FAXES ON PACKING HOUSES

County Commissioners Promise to Raise Figures Presented. STOCK YARDS ALSO RETURNED TOO LOW. Position of County Attorney in Matter Has No Weight with Board of Equalization, Which Will Act.

In response to a request County Attorney Shields has given the County Board of Equalization an opinion that the board has no power to raise the assessments of the South Omaha packers and the Union Stock yards company unless complaint is made against them. Commissioner Ostrom differs with the county attorney and insists that an effort will be made to increase the assessments, which are said to be ridiculously low.

COMPARATIVE VALUATIONS

The following table shows the assessors' returns this year compared with the valuations fixed by the board last year.
