Takes a Double-Header from Kansas City by Superior Ball Playing.

OUTBAT AND OUTFIELD NICHOLS' MEN Genius Hit in the Head with a Ball in First Inning of First Game and is Forced to Retire.

KANSAS CITY, July 4 .- (Special Telegram.)-If the crowd of about 4,000 spectators that went to Sportsman's park today thought that it was to have a monopoly on the noise and the display of fireworks, the crowd was mistaken. The home patriots, the Blue Stockings, had fireworks of their own. Unlike the crowd. Gibson, p.Weimer day thought that it was to have a mothey did not have it to burn, but they had it. The Nichols brand of patriotism was of the daylight, akyrocket sort, and General Charles Nichols, the Napoleon of yesterday's Waterloos, went high up. The Kansas City home patriots received an awful drubbing at the hands of the Omahans today. They lost both games. The fact that these defeats sent them into the two-hole would not come so hard if the locals had died game, but they didn't. Nichols and his men went up in a shower of yellow fire.

Earned runs: Kansas City, 1; Omaha 2.

Two-base hits: Robinson, Risley, E. Hickey.

Hit by pitched ball: Genins. First base on balls: Off Gibson, 2; off Brown, 1. Struck out: By Gibson, 8; by Brown, 3. Time: 145. Umpire: Moran.

It was the largest crowd Sportsman's park has seen this season, which makes the pill all the more bitter to Manning. Nichols & Co. It was a patriotic crowd, Nichols & Co. It was a patriotic crowd. Graham, too. Revolvers were fired incessantly and Stone, if. the noise was deafening. In the first game the Omahas started off in the initial inning with three runs. Carter was given a base on balls and was advanced to second when one of young Gibcrantum of Genins, who was puter out. Owen succeeded Genins and ran the bases for him. Stone was given a base Waldron, cf. Waldron, cf. Armstrong if. Armstrong if. Kemmer 1b. K came in. Stewart was cut of at second in an attempted steal and the side was retired when Thomas struck out. Hickey opened up with a two-sacker in Omaha's half of the second, but the next three men were quickly retired and the Omahan's steal of third did no good. Omaha cinched the game in the third. Owen got a life on Robinson's fumble of an infield hit and Stone beat a slow one to first, Dolan again sacrificed, advancing both men and Stewart's second hit of the game scored them. Ace was left on second.

The visitors did not score in the fourth. but they added one to their credit in the fifth, when M. Hickey threw Stone's hit into the crowd, the left fielder taking third on the error. He scored on Ace Stewart's hit, this being the third time that the old war horse swatted the ball squarely in the

In the seventh Omaha put two more units on the score board, two singles, a sacrifice, a stolen base and a two-bagger doing the business. The vistors were blanked in the two remaining innings, but they had more than enough,

The first game was characterized throughout by stupid playing on the part of Nichols' men. They batted like school boys and six costly errors were chalked up against them.

Had Hopes of the Second.

Hope sprung in the breast of the multitude when the gong sounded for the second game. It was a well known fact that Charles Nichols was to do the pitching and the prediction was put down in cold letters, "The blue stockings can't lose." The entrance of Nichols was greeted with the deafening discharge of 100 guns, everybody stretched and then all sat down and prestretched and then all sat down and pro pared to enjoy the feast of victory. And the unexpected happened. What the visiters did to Mr. Nichols should be written in red ink. And the change in the lineup of the Manningites did not alter the case. Risley was brought from left as a substitute for Robinson, while Allen succeeded Hickey at second. Risley was somewhat of an improvement at third, but if Allen has ever played in fast company there was no evidence of it in his work at second or at Carter made a good start from the standpoint of the Blues, for he was the first man up for Omaha, and Nichols handed him three wide ones, which he struck at. Graham, however, sent a grounder down to Allen, which that gentleman fumbled. He went to second on Stone's fly to left and Des Moines.... 1 4 0 0 0 1 0 0 *-6 16 1 scored on Stewart's drive to the same quarscored on Stewart's drive to the same quarter. Stewart was batting like a fiend and he was a veritable insignia of sure death to Charlie's twisters. The Omahans were blanked in the second, but in the third they gave the manager of the Kansas City Western league team a taste of high life. It was nothing but skyrockets and Nichols was lost in his own smoke. Stone singled to left and Dolan attempted to sacrifice and accomplished his purpose and then somehe beat out the bunt. Stewart sacrificed and Thomas' smashing drive to the left garden sent Stone and Dolan across the plate. Thomas stole second and went home with the third earned run of the inning when Gonding hit safe to right. Owen's strikeout retired the side.

If Nichols felt that he had been against the buszsaw in the third, greater trials in the seventh made him forget the He had been slammed to the corners of the lot, but he was prepared for this new onslaught. Graham was the first man up and he struck at the first ball pitched. It went high and far, too, and by the time the center fielder had found it in the weeds out near the railroad tracks Graham had completed the circuit. And this was not all. Stone followed with a corking threesacker into the left garden. Dolan waited for four wide ones; Stewart hit to Shannon, who threw the ball into the vicinity of the right-field bleachers, Stone and Dolan scoring. Stewart went home on Thomas' hit to center. There were two more innings,

DICKEY BIRD MEDAL EVENTS Parmelee Withdraws and Leaves Fogg and Hooper the Winners.

The two medal events were the most important of the shoot Friday afternoon at the grounds of the Dickey Bird Gun club. For the first, a twenty-five-target event for the class A medal, there were ton entries, all prominent shooters. Frank Parmelee and Frank Forg tled for the medal, each breaking all twenty-five targets. Mr. Parmelee then withdrew in favor of Forg without having a shoot-off, kiting Mr. Fogg take the medal. The scores were:

Besides these medal affairs there were more upon the amusing than the competitive features of the contest.

The Omaha Elks did an awful grist of batting and the other fellows also accomplished some nice stick work here and there, but Sergeant Bebout of the Omaha police made the big hit of the day when he took a patrolman in the sixth inning and threw Umpire Beech Taylor out of the diamond and out of the grounds for alleged yellow work. WYETH BEATEN BY ALADDIN Winner of the American Derby Loses the Sheridan Stakes by Horse that Finished Third.

CHICAGO, July 4.—In the presence of 20,000 people, G. C. Bennett's aladdin this afternoon won the Sheridan stakes at Washington park, defeating the American derby winner, Wyeth, and the colt which finished second in that race, Lucien Appleby. By a singular coincidence only the three coits which ran one, two and three in the derby started in today's race, which had most of the western derby colts as eligibles and the result, brought out as victor the colt which had come in third in the big event on June 21. Under the conditions of the race Aladdin had seven pounds the better of the weights, as compared with Wyeth, and five pounds as compared with Lucien Appleby. The distance of the race was a mile and a quarter, a quarter of a mile short of the derby. Wyeth opened in the betting at 7 to 5, Aladdin at 2 to 1 and Lucien Appleby at 12 to 5. At of a mile short of the derby. Wyeth opened in the betting at 7 to 5. Aladdia at 2 to 1 and Lucien Appleby at 12 to 5. At post time Wyeth and Aladdin were each 8 to 5. while Lucien Appleby's price remained about stationary. The three coits were sent away to a perfect start and Aladdin at once took the lead. He came past the stand a length and a haif in front of Wyeth. Lucien Appleby, as usual, trailed behind. At the first turn Coburn let out a link suddenly and had a lead of three lengths before the other boys knew what was coming. Then Lyne pushed Wyeth, but the derby colt did not make up the gap between himself and the leader with any great rapidity. At the haif mile pole Aladdin was running smoothly in front, two lengths to the good. Around the bend Wyeth was sent along as fast as he could go. On the turn for home he tried to pass Aladdin on the outside, but Coburn pulled out and carried his challenger clearly out of the way. Then straightening his mount out, Coburn hurried Aladdin along down to the finish, and although Lyne whipped Wyeth, the latter never seriously threatened the leader and in fact narrowly escaped being beaten out for second money by Lucien Appleby, who closed strong and steady. Aladdin won by two lengths, while only a neck separated Wyeth and Lucien Appleby. The track was slow and the time was 2:181-5. The total value of the stake was $4.745 and the winner's share was $3,160.
