You have read the newspaper reports of the vast torrents of rain that poured through Hayden's, stock room roof Thursday evening. You have seen something of the way the prices are being slaughtered, but you can form no idea of the tremendous bargain-giving until you attend

Goods are practically given away in many cases, and prices on notions, embroideries, laces, leather goods, furnishings, underwear, shoes, carpets, draperies and curtains are most ridiculously low. The damage amounted to between $20,000 and $25,000, and every article whether thoroughly drenched, slightly mussed or ruffled from handling, will be closed out at once at the most sensationally LOW PRICES EVER NAMED IN THE WEST. WE HAVE TO APOLOGIZE for keeping some customers waiting Monday, but for TUESDAY THE DAMAGED STOCKS HAVE BEEN ARRANGED TO THE BEST POSSIBLE ADVANTAGE for easy selection. Additional clerks have been secured and you are assured of finding just what you want with but the very slightest inconvenience-no matter how big the crowds. Be sure and see the special values in CARPETS, MATTINGS, CURTAINS AND DRAPERIES. Visit the bargain room. Come early if possible. THE SHREWDEST BUYERS WILL BE ASTONISHED AT THE MARVELOUS VALUES GIVEN IN THIS GRAND WET GOODS DAMAGE SALE.

gram.)-The base ball game today was quickly done, taking only an hour and twenty minutes, and while it was a clean

victory for the home team it was by no means a dishonorable defeat for Omaha.

Both sides played unusually good ball. It was pure luck that Dos Moines made the winning runs and Omaha did not. Morrison pitched an excellent game but excelled himself in fielding his place, while

Brown pitched ball that in any other game

would have been a sure winner. Clark won the game for Des Moines. Morrison led off in sixth with a base on balls and Clark followed with a double. Later Morrison came home on a mad play to catch

Clark, who later scored when an effort was made to catch Stearns at second.

These were all the runs. Omaha came very close to scoring in the second when

Stone got a single and Stewart a double and as good batting followed it seemed inevitable that a score should be made, but

ENGLAND WINS POLO GAME Second Match in the Series Being Played for American Cup.

HURLINGHAM, England, June 9.—The disappointment caused by the postponement of Saturday last had some effect in keeping down the size of the fashionable crowd which assembled at Hurlingham this afternoon to witness the second match in the series being played for the American polo Cup.

afternoon to witness the second match in the series being played for the American polo cup.

The betting before the opening of the game was still in favor of England, in spite of the Americans' success in the first game of the series, played May 31. A number of wagers were made at 5 to 4 on the Englishmen. A little rain fell a few minutes before the match began.

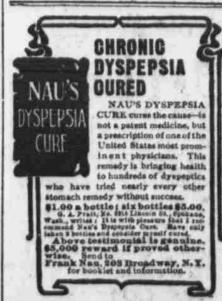

The teams were as follows:

Americans—R. L. Agassis, J. D. Coudin, Foxhall Keene and Lawrence Waterbury. British—Cecil Nickalls, Frederick Freake, George Miller and Walter H. Bucamaster.

The game opened in a very lively manner. The play started with a fierce rush by the Americans toward the English goal. The ball was kept there for some time, but finally the British forced it back, threatening the American goal so dangerously that Waterbury was thrice forced to kneck out in order to save the goal. The Englishmen finally scored a clean goal.

Play in the second period was also very fast, the ball alternating at each end, until the Americans scored from a short spot right in front of the post. Waterbury's stubborn defense was the feature of the third period, but the Englishmen's combination play and fine riding off teld.

England won by six goals to one.
