

NEW SYSTEM MAKES WORK

Per Diem Arrangement Curtails Vacations for Railroad Clerks.

SPECIAL RATE FOR AK-SAR-BEN NIGHTS

One Fare for Round Trip for All Coming from Within Radius of Seventy-Five Miles to Initiatory Meetings.

The introduction of the new per diem system of charging and collecting for freight car use by several western roads is causing an endless amount of trouble for the accounting departments of the Union Pacific and Burlington.

Completion of the new system, the work of bringing about the transition from the old to the new and a hundred other little things which never were thought of when the innovation was devised, are daily looming up to vex and annoy.

Another very serious and more substantial complaint arising from this new method is in expecting to get a simpler method of charging and collecting these freight rentals.

To offset these features, however, the roads still hold that the innovation will prove profitable in that it will afford a larger saving in the prevention of delays in returning cars, and they say that this will more than compensate for the minor cost of extra clerk hire.

Special Ak-Sar-Ben Rate.

Some of the local passenger officials who attended the meeting of the Western Passenger association in Chicago returned to the city yesterday morning. One of the transactions of the meeting was the approval of a one-fare rate made by the Omaha office to people wishing to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben initiatory meetings Monday nights.

About Resignation's Resignation.

Later reports from Topeka indicate that the enforced resignation of C. F. Resaigue as superintendent of the eastern division of the Santa Fe was due to differences between Mr. Resaigue and Third Vice President Kendrick, head of the operating department of the system.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES IN COURT

Two Cases in Which Family Ties Have Apparently Worn Loose.

Mary Suter petitioned the district court for divorce from Fred G. Suter, alleging cruelty. Fred G. has now arrived with an answer, in which he relates a very different story.

In the case of Nellie against Oscar Campbell, a divorce suit, Judge Read has issued an order for injunction to prevent the defendant from molesting the plaintiff or her son Ralph, aged 8, and from withdrawing his deposit from the First National bank and hiding it, which she alleged he had threatened to do in order to keep it from her.

THE WILD WEST COMING.

The Farewell to Buffalo Bill for Some Time.

The event of the season is close upon us. Buffalo Bill is within walking distance and will arrive with his famous Wild West on July 31.

There are not, in any other organization for popular entertainment, so many hundreds of male performers and horses as appear in the arena of this Wild West, and not in many mere "shows," however pretentious they may be, are there such a number of men engaged in re-enacting for the public thrilling incidents of real life in which they themselves have been the heroes.

Geniuness of personality in personation has been a distinguishing characteristic of this entertainment ever since its first organization by Colonel W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). While the scenic performance is just as full of vivid stirring wild western scenes as ever, it has been expanded to take in a vast deal more illustrative of strong men and their doings.

Going to Move.

A year ago Benson & Thorne opened up the Lilliputian Bazaar at 1415 Douglas street. Their business has increased so they have outgrown their present location and on July 15 they will remove to 1515 Douglas street, the room formerly occupied by the Rochester Shoe company.

There's only one Stonecypher. He prints.
