COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Crowds from Omaha Take Up All the Room in Manawa Cara.

TRAFFIC TOO HEAVY FOR MOTOR LINE

Two Accidents Due to Gunpowder Which May Prove Fatal and Several Minor Casualties.

For hundreds of the citizens of Council Bluffs the Fourth proved a sore disap-They had planned to enjoy the holiday at Lake Manawa and with their families picnic there, but they were unable to reach the lake for lack of car service. The motor company failed to traffic to the lake, and in consequence hundreds of people were disappointed.

While the motor company had every car In the barns in commission yesterday, the growd from Omaha was so immense that every motor when it left across the river was loaded to the limits. Each car as it reached Council Bluffs on its way to the lake was filled to its utmost capacity, people clinging on the steps and other vantage points. This made it impossible for the people of Council Bluffs to find room on the cars until late in the evening and hundreds were compelled to return home with their lunch baskets, sorely disappointed. From 1 o'clock in the aftermoon until 5 o'clock the growd stood at the corner of Pearl street and Broadway, vainly waiting for an opportunity to get to

The want of power sadly handicapped the motor company and for several hours during the afternoon at the height of the travel to the lake the service was almost at a standstill. At one time twentytwo trains were stalled between Sixteenth avenue and the lake resort, passengers being compelled to leave the cars at the Wabash crossing and make the rest of the way to the lake on foot. From 3 o'clock until shortly before 5 o'clock not a car returned from the lake, and the service between Council Bluffs and Omaha was consequently during this time at a stand-

Requests that some of the cars be turned back at Pearl street and Broadway the people of Council Bluffs a chance to get to the lake were ignored by Superintendent Tarkington, and during the entire day but one car was placed at the disposal of the crowds congregated at Pearl and Broadway. From Pearl street to the Northwestern tracks crowds gathered at every street, vainly waiting for an opportunity to board a car to the lake, but were compelled to give it up, as every car was packed to its utmost capacity before leaving Omaha. The Rock Island, Milwaukee and Northwestern roads brought in a number of excursionists, whose objective point was Lake Manawa, but they were unable to get there and had to content themselves with spending the afternoon at Fairmount park or roaming about the city. Toward evening the service improved somewhat and shortly after 6 o'clock those who had patiently waited at Pearl street and Broadway the entire afternoon were rewarded by securing transportation to the lake.

Many Visit the Park.

Fairmount park proved the Mecca for the young folk yesterday afternoon and it is estimated that at least 3,000 children were gathered there to enjoy the program of sports offered by the park commissioners, assisted by the citizens' committee The park was also the resort of a large number of family gatherings and picnic parties, which could be seen dotted all over the hills and in the dales. With the plentiful shade offered by the trees and the breeze that blew all day, Fairmount park proved a most enjoyable resort yesterday.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Eugene Peterson, jr., eldest son of Eugene W. Peterson, local manager of R. G. Dun & Co., was seriously and possibly fatally injured yesterday while celebrating the Fourth. The young man, who is 23 years of age, with several companions, was shooting off a miniature cannon, when in some manner a can of gunpowder exploded. Peterson happened at the time to be leaning over the cannon and the gunpowder. can bit him full in the face, cutting a deep gash across the nose just below the eyes, nearly severing the nose from the face and inflicting other injuries which may possibly prove fatal. The cut below the eyes extended nearly into the brain, so great was the force with which the jagged can was hurled against the unfortunate young man's face. Even should be recover it is feared that the sight of one eye is lost and he will be permanently disfigured. TELLS OF TRAIN ROBBERY

Express Messenger Rejahl Recites Story of Sensational Holdup.

ROBBERS THREATEN TO USE DYNAMITE

Engineer Pleads with Desperadoes to Give Men in Express Car Chance for Their Lives-No Money Taken.

The Rocky Mountain Limited, the Rock Island train which was held up near Chicago Thursday night, when a baggageman was shot, arrived in Omaha yesterday afternoon about 5:15, its regular time being 1:30. Except for the perforated baggage car there was nothing about the train to indicate that it had passed through a holdup. If any further proof of the thrilling incident was needed, however, it was abundantly available from the numerous passengers, who had not recovered from the effects of their scare when they reached this city.

The robbery occurred three miles west of Blue Island, Ill., a small station sixteen miles west of Chicago, about 11 o'clock. The train left Chicago at 10 o'clock. The robbers shot J. E. Kain, assistant express messenger, and got away with several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry, but learn, were captured. The train was delayed about an hour as a result of the holdup, but lost time further along the

At the point of two ugly revolvers Mr. Rejahl was forced to do the bidding of the robbers and he says he did it the very especially fine. Colonel C. G. Saunders of best he could. Mr. Rejahl describes the holdup as follows:

The train had reached a hill three miles outside of the little town of Blue Island, when it suddenly came to a standstill. Although it was unusual for the train to park and many picnic parties. The ball stop at that place, no thought or fear of a robbery occurred to him or his associate in the baggage car. Two of the robbers climbed into the cab of the engine and made the engineer and fireman dismount and escort them to the baggage car. Before starting upon their grim pilgrimage, however, the robbers commanded the fireman to cut the train into two sections, leaving the baggage car in a more desirable location for their purposes, but as the engineer had taken up the slack, this demand was not complied Kain, the injured man, was placed in care of a physician at Tinley park by the trainmen. His injuries are not considered fatal. He lives in Chicago and runs from that city to Rock Island.
