"LEARN TO DO BY DOING."

A System of Business Practice is Carried on at

BOYLES COLLEGE

Which in its workings is an exact counterpart of the everyday work of a modern business office and gives the student a practical knowledge of methods and details that it is impossible to secure by any other means.

There is no better way of knowing how to do a thing than by doing it. When a business transaction is illustrated by requiring the student to make out a bill of sale of goods, draw up a promissory note, make out a bill of lading, discount commercial paper, deposit the proceeds in the bank, and, in brief, exact all the details with as much precision as if the transactions were in every sense real, such instruction gives a practical knowledge that cannot fail to inspire the student with confidence. It is business taught as it is practiced. It is the actual business world in miniature, with all phases of business reproduced. The college advertising literature is free. Apply for It.

SECOND RISE IN PRICE OF STOCK.

Northwestern Copper Mining Co,

There remains but a few thousand shares of this stock for sale. As seen as

The Price Advances to 15 Cents on July 12th. But sales will be stopped at any price just as soon as the few thousand yet for have been subscribed.

Subscriptions Received Afterwards Will Not Be Accepted.

The Reason Why: 65,000 Shares Were Sold in so short a time among a large number of people is that they investigated and found an honest company owning 100 acres containing a large vein with as rich copper ore as was ever discovered. They saw the slight risk and the assurances of large and quick returns. They did not speculate, but made a sound, sensible investment and secured a stock worth many times the price. Don't delay getting the booklet and investigating.

If your subscription comes in after the limit is reached it will not be accepted.

Notice the Installment plan of payment.
