

ATTACKS HIS ORDER'S PLAN

Head Consul Northcott Says Modern Woodmen Are Wrong

ADVOCATES STEP RATE ASSESSMENTS

Mass Meeting of Omaha Neighbors Listen to Order's Chief Tell Them His Conclusions on Insurance

Head Consul W. A. Northcott of the Modern Woodmen of America has made a pilgrimage to Omaha and in a speech at the Creighton-Orpheum Thursday chopped a few chips out of the present plan of assessment of that order and blamed the way for a change.

In addition to the address of the head consul, members of the local camps rendered a musical and literary program which was not only enjoyable but was creditable. Those who took part in this were William Dodson, Jay Northcott, a quartet composed of R. Sutherland, J. H. Smith, T. L. Broadhurst, and E. G. Rozelle; George A. Magney and Nelson C. Pratt who acted as master of ceremonies.

Mr. Magney welcomed the head consul in an eulogistic talk of the work he had done for the order and he did not fail to throw a few spears at what the order has done for itself in the west.

Mr. Northcott was introduced by Nelson C. Pratt and during the course of his remarks took occasion to say that Omaha is the second largest center for Modern Woodmen in the world and that in Nebraska fewer members have been in proportion to membership than in any other state.

Theory of Head Consul. After speaking of the wonderful growth of the order, especially during the last five years, Mr. Northcott launched into a discussion as to why the present plan of assessment should be changed.

"After twelve years of experience with our society," he said, "I have come to the conclusion that our plan is not sufficient and that it will bring us trouble in a very few years, and I believe that some remedy must be adopted to preserve this order."

Continuing Mr. Northcott stated that at the present time the younger members of the order were paying more than the actual cost of their insurance and the older members less than the actual cost. "Up to the present," he said, "our deficiency has been paid by the younger members, and it has not been a burden to them. But our cost is bound to increase, and then the cost to the young man will become a burden. He will become dissatisfied at the increased assessment, and will seek some younger society. It will not be possible to secure enough young members to meet the deficiencies as they accrue with the increased age of our members."

From tables prepared by the committee Mr. Northcott showed that each member of the order paid for his insurance and what the order lost or gained by the difference in the actual cost of the insurance. He spoke of the several lodges that had been compelled to change their plan of assessment from those similar to the plan of the Woodmen to one that placed the order in a reserve fund and the assessment of a member according to his age, the age determining the risk. The members were urged to give the subject deep thought and to be prepared to instruct their delegates to the next local camp, at which time it will be attempted to change the plan of assessment.

GOES TO LINCOLN TONIGHT

Mr. Northcott is making a tour of the various camps in this section of the country and will speak at Lincoln tonight. He came to Omaha yesterday from Rock Island, where he met with a delegation of delegates from the various camps of the South Omaha and Council Bluffs, headed by D. H. T. Reiben. He was taken to the Millard hotel and was kept busy most of the afternoon meeting the neighbors who called. Last night he was escorted to the theater by the several lodges of the local camp and was greeted by a full house.

FEARS FOR HER DAUGHTER

Mrs. Ida Pries Asks Chicago Police to Look Up Mrs. Olga Churchill.

Mrs. Ida Pries has requested the Chicago police to find her daughter, Mrs. Olga Churchill, who Pries, stating that she feared the girl had come to some unfortunate or harsh end in the metropolis. As a consequence the night details from every police headquarters there were instructed last night to look for the girl, her remains, or some trace of her whereabouts, while newspaper men in the Windy City were on a fierce still hunt of their own for a clue as to the present abiding place of the blue-eyed young wife. Soon messages of inquiry to Omaha started a similar investigation here, and Harry Churchill, Olga's husband, was seen. Said he:

"Olga has been seen in Omaha, near her mother's home within the last two weeks, and it stands to reason that Mrs. Pries knew the girl was in Omaha. I myself have not seen Olga since last August, and do not wish to, but I am told that she has been in this city some time."

"I took my wife from here to Chicago in April, 1917, two months after we were married in Council Bluffs. I secured a position as assistant steward on a Goodrich line boat, running out of Chicago on the lake, and during the summer I kept my wife with me on the boat. But in August she fell in with a German spy doctor on one of our trips, and deserted me for him. She said she was going back to Europe with him. I have never seen her since except twice in Chicago shortly afterward when I passed her on the street."

Harry Churchill now lives in Omaha with his mother, Mrs. Harriet Churchill, at 1821 Farnam street. He is steadily employed here as the western representative of a Chicago house. Mrs. Pries is living at 2248 North Nineteenth street. In April, 1917, Harry and Olga, both greatly under age, caused a great sensation here by crossing to Council Bluffs and being married, against the will of the parents of both. Since then their career has been more or less faithfully followed by the lynchette. The girl was extremely prepossessing, and Churchill is a good looking fellow.

LYNCH WILL GO TO LONDON

Will Attempt to Take His Seat in House and Stand the Consequences.

PARIS, June 6.—The correspondent here of the Associated Press learns that Colonel Arthur Lynch has decided to go to London early next week. He will go straight to the House of Commons, attempt to take his seat there and abide the consequences.

Colonel Arthur Lynch is accused of having fought with the Boers in South Africa. In November of last year, however, he was elected to the House of Commons to represent Galway. It was announced in London January 3 that Colonel Lynch would be prevented from taking his seat in the house, and that as soon as he had lost English soil he would be arrested on a charge of treason. It is said that warrants for the colonel's arrest are in the hands of the London police.

Colonel Lynch has been living in Paris for some time. LONDON, June 5.—Colonel Arthur Lynch, who is expected to take his seat in the House of Commons, in which he announces his intention of taking his seat in the house, says the end of the war in South Africa opens a new era, that he anticipates general amnesty and that he would say to those hostile to him: "Do not strike me, but hear me."

WOMAN'S WORK.

At the meeting of the Women's Christian association, held at the Young Women's formal session was taken to broaden the scope of the work now being done by making the Old Ladies' home, supported by the association, a home for both old men and women, the institution to be known in future as the Home for the Aged. This institution for life, one saw much felt in the state, which up until this time has had no such institution. The management and rules of the home will be continued as they have always been. Five applications were reported by the admission committee of old people wishing to enter the institution for life, one saw couple being accepted. The institution is now full. Notice was given of proposed changes in the constitution to be acted upon at the next meeting, these having been made necessary by the extension of the work. The association is arranging to hold a straw party, a social affair to help defray the support of the home for the summer.

Miss Stearns, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association of Lincoln, was in the city Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the Nebraska Ceramic club was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. F. Bergerer, the annual election of officers being the chief business. Mrs. J. C. Comfort was re-elected president, Mrs. G. F. Bergerer, vice president; Mrs. Frank King, secretary; Mrs. M. F. Wagner, treasurer, and Miss Edith Sandberg, custodian. A committee was appointed to prepare the course of work for next year, their report to be accepted at a called meeting to be held next Monday morning.

All members and friends of the Young Women's Christian association are invited to be present at a mass meeting to be held at the rooms at 4 o'clock on Monday evening in the interest of the project for securing a new permanent home for the association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors will be held Saturday morning.

Mrs. Byers, the general secretary, spent part of last week at Tabors, Ia., where she was invited to give her reading of "Bky Pilot" at the Christian Endeavor convention.

The ticket selling contest for the basketball game between the members of the gymnasium classes resulted in favor of Miss Lois Millman and Miss Edith Baker, season gymnasium tickets being the reward. The members of the gymnasium classes had the first of their summer outings on Friday, when the party, twenty-three in all, drove down to Bellevue, where they visited the college and enjoyed several hours at tennis.

Mrs. Margaret O'Connell is expected home from Iowa Monday, when she will resume the extension work of the association.

Now that the garden flowers have become plentiful a request is made that all who have flowers that can be spared contribute to the work of the Emma Flower mission. For many years this memorial to one of Omaha's best loved young women has been regularly distributed among the hospitals and sick rooms. Every Thursday morning of the year flowers are left at the home of Mrs. George A. Hoagland, 418 South Sixteenth street, where they are sorted and arranged in bunches and then distributed, and those having the work in charge request that all having flowers to give will bring them to that address on Thursday morning or telephone No. 198 where they can be called for.

The members of the oratory department of the Women's club enjoyed their annual all-day picnic Tuesday at the home of Mr. B. F. Carpenter on South Thirty-seventh street, the affair proving wholly delightful. In addition to the members of the department the retiring and new officers of the club were present, also the delegates who recently attended the Los Angeles biennial.

The members of the Home Queen's Circle met for the first time this summer at Mount St. Mary's academy, where a social affair was being present. The session was entirely with business, a general report of the year's work being made by the secretary.

Since the opening of the school of domestic science at St. Catherine's academy about 100 pupils have received instruction in the cooking classes, the circle having aided by creating an interest in the work.

Upon suggestion of the executive board it was decided that the society be divided according to the Catholic parishes in which the members live, one woman from each being appointed to keep alive the interest in the organization during the summer months. Meetings of these supervisors will be held at intervals, and it is hoped that the work will be resumed heartily in the fall.

The regular monthly meeting of the Omaha Charity association, operating the Creche, was held Thursday morning in the parlors of the Creche. As a majority of the members are now out of the city there was an unusually small attendance, the minutes concerning the conduct of the Creche.
