that the democrats and populists unanimously tender the nomination to Mr. Bryan and insist on his acceptance.

Notwithstanding his defeat in 1900, he is by iong odds the atrongest man in the state. His personal magnetism exceeds that of any other gentleman who could be nominated, and his name would create greater enthusiasm and bring to the polis more democrats and populists than the name of any other candidate whom we have heard named.

The Mail sees no force in the argument that the republicans will flood the state with money to defeat Mr. Bryan. If they can defeat a weaker candidate with a less sum of money, and they can defeat any
