Audubon Republican: One of the best posted men in this section of the state, a man of mature years, a capitalist who has made his money by the exercise of his own good judgment and fortunate investments, recently stated to us his opinion that Iowa land at present prices is an excellent investment. The population of this country is gradually but steadily increasing. America has passed the point when it is only an agricultural country and is becoming a great manufacturing nation. Our manufactured goods have entered the markets of the far away countries of all the world and are successfully competing with the manufactures of other countries. This class of trade has gone forward the last few years by leaps and bounds. The balance of trade is recently tremendously in our favor. All this calls for bigger American cities, bigger American markets for our farm products, and they in turn push up the price of good farm land. The Spanish war seemed to break over the old channels of trade to some extent and to bring the American nation into world notice, pushing forward its business. Then the area of good corn land is limited. All these things make our friend think good lows land has not yet nearly reached the permanent figure.

Jasper Held Liable for Certificates Issued by Newton-Murderer Busse Will Appeal-Child Killed in a Runaway.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 1 .- (Special.) - The upreme court yesterday affirmed the ruling of the lower court in the Emma Holman case against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company in which a verdict of $12,000 damages was rendered in the court in Council Bluffs.

Plaintiff had sued for damages for infuries sustained because the company had stopped an electric car suddenly, throwing her against a railing and causing injuries from which she died. Pending the appeal the plaintiff has died and the administrator of the estate has been substituted. Appeal was on the ground that the action was not commenced until after the limit, but it was shown that Superintendent Dimmock had waived the statute of limitations when he had a right to do it and it was binding on the company, and hence the verdict for $12,-000 is not disturbed.

A verdict of $1,500 in a libel suit from this county was also affirmed. Henry Wallace, former editor of the Homestead, had obtained judgment against the Homestead for damages for libel which was printed while their various newspaper quarrels were hot.

AMERICANS LIKE Washington Sentiment is Favorable Toward Him as Successor to Late

WASHINGTON, June 1 .- The question of the succession to the place in the British embassy here vacated by the death of Lord Pauncefote is attracting attention in official circles to an unprecedented degree. It is the custom of governments before such appointments to consult the government to which the ambassador is to be accredited before making a selection, in order to insure a favorable reception of the appointee. In the present case there has not been the slightest hint or suggestion to indicate the purpose of the British government. This fact is explained by the statement that the Foreign office officials had such favorable news of the condition of the late ambassador up to the very moment of his death that they had not felt it necessary to even contemplate the selection of a successor.

In this state of affairs the officials here are obliged to look entirely to the news dispatches from London for indications of the personality of the new ambassador.

The names of the persons mentioned in the Associated Press dispatches of last night are all favorably received by the officials here who are acquainted with them either personally or through their records in the British diplomatic service and it may be stated on the highest authority that the president will cheerfully receive any one of them as persona grata.

The weight of opinion here sustains the judgment expressed in the London dispatches that Michael Herbert, now secretary and minister at Paris, will receive the appointment as Lord Pauncefote's successor, although the field is still regarded as

DECIDE TO BOLT STRIKERS Engineers, Firemen and Pumpmen at Scranton Refuse to Quit

Work. WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 1 .- President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers returned to this city today after a week's absence in the west. Mr. Mitchell said his trip to the west had nothing to do with bringing about a settlement of the strike in the anthracite region.

The engineers, firemen and pumpmen from Ashley and vicinity held a meeting in this city today and a resolution endorsing the strike was adopted by a two-thirds vote. At a meeting of the engineers, firemen and pumpmen employed at the collieries in Plymouth this afternoon the strike order was endorsed by a vote of ninety-two to nothing.

All the hotels in the city are filling up with strange men. Many of them are said to be machinists having knowledge of all kinds of machinery. The operators claim they are prepared in case all the engineers, firemen and pumpmen should go out to fill their places with competent men.

A committee representing the 400 engineers firemen and numpmen of the Lackawanna region, who are opposed to a strike came to Wilkesbarre tonight to endeavor to have the strike order rescinded. The committee met President Mitchell and District Presidents Nichols, Fahey and Duffy. After a lengthy conference, in which the committrial and have the sentence changed to a tee presented its reasons for asking to have the order rescinded, the United Mine Workers' leaders decided unanimously that the order must stand. Carpenter on what the Yankess are doing in Europe and on the changes which are going on in that continent. The old Europe is fast passing away and a new country and people are taking its place. Trade conditions are rapidly changing. The people are shaking off their Rip Van Winkle sleep of ages, and beginning to realise that the American Glant of the West has girded his loins and is ready to fight with them for all that is worth haven.

has girded his loins and is ready to fight with them for all that is worth having of this world and this world's goods. The fight indeed has already begun, and even at its starting it is in the favor of the West. The greatest countries of Europe are attempting to combat it. Their parliaments already refer to it as "The American Invasion," the Emperor of Germany has called it the "Great American Perli," and the Boards of Trade and Manufacturers of England stand aghast at the prospect. In Great Britain, Germany, France, Russia, Holland and Belgium as well as in the other countries of Continental Europe, this increase of American com-merce is steadily going on. The Yankee Exporter has put on the Seven League Boots of the Twentieth Century, and he is going forth like an electrical dynamo in breeches. He is just now at the beginning of his journey and those who know him best are sure he will not stop until he has distanced all others on the great race track of the world. To describe the new conditions and the thousand and one changes caused by it Mr. Carpenter has planned an extensive tour of the United Kingdom and the Continent. He is now in England and later on will visit Russia, Germany, France and other countries in the interest of our readers.

ENGLAND

In England for instance, he will tell how Uncle Sam has to between cotton sheets at night and how by means of his new electrical machinery he is preparing to carry him to work on our modern street cars. He will show how England's coal bids fair to give out and how we eventually must keep our British cousins warm. The New London, the gigantic matropolls of the world as a trade cyster for the American to open will be pictured and a comparison of the big trusts of the "Tight Little Island" and those of our country be made.

In German Mr. Carpenter will investigate the condition of the American Hog and show how not the farmers, but the rich land holders are fighting against its importation. He will describe how Germany is trying to capture the Ocean by building the best and fastest ships now affeat, and will make one letter on Kaiser Wilhelm as the Great International Drummer who is pushing Germany's trade and business in every way. He will picture Berlin as it is in this year 1802, and traveling over eastern and western Germany will compare their laborers with our workmen and describe the wonderful technical schools which the Emperor has instituted to aid him in making the commercial conquest of the world.

RUSSIA

Mr. Carpenter's letters from Russia cannot but be of the greatest interest. The Russians next to the Americans are the coming people of the world of the future. Mr. Carpenter will visit the capital, St. Petersburg and give letters about the young Caar and his government. He will investigate for us the changes which are going on in Industrial Russia and will open up a new view of the enormous public works now building. The Trans-Siberian Railroad is only one of these. Russia has canal and other undertakings in hand which are even more wonderful. Russia is already a great manufacturing country and expects to have a great share in the markets of both Europe and Asia in the future.

The Russians are now buying millions of dollar's worth of American goods Mr. Carpenter will tell how these are handled and show you how millions more the great free port of Continental Europe, and its vast trade with the United the Rhine will be described. Its factories, rather than its castles will form the material of Mr. Carpenten's letters and he will carry us along on boats loaded with American meat, wheat and cotton rather than on the American meat, wheat and cotton rather than spents pleasure steamers of that famous river. Northern and Southern Germany will give many out of the way letters and He States will be especially interesting.

The Yankee in Holland and Belgium will furnish good material. With Mr. Carpenter we shall see how our cotton and wheat are used in the hand of "Dykes and Windmills" and learn whether our steel cannot make a foot hold in the beshive of Europe.

In his tour of France Mr. Curpenter will include the silk city of Lyons, where thirty millions of dollars worth of silks and velvets are made every year. He will show how our own silk-mills are fast crowding those of Durope and give Uncia Sam so points as to how to make his daughter's clothes.

been well proven. In addition to having visited every part of his own country, he has scaloped South America, has girdled the Pacific ocean from the Aleutian Islands to Van Dieman's Land, and has made three trips to Asia to de-scribe changes and conditions of that continent. Siam and Java, Burmah and India, Egypt and the Holy Land, Turkey and Greece are well known to him and in this trip to Europe he goes to lands which he has visited many times in the past and which he is now able to describe in the new and changing conditions evoletters will not be confined altogether to commercial subjects. They will take all matters of human interest along the lines of modern progress and will be so written that they will interest, not only the labour and the capitalist, but every man, woman and child who wishes to keep abreast of and to know what is going on in the world of today. They will cover such a wide range that they
