Alloway Touched Up for Enough Hits to Lose the Game and Graham Substituted Too Late.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 22.-(Special Telegram .- Omaha hit a fast pace at the first of the game today but lost its hold after the first inning and didn't have a smell thereafter. The same ended with a poors of 6 to 2, the Omahas having gained their quots in the first inning. Carter led off with a single and was sacrificed to second by Genius. Canboun singled and Carter went to third. Stone made a double and brought the two in and second a second later on a single by Dolan. Thus Omaha's run-getting story ends.

To add to the strepueness of the situa tion, the Creams lit on Alloway and pounded him out of the box. He was replaced in the fourth by Graham, who succeeded in bolding the hits down after most of the dam-

The poor work of the westerners with the stick was somewhat retrieved by Dolan's work at short. Everything that couched his fingers was gold and some f his stops were well nigh impossible. Genius at center made a great catch in the first, running elear over into left field territory and sticking his left mit out, but managing to hang onto the ball. The bating fever which had seized Omaha in the first was out short by an equally difficult eatch by Duffy in center, who after a hard run into the corner, nabbed Stewart's long Senator Lodge of Massachusetts Delivers Address to the Graduating Class.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 22.- The commencement exercises of Tale university were begun today with the class day ceremonies of academic and Sheffield scientific departments and the anniversary exercises of the law school. Beautiful weather prevalled and all the exercises were attended by large crowds.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts delivered an address to the graduating iass of the law school.

After sketching briefly the early career and training of Oliver Elisworth ar/ his selection as a delegate from Cor/ectiont to the Philadelphia convention of 1787, Senator Lodge referred to the problems which faced the convention and continued:

Now, exactly what was it that Elisworth did? He won his victory for equality of state representation in one branch of congress, but did far more even than this, for he saved the constitution itself and made it possible.

Just now there is a movement on foot to bring about the election of senstors by direct popular vote. If successful it will inevitably be followed by proportionate representation in the senate and the most radical revolution conceivable will take place in our form of government. We alone among the nations possessing a representation. If the senate is placed upon the same basis as the house and is chosen in the same way by the same constituency its character and meaning depart, the states will be hopelessly weakened, the balance of the constitution will advance with giant strides and we shall enter upon a period of constitutional revolution of which the end cannot be foretold. When we contemplate what the equality of the state meant at the time of the Pfilindelphia convention, what it has meant throughout our national life and what its overthrow would mean today we realize the great service of Eliswooth and how large and enduring a place he holds in our history.

In speaking of a charge made by one of Ellsworth's contemporaries in the senate, William Maclay of Pennsylvania, that Ellaworth was a tool of Alexander Hamilton. whom Maclay regarded as totally corrupt, Senator Lodge exclaimed:

Mr. Reid will witness the naval review off Spithead. Saturday, from the royal yachi. The members of the embassy will be on board the boat set apart for the diplomatic corps. On Saturday night Mr. Reid will dine with Rear Admiral Arent S. Crewninshleid on board the battleship Illinois.
