The new edifice is a frame structure of Gothic architectural design, standing on a rock-faced brick basement. The audience room and Sunday school room connect by sliding glass partitions and are flooded with an abundance of soft, mellow light through cathedral art glass windows. The seating is to be circular oak pews of handsome design. Though not of imposing appearance, yet it is one of the most commodious and handsome among the smaller churches of the city. The entire southern portion of the city takes great pride in this new structure, as it is the only church building, save one, east of Main street and south of Broadway.

The horse attempted to turn down Fourth street in front of the Masonic temple, but slipped and fell, thus bringing his maddened flight to a sudden halt. The child was thrown from the buggy, but escaped injury. Officer Kirk, who, fortunately, happened to be nearby, seized the horse and prevented it starting again. The buggy was badly broken.

The horse and buggy belonged to Edward Blumenstein of 1435 North Fifteenth street. Blumenstein got out of the buggy at Twelfth street and was in the act of hitching the horse when a passing motor frightened the animal and it broke loose, dashing off down Broadway, with Blumenstein's little 6-year-old daughter holding the reins and vainly trying to check it.

Horses Allowed to Return to Iowa Home. SIOUX FALLS, S. D. July 6 .- (Special.)-

Frank Gillen, the ex-employe of Parker Bros. of this city, who horrified the people of Sioux Falls about ten days ago by cutting the throat of a valuable horse, belonging to the firm, and attempted to kill several other horses and himself, has been released from custody. He has returned to his former home in Iowa. Gillen had been in the county jall since he surrendered, about a week ago. An examination of his mental condition was made by the proper authorities, and upon the advice of the state's attorney he was released, after his friends had paid to Parker Bros. the sum of $200 in payment for the horse he killed, and the costs of his escapade. He can consider himself fortunate in being released, as the maximum penalty under the laws of the state for the crime charged to him, is ten years in the penitentiary.

President Lieber Champtons Recommendation that Women Be Admitted to Full Membership of Societies.

DAVENPORT, Ia., July 6 .- The twentieth national convention of the North American Turnerbund opened in this city this morning, with Ed Lischer of Davenport temporary chairman and Noah Guter of Newark, N. J., temporary secretary. The report of the credentials committee showed 216 delegates present, all of the twentyeight district Turner organizations being represented. The delegates were welcomed by Mayor

Backer on behalf of the city and by Ed Lischer on behalf of the Davenport Turners. These were responded to by the president of the national society, Herman Lieber of Indianapolis. The only other features of the opening session were the reading of reports by President Lieber and Theodore Stempfel of Indianapolis. President Leiber in his address outlined the new contracts providing for a closer union of the normal school and the National German-American Teachers' seminary, Milwaukee, resulting in broader courses of instruction in the normal school

Favors Women Members. He spoke eloquently in favor of the recommendation of the national executive ommittee that women be admitted to full membership in Turner societies. He then referred to attempts made in the past to exert the influence of the Turnerbund in propogating the tenets of socialism. All such attempts, he said, had been frustrated by sound convervatism and he believed a renewal of the attempts would be attended by the same results. He submitted the correspondence of the executive committee relative to furthering the Red Cross work in the South African war, referred to the loyal support of the government by Turner societies in the civil war and concluded by saying:

war and concluded by saying:

To the gymnastic union the American flag has ever been the emblem of liberty. To be true to its past the Turnerbund must protest against every attempt to change the meaning of our flag. I doubt not that this convention will give utterance to the verdict of all freedom-loving citizens in the Philippine matter, in a manner at once dignified and free from all political partisanship.
