Requisition Case in Which Location of Boundary is Important One.

INVOLVES CIVIL AND CRIMINAL CASE

Omaha Man Finally Secures Discharge from the Army, Though He Has Not Seen Service Since the Early 60's.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha Commercial club's special train, carrying 120 men, arrived here on Thursday night. The club kept up its reputation as a rainmaker, for it commenced to rain as soon as the train arrived and continued all night.

All the towns visited were enthusiastic in their praise of the enterprise. Everybody got busy the moment they arrived at town and kept it up until they left.

Jim Martin of the South Omaha delegation appropriated a farmer's team and started over the hills. At Craig he was captured by the farmer and returned to the train. A badge fight was pulled off here for the benefit of the excursionists.

Friday the train leaves here for the return trip, arriving in Omaha at 11:50 p. m. LAUREL, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha Jobbers' excursion arrived from the north at 9 a. m. They visited all the business houses in town. The citizens gave them a cordial welcome and shaking and pleasant salutations were indulged in by both citizens and visitors.

Laurel appreciated their hurried visit. PONCA, Neb., June 20.—(Special.)—The Omaha Commercial club excursion arrived in Ponca at 4:45 p. m. yesterday. The club was met at the depot by a number of little girls who presented each visitor with a bouquet.

The band accompanying the Omaha tourists entertained the citizens with several selections and forty-five minutes were spent in rewording and making acquaintances. Ponca was highly pleased with the clubs first visit.

At least it was not long after Mrs. Adams secured her new possessions that the Turgeons began exercising dominion over it. The difference was and finally "Fred" Turgeon was arrested and released only after a perpetual injunction had been issued against him by the South Dakota courts enjoining him from in any way interfering with Mrs. Adams. Shortly after this he was down on one of her fences, and was again arrested, this time on the charge of contempt of court. He was sentenced to term in jail but managed to make his escape.

Resists the Officers. Meanwhile Mrs. Adams had leased the premises to Alvin Griffith and Homer Robb. The South Dakota officers rightly guessed that "Fred" would go back to the land and cause more trouble, so Sheriff Lewis M. Lewiston and Deputy Sheriff Samuel Halliday, adjourned to the scene of prospective trouble. Together with Mr. Griffith they concealed themselves in a bunch or bushes on the Dakota side, while Robb went on with his work. The Turgeons, three in number, soon appeared and trouble broke. The officers walked out to the brothers and demanded their surrender, but a bullet was the answer.

A man was then begun in which each of the Turgeons was hit. C. W., or "Fred," as he is called, received a bullet in the abdomen from a revolver. Valaire C. and Adolore were each hit in the legs, but the trio managed to get back to ground amidst in Nebraska. There they were safe from the Dakota officials. Mr. Griffith had a bullet through his hat.

Nebraska Requisition Ignored. Governor Savage at once issued a requisition on the governor of South Dakota for the arrest of Lewiston, Halliday, Griffith and Robb, but his request was politely turned down on the theory that the crime, if one was committed, was in South Dakota and not in Nebraska. On the same theory, the arrest of the Turgeons is requested.

Those who are here to urge that Lieutenant Governor Steele honor the request are E. C. Ericson and H. H. Wallace, attorneys, in Lincoln, district attorney; H. M. Vinton, attorney, in Omaha; and James Halliday, sr. The last three named are witnesses by whom the attorneys hope to prove that the land is on the South Dakota side of the river.

Discharge is Long Coming. Under authority given by the governor, Adjutant General Colby this afternoon issued a special order honorably discharging Dr. Frederick Renner of Omaha, from the state military service. Dr. Renner was captain of the Otse County Reserve in the time of the Indian uprisings along the Little Blue and in the Republican valley but was never officially released from service, though his company disbanded nearly thirty years ago.

"Dr. Renner's company performed valuable service in the campaign against the Sioux and Cheyennes in the early 60's," said General Colby. "The Indians of these two tribes became hostile and several disastrous battles with his own men, one of which was on the site of the town of Nelson. The Indians dismantled and burned overland stations all the way from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to Fort Kearney, Nebraska. Dr. Renner's company was in the middle of the fight, which began in August, 1864."

The commandant of the Wentworth Military academy of Kansas has notified Adjutant General Colby that Ralph Waldo Cole, of Omaha, is the most proficient of all students in the cadet organization of that institution.

Commandant Smoke, of the University of Nebraska, has accorded honors for efficiency in drill to A. M. Hull, A. K. Barnes and W. F. Wallace.

Dr. Stephen Phelps, of Omaha, gave a series of lectures relating to the Sunday school lessons of the coming year. Dr. C. G. Barnes, of Albion, told in a striking way how a busy business man can find time to be a Sunday school superintendent and introduce into the school the best modern methods. Dr. Barnes' paper will be printed in pamphlet form.

DOLLIVER IS NOT INTERESTED

New Owner of Register Says No Of- ficials or Politicians Own Stock.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, June 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Director of the Mint G. E. Roberts, who has bought the Des Moines Register and will assume charge of the paper on June 30, stated today that he was not interested in the purchase of the property was wholly erroneous and that the junior Iowa senator did not own a single dollar's worth of stock. "I bought the property to make it my life business," said Mr. Roberts. "It will be my aim to make the Register the leading republican paper of Iowa. It will be hatched on the man's skirts. It will be representative of the best republicanism. For good reasons I cannot tell you who my associates in the venture are. That will be known, however, when the company is incorporated. I may say that the Register is not a newspaper. They have gone into the enterprise as a business proposition."

Mr. Roberts will leave for Fort Dodge, Ia., tomorrow and will go from there to Des Moines to take possession of the property. Representative Thomas of the Eleventh Iowa district stated today that he had no knowledge as to whether J. U. Sammis of Lemars, who was selected for the collectorship of the northern district at the meeting of the Hawkeye delegation on Tuesday could accept the place or not. It is generally believed here that Sammis will accept.

Mrs. G. M. O'Brien, of Omaha, accompanied by her daughter Frances, arrived in Washington today with her son, N. J. O'Brien, who recently resigned the superintendency of the Southern railway. Mr. O'Brien will take his final ride south to Atlantic City for a few days and will then go west.

The comptroller of the currency has extended the corporate existence of the First National bank of Falls City, Neb., until the close of business, June 30, 1902.

The Iowa National bank, of Des Moines, has been approved as reserve agent for the Merchant's National bank of Clinton; the National bank of North America, of Chicago, for the First National bank of Crystal Lake and Red Oak National, of Red Oak, Ia.

The postoffice at Ascot, Pottawattamie county and Pettis, Sac county, Ia., will be discontinued after June 30.

A civil service examination will be held at Lead, S. D., on July 2, for the position of clerk and letter carrier in the post-office at that place.

Contracts for carrying the mail have been awarded as follows: Iowa, Council Bluffs to Lovings Springs and Taylor, to G. M. Booth; Council Bluffs, Council Bluffs to Kottick, to W. M. Dent, of Coloma; South Dakota, Lebeau to Everett, R. Harrohan, of Smalley; Westover to Presho and Stearns, to Moss Winter, of Westover.

Postmasters appointed: Joseph Kreps, of Lincoln, resigned; Western College, Lincoln county, Ia., Salsburg, to S. E. Branaman, resigned; Concord, Dixon county, Neb.

Congressman Robinson occupied the floor of the house tonight in a twenty-minute discussion of the Shippping bill. The speech was made along the line of a democratic argument, in which he attacked the policy of the republican party in the Philippines, and gave the reasons why his party opposed that policy. The speech was forceful from a democratic standpoint.

DISCUSS CASE AT VENICE

Members of Cabinet Take Up Matter of Imprisonment of Naval Officers in Italian City.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The case of the American naval officers imprisoned at Venice was discussed at an executive meeting today, but the officials decline to make any statement in regard to it.

It is known, however, that Secretary Moody, for the navy, has assured the Italian ambassador that the publication of the report of the court of inquiry will be entirely unauthorized and that the department would not have consented to it had it been advised.

As the ambassador is particularly annoyed by the severe criticism upon the Italian jails in the indorsement in the findings, it is probable that the affair will be smoothed over by an explanation to the effect that the Navy department does not share in the same criticism, which is simply that of one of its officers expressed as a matter of internal administration. Probably this will end the matter for the present at least.

There was a very genuine feeling expressed as to the success of the canal proposition. Secretary Hay had a long conference before the meeting with Senator Morgan and other senators and all the advice that had come to the White House before the cabinet meeting went to assure the president that no canal legislation at the pending session is a certainty and almost as strong was the evidence that the legislation would be in favor of the Panama project.

WANTS RELIGION UPHELD

Emperor William Says This Must Be Done if German Strength is Retained.

CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT SIDE BY SIDE

Ruler of Germany Rejoices Because He Has Placed His People and Whole Empire Under the Cross.

AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, Prussia, June 20.—A striking speech on religion by Emperor William was delivered at the city hall here yesterday after his arrival from Bonn, accompanied by the empress and the crown prince, Frederick William. After observing that the city was the cradle of the German empire, Charlemagne, on whom the emperor conferred the dignity of a Roman Caesar, having fixed the seat of government, the emperor said:

"What, however, his powerful personality was able to effect, namely, combining the office of a Roman emperor with that of a Germanic king, was denied his successors, who strive to imitate the world-wide empire, forgot the cause of Germanism, that little by little the German land and people decayed and the Roman empire of German nationality fell to pieces. Now, however, another empire has come to life and its tasks are different from those of ancient days. Combined in their outward form, the German and the Roman empires have fallen upon them. In these days the young empire is strengthening itself and confidence in it is ever increasing. The mighty German army constitutes the support of the peace of Europe, and in concert with the character of their race the Germans have kept themselves within the bounds, far outside the world concerned, in order to be wholly unfeared at home. Every thought is directed to the work of God. It is not to be forgotten that the empire was created in simplicity and placed in it. I look to all, priests and laymen, to help me uphold religion among the people and to the peace of Europe, and for the preservation of its health and strength. This applies equally to the two creeds, Catholic and Protestant."

It is with pride and joy that I am able to say that the pope stands to my special ambition of the holy father's jubilee that he had always been in my mind. I have plenty of the Germans and especially of the country in Europe where control, order and unity are desired, with respect for authority and regard for the church, and where the church could live, was the German emperor, and for the papal see was intended to the German emperor.

This justifies me in saying that our two great creeds must, while living side by side, grow together in one great aim and reverence for religion. Whether we are moderns or ancient, we are laboring in the same field and that field does not matter at all. He who does not find his life on religion is not a man. I can only have pleasure in my whole empire, my people and my army, as well as myself and my house, beneath the cross and under the protection of Him who said: "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My word shall not pass away."

Emperor William concluded with calling for three cheers for Aix-la-Chapelle.

WOOD REPLIES TO HILL

Says that Criticism Shows Profound Ignorance or Disregard of the Truth.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—General Wood, former military governor of Cuba, today authorized the following statement in regard to the criticism of his administration, made by D. E. Hill in the "Hidden Club" reunion in New York last night.

"The statement made by Mr. Hill shows either a most profound ignorance of the subject to which he refers or an absolute disregard for the truth. If he had ascertained the facts and desired to state the truth, he would not have made the statement which he is credited with having made."

WOMEN IN SOCIETY

Use Pe-ru-na as a Protection Against Summer Colds and Their Disagreeable Consequences.

A Society Woman's Prolonged Illness. Her Rapid Recovery by the Use of Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Chas. Steinecke, a popular young society matron of Stoughton, Wis., writes: "My experience with Peruna has been most pleasing. By carelessly leaving a heated ball-room I got thoroughly chilled and caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs. I wore a protector, took many remedies for colds without success. With my other troubles I had catarrh of the head. Peruna was recommended to me, and I bought a bottle, and soon began to improve, and kept on taking it and cured me of all my troubles. I am most pleased to testify to its merits."—Mrs. Chas. Steinecke.

Mrs. Harriet F. Kimbro, Prairie View, Tex., Preceptress for the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College of Texas, writes: "I am pleased to state that Peruna has proven of great value to me. I often found my duties proved too much for my strength and if it were not for Peruna, I could not continue to do my work. It is a splendid tonic, invigorator and restorer. I remedy I know of for women to take. It acts quickly in ridding the system of a cold and catarrhal affections."—Miss H. F. Kimbro.

Colds are considered one of the necessary ills of life. One is liable to catch cold both summer and winter. Very often summer colds prove fatal. They are always dangerous. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. It may cause catarrh of any of the internal organs—the head, throat, lungs and stomach, or pelvic organs. Remedy that cure a cold then would cure all these direct effects of colds. Peruna is such a remedy. We have letters from all over the United States attesting to this fact. The doctor and rich alike use and recommend it. A book of testimonials in the exact words of the writer sent to any address free of charge by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. F. B. Henderson, 632 Grand Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., Treasurer of the Schiller Club, writes: "I never had any faith in patent medicines until I tried Peruna, but my experience with this reliable medicine has taught me that there is one which can be trusted and which will not fail in time of need. For the past few years I have found that I caught colds easily, which would settle in a most unpleasant catarrh of the head. I had to be especially careful about being out even-ings and not to get chilled when dressed thin for parties, but since I have used Peruna my general health is improved, and my system is in such good condition that even though I am exposed to inclement weather it no longer affects me. "I have a splendid appetite and enjoy life, being in perfect health."—Mrs. F. B. Henderson.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
