Three Successive Errors Give the Game

Easily to Grizzlies. POP EYLER'S RECORD STILL UNBROKEN

Foxy Pitcher of the Packard Family Keeps Up His Reputation of Never Losing a Game to Omaha.

Three dumb errors in the fourth inning lost the first game of the series at home for Omaha Saturday afternoon. They came right along in a row and cost three scores. to which Denver added three more during the same. Thomas at first base made two of the misplays and Ed Hickey followed with the third. They came after the first man up had made a hit, and should have meant one, two, three outs, with no scores. But the hit scored and so did the .two who had taken first on Thomas' er-

Without these breaks Omaha could have won the game, despite the fact that the Rangers were able to find Eyler for only six hits. Much of the journey "Pop" was invincible, but in the seventh he let down for two doubles, which added a brace of tallies to the one made in the sixth, when Alloway batted in Thomas, who took first on Dundon's error.

In the eighth it seemed that Omaha would do more business with the chalk, for Eyler allowed two bases on balls, but nothing came of them. The old fox had the game well in hand most of the way and the big lead was too discouraging for the locals to but out a victory at the end. Alloway was pounded freely after the third inning, when the first two hits were made off him, with no scores. In the fifth came three singles and a double in a row, and in the seventh two more singles, when scoring stopped. Omaha may logically lay the defeat to the crippled condition of the team. The features of the game were a stop by Dolan and another by Hickey. A new umpire, J. Ross Swigart, was on duty and his first day's work showed traces of that yellow hue known as Lathamesque. "Swi" may brace up, however, and it is a cinch he has his spunk along. But so had all those bad umpires. If Genius cannot play center field tomorrow Owen and Brown will pitch the two games, of which the first begins at 2:30. Otherwise Graham will throw with

ELATES FIELD CLUB GOLFERS

Completion of Eighteen-Hole Course to Be Celebrated Today.

SHERWOOD AND BARTSCH IN MATCH PLAY

Semi-Finals and Finals in Fourth of July Tournament Played Off, with John Murphy Winner of Cup.

Omaha Field club now has its full eighteen-hole golf course, covering nearly 100 acres of land and being of standard The complete course will be opened today, and elation over this fact overshadows all other interests at the club just now. Last year the club played on the nine holes adjoining the base ball grounds and clubhouse. This season, so far, the new portion of the course, across the railroad track to the west, has been used. Nine holes were put in there, while the old course was seeded down. Now the two are joined in one big eighteen-hole course. The completion of these links will be given a marked sendoff by the occurrence on them of a battle royal in golf today. W. C. Sherwood and Fred Bartsch, the professionals at the Field and Country clubs respectively, will play a match over the course, match play. They will start between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon. Great interest attaches to the contest, as these rivals have met several times with varying fortunes.

Murphy Wins the Cup.

Saturday finals and semi-finals in the golf tournament begun on the Fourth of July were played off. In the first flight Sumney beat Robb two up and Johnnie Murphy beat Morrill one up. FIELD DAY AT FORT CROOK Soldiers Test Speed of Leg and Also Speed of Corkserew Finger.

Fort Crook had a rousing Fourth of July field day. There were seven race events, and then came a base ball game in which the team representing the Thirb battalion of the Twenty-second infantry defeated the Regents, 10 to 1. The feature of the day was the relay race of one mile, which was run by teams of four men each, thus giving each runner a quarter of a mile stunt. The team from Company I won, its personnel being Corporals Finley and Surman and Privates Campbell and Taylor. This race was run in the face of a heavy wind. On the first relay, Company I man sained a good lead, and the following three increased it a little in turn. Campbell did 200 yards in record time, but had pushed himself too hard, and fell back a little on the remaining portion of his journamed a brilliant finish.

The old soldiers' ruce offered a novel competition. Each competitor was to run fifty yards, open a pint bottle of beer, drink the contents and return to starting place. Corporal Burke of Company I won.

Frazer of the haspital corps won the mile bleycle race. Lieutenant Hitt took the fifty-yard dash for officers. Captain Assell being a close second, while the chaplain was last in. TITUS CONFIDENT OF WINNING American Oarsman Pleased with His Treatment by the English.

(Copyright, 1902, by Press Publishing Co.)

HENLEY-ON-THE-THAMES, England,
July &—(New York World Cablegram—
Special Telegram.)—C. S. Titus, the American oarsman who is here to compete for the diamond sculis, said today to the World correspondent, who saw him at his training quarters: "I am still confident of winning the diamond sculis, although for the first few days at Henley I was a slek man. The changeable English climate knocked me clean out, but I am quite well again and growing stronger every day. I am sorry I did not come to Henley a week sooner instead of staying at Futney, as the water here is very heavy and the course is equivalent to an American mile and a half straightaway. For the last three days a heavy breeze hus been blowing right down the course, and in addition I have to row against a slight tide.

"Among all the competitors for the diamends I think Louis Scholes, a Canadian, is the man I will have to heat, although Etherington Smith and Kelley are both very fast and Blackstaffe is a strong man. The list of competitors in this race is the largest on record, numbering eleven. Therefore, there will be more heats than usual.

"Both Mrs. Titus and myself are very comfortable at the Five Horseshoes hotel, on top of the hill about a mile and a half from Henley. We have lots to eat and plenty of good fresh air.

"The English boys have treated me fine. Their dealings have been square in every respect. The country all around Henley is the prettiest I ever saw. Altogether I am having a buily time.

half lengths, with Flying Torpedo and Nitrate behind him. The race was truly run, the only interference, which did not change the result, being Flying Torpedo's bumping into Six Shooter at the head of the stretch and his cutting across Nitrate near the infield gate. Dwyer sent a field of seven away to a spiendid start. Hunter Raine showed first, but Little Scout, with Helgerson up, moved in front immediately, but his lead was shortlyed as Matthews Raine showed first, but Little Scout, with Helgerson up, moved in front immediately, but his lead was short-lived, as Matthews set the pace with Flying Torpedo. Nitrate and Hermencia were battling for supremacy, Six Shooter was content to lie in front of Vincitor who, early in the race, was beaten off. At the head of the stretch Knight made his move and at the point the race was on in carnest, and at the infield gate it was all over but the shouting. Mead lodged a compalant of foul with the judges, which was not allowed.
