20 bales of towels will be placed on sale Monday at less than half the regular selling prices—great bargains.

We bought 20 bales of Turkish towels from one of the best known manufacturers in America. They are known as "Seconds," that is, they are subject to some slight imperfection, some have a little misweave, others are slightly over bleached, then again, others have a loose thread. All these little defects are hardly noticeable in towels, still, they are imperfect nevertheless and cannot be sold as regular goods. We will place on sale the 20 bales at unusually low prices. Come tomorrow and buy Turkish towels enough to last you a year or more. It will certainly pay you—NOTE THE PRICES—
