OMAHA SHRINERS IN 'FRISCO

Representatives of Tangier Temple Reach Golden West After Pleasant Journey.

NEBRASKANS AT HEADQUARTERS of Twenty-Eighth Imperial Council is Held and Features of Large Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha party of Shriners reached here yesterday afternoon, after an enjoyable five days' journey.

The twenty-eighth session of the imperial council opened this morning at Golden Gate hall. One of the novel features, for a Masonic body, was the presence of a number of women and other spectators, but these were permitted to remain only during the preliminaries.

After the opening address and responses the hall was cleared of all but the members and other nobles and the real business of the session began. The address of the imperial potentate showed a net gain in the membership of the order during the past year of 6,811. Charters are asked for new temples at Roanoke, Va., and Seattle, Wash.

At the close of the forenoon session the representatives sat down to an elaborate lunch provided by the local temple. Among the toasts drunk at the luncheon was the health of Noble Henry C. Akin, "the next imperial potentate."

Saratoga is Chosen.

Frank O. Evans, potentate of Za-Ga-Zig temple of Des Moines was appointed at the afternoon session, one of a committee of five to select the time and place of the next session of the imperial council.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., was chosen. Tonight the grand scenic parade of the session occurred. Tangier's representatives were assigned to carry the flag of the order.

The parade and Representative Charles A. Tracy of Tangier was one of the aides of the imperial marshal. Among the visiting nobles from Nebraska not with the regular party are H. S. Weiler and L. E. Nebergall.

The parade this morning included about 1,500 nobles, some of them mounted, and many in picturesque oriental attire.

Grand Marshal R. P. Hurlbut, with his staff and aides, rode in the lead, immediately followed by a mounted bugle corps. This came a body of white, except their red feet, and flowing white capes, forming a strong contrast with the black horses they rode.

Another body of aides preceded a band, which played weird eastern music, to which marched the Arab patriots, then came a body of black and gorgeously attired nobles on foot and on horseback.

At intervals the various drum corps performed bewildering evolutions and were enthusiastically cheered by the thousands of spectators who lined the sidewalk.

The parade was a success of hands and the parade ground by four black horses, in which rode Imperial Potentate Shaffer and Past Imperial Deputy Potentate Field. A long line of carriage followed.

The delegates to the imperial council and their friends, in honor of the occasion, were in procession, which gave but a slight hint of the splendor which is expected to characterize the parade tonight.

Paraders Disperse.

On arriving at Golden Gate hall, the imperial escort halted, opened ranks and stood with drawn scimitars, while the distinguished officials passed into the building.

The open session of the imperial council was begun with prayer and music. Illustrative Potentate Charles H. Murphy, on behalf of the California nobles, welcomed the pilgrims to the western oasis and Mayor Schmitt spoke for San Francisco, extending the freedom of the city.

The council then went into secret session.

The committee on credentials made its report and standing committees were appointed. Imperial Potentate Shaffer then delivered his annual message to the imperial council on the condition of the order in North America and in which outlined the last year. The record of the last year is the proudest in the history of the order, showing a gain of 8,000 nobles in the jurisdiction, with eighty temples in the United States, two in Canada and one in Hawaii.

The increase in the finances is the largest known in the order.

In accordance with a timehonored custom Deputy Imperial Potentate H. C. Aiken of Omaha will be chosen imperial potentate without opposition.

The other officers will be advanced one rank, except the treasurer and recorder, who will be re-elected. The only contest will be over the coveted place of imperial oriental guide, which is the stepping stone for the higher places. For this position thirty-one delegates have been named and there may be more in the field.

WRECK ON GREAT WESTERN

Seven Coaches Piled in Ditch and Demolished, but No Deaths Occur.

ST. JOSEPH, June 10.—A Chicago Great Western passenger train, due here at noon, was today wrecked at Dean, a small station about seven miles north of the city shortly before 11 o'clock.

One passenger was injured. He is Henry Vanderburgh, a traveling man, with headquarters in New York City. The entire train, consisting of seven coaches, left the track and rolled down a twelve-foot embankment. Nearly every car was badly splintered.

The cause of the accident is believed to have been due to the spreading of rails. A wreckage train was sent from this city and the wreckage cleared, so that all trains are running on time tonight. The sleeping car was completely demolished, but by the queer shifting of fate, not a single occupant was hurt.

The train, it is reported, was running at the rate of forty miles an hour. Railroad men express surprise that some deaths did not follow the remarkable accident.

M'CARTHY OF DIXON IN THIRD

Forty-Six Ballots Taken by Fremont Convention Before Choice.

RESULT ACCEPTED WITH ENTHUSIASM

Unsuccessful Candidates Pledge Their Hearty Support and Delegates Go Home Well Pleased with Their Work.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

FREMONT, Neb., June 10.—(Special Telegram.)—After a protracted contest that for a while threatened a deadlock the republicans of the Third congressional district in the convention here nominated Hon. J. W. McCarthy of Dixon county on the forty-sixth ballot.

The field at the start was almost equally divided between six candidates and the winning candidate was not selected until the morning and afternoon session had been succeeded by an evening session. The apparent lead in the balloting fluctuated from one to another, no one receiving more than six votes out of the 240 until the forty-sixth roll call, when Burr county gave the Dixon man half its vote.

On the next ballot the movement began by Cedar giving its vote to McCarthy, meaning the withdrawal of Jena. After the unofficial tally showed McCarthy to have sixty-three votes, every other candidate withdrew and McCarthy was elected.

A motion of McDonald of Thurston called before the convention McCarthy, who said: "We have been engaged in this work so long I shall make no extended remarks. I thank you for the honor you have conferred on me more than words can express. I shall make the campaign as a republican and exert every effort to secure election. With you and the benefit of these prosperous times that proclaim that republican policies are right, we ought to succeed."

Losers Are Supporters.

The unsuccessful candidates as called on thanked their followers and pledged support to the nominee. Dr. Hansen said: "I am for McCarthy, and will go home wearing a McCarthy badge." W. W. Young was enthusiastically received as he declared: "So far as our nominees are concerned, you have selected a man who has my highest regard. Whatever I can do to bring about his election will be done in this campaign. As an endorsement of his high support, George A. Brown started the congressional campaign fund with a $100 contribution. E. A. Willie, Julius Jena, H. C. Vail, W. P. Warren and J. F. Boyd, all made encouraging speeches.

The encouragement of the struggle was unquestionably due to the fact that so many counties had candidates for offices whose interests they wanted to advance. One delegate facetiously emphasized this by moving to adjourn until some time after the state convention.

Routine of the Session.

The convention organized in the morning with E. R. Gurney of Winslow as chairman and Charles S. Beebe of Wayne and George N. Seymour of Elgin as secretaries.
