DULL DAYS FOR THE SOCIAL

Early Summer Finds Nothing Doing Among Omaha's Smart Folks.

WEDDINGS ALONE BREAK THE MONOTONY

Several Elaborately Simple Nuptial Celebrations Noted Among the Occurrences in Local Society During the Last Week.

ff the week just passed has been remarkable for any thing whatever, it has been for the extraordinary duliness of things, for there has been scarcely enough going or to keep society awake. Only the middle of June and not enough of the fashionables left in town to insure success of any sort of entertainment, at least this is the explanation of the luli as given by those who ordinarily might be expected to do something at this season of the year.

Of course, there have been the weddings and of course, in calling the week dull, they have not been taken into account at all for, as every one knows. June weddings are things apart from all ordinary happenings and command an inferest beyond affairs of affairs as they have been too, all home weddings and so simple and unpretentious with their decorations of greens and spring flowers and their dainty, alry summer gowns that not a few of the prospective October brides have half way regretted their choice of month, or at least that sweet peas and elderberry blossoms do not bloom in

The dancing party given on Thursday evening by Judge Woolworth in compliment to four of the prospective debutantes, was a wholly delightful occasion, being the first reunion of the summer of the young people just home from school and their enthusiasm and keen enjoyment was refreshing indeed, giving promise of other similar affairs in

Weddings and Engagements.

Mrs. Edward C. McShane announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ellen McShane and Mr. William Tracy Burness. The wedding of Miss Ruth Weller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Weller, and Mr J. Percy Fielshel of Canon City, Col., will occur at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the Weller home in Kountze place.

The marriage of Miss Helen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright, and Harry E. Duval, occurred at the home of the bride's parants, 2014 Elm strret, on Wednesday evening, about thirty friends being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Morris of 1135 Park avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hattle Morris, and Mr. David Prentke of Cleveland, O. At home on Wednesday evening, June 25, from 8 until 11 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Emma Louise Smythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smythe, and Mr. Harry Steel will occur at All Saints church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A reception will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smythe, 2611

Pierce street. A very pretty wedding took place last Monday evening at the home of Mr. John Douglas, 4412 Douglas street, when Miss Marion Scott of Woodstock, Ont., was united in marriage to Mr. James T. Falconer of this city, but recently of London, Canada. Rev. W. B. Patterson, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, officiated. The newly married couple left immediately for the east.

The marriage of Miss Mary Murphy, daughter of Mr. John D. Murphy, and Mr. James H. McIntyre was solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at St. John's Miss Williams and Miss Mary Petty attended the bride. Miss Eva Murphy was maid of honor and Mr. John Murphy acted as best man. A wedding supper followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre leaving late in the evening for Chicago and the lakes, to be absent about three weeks.

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place last Wednesday, at 4208 Burdette street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burgess, at the marriage of their daughter, Edith, to Dr. Joaquin Stevens of Traverse City. Mich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis White of St. Andrew's church. The bride was beautiful in a simple gown of white, and was attended by Miss Hallie Hardin. Immediately after the ceremony, the young people left for a tour of the lakes before going to their future in Traverse City.

Among the social events of the week of especial interest in North Omaha circles was the wedding of Miss Lillian Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Wilcox, and Mr. Thomas Wiggins Allen, which occurred at the Wilcox home, 2109 Wirt street, at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Palms, smilax and cut flowers in profusion trimmed the rooms, the baywindow of the front parlor being filled and arched over with greenery and forming an effective background for the bridal party as they passed between the broad white satin ribbons stretched by two younger slaters of the bride, Misses Ruth and Marjory Wilcox, and stood before it while the mar- | Fe. Little Miss Mildred Wilcox, a niece of the bride, as ring-bearer, was her only attendant The bride's gown was of white batiste with trimmings of insertion and tucks and she carried a shower of white carnations Late in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Allen left for a bridal trip through the east which will include the larger cities and Canada. They will be at home after August 1 at 2215 Grace street, Omaha.

Among the larger affairs of the week in the Hanscom park district was the marriage of Miss Edna Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Jones, and Mr. Merrill A. Bake of Kansas City, which occurred at o'clock on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, 1525 Park avenue. About eighty guests assembled to witness the wedding, which was especially impressive in its simplicity. The rooms were hung with decorations of spring flowers and asparagus fern. The parlor, where the service was read, was trimmed white and green, while the crimson rambler rose added brightness to the other together, preceded by little Miss whose wedding anniversary it was. The home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Frederick, 1706 South Thirty-second street, was the scene of one of the prettiest of the clubs and is not altogether confident of many smart affairs of the early summer Wednesday, when about seventy-five guests assembled to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Constance, and Mr. James Lowell Cook of Chicago, which was solemnized at high noon. Rev. T. J. Mackay of All Saints Episcopal church, the officlating clergyman, preceded the bridal party as they entered the room. Two little girls, Misses Majorie Cook of Chicago and Judith Frederick of Gibbon, Neb., as ring bearers and flower girl were the only attendants, and contributed a charming feature in their white organdic frocks as they entered with an arm full of roses. The bride, a tall brunette, was gowned in Irish point over white chiffon and silk carried a a shower of bride's roses. She was accompanied by her father, who gave her away. The marriage service was followed by an elaborate wedding breakfast, the erimson and the green used in the decoration of the parlors being employed in the dining room. A tall vase of American Beauty roses occupied the center of the round table, which was further trimmed with amart silk sachet rosettes of the same color as the flowers. Festoons of smilax from the chandeller above dropped to the edge of the table and completed the most effective trimming. As a pretty supplement to the occasion was the christening of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Roberts of Chicago, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick. The many fine high grade planos which are being returned from schools and colleges, which have been rented of this house for the last season, are creating quite a stir in musical circles. These planos have had so little use that they are really in better shape than when new as to the workings of the action. The cases have been gone over by the polisher, all the little scratches removed, and, from the way the instruments are going, there will be but few left at the end of the two weeks of this special sale.

Many planos have been taken, as the prices are so cheap that most anyone can afford one or the other of these heautiful instruments—in quartered oak, Dan Domingo mahogany, rosewood and French walnut finish—in curity walnut and birch woods. Among they are Knab. s. Kimballs, Krells, Hospes. Mathusheks. Schumanns, Hallett & Davis and a number of other makes that cost while new from $200 up to $550. These instruments are marked in plain figures—one price only. They are sold on very small spayments, as low as $5 per month, which is equal to $1.25 per week, and upward.
